Practicing the Power of Present Moment Sanjeev Kumar, 2015-12-30 A true presence is beyond thoughts, words and actions. Accept this moment fully and look inside. There is stillness that speaks within at the center of being where you are beyond all experiences. There is no good or bad, positive or negative, but you are just as you really are. Everything is dissolved and you become one with everything. In Practicing the Power of Present Moment, Sanjeev Kumar explores and understands how we can witness and observe our thoughts in order to look within and find a deep connection with the Universe. Through Mindfulness Practice, we embrace the Power of Now, which can free us from anger, fear and stress. It brings divine peace, inner joy and happiness, which can help us to build a positive relationship, prosperity and well-being. Success in Reading and Writing

Thomas Deselaers, Nicola Ferro, Julio Gonzalo, Mikko Kurimo, Thomas Mandl, Vivien Petras, 2009-09-29 The ninth campaign of the Cross Language Evaluation Forum (CLEF) for European languages was held from January to September 2008. There were seven main evaluation tracks in CLEF 2008 plus two pilot tasks. The aim, as usual, was to test the performance of a wide range of multilingual information access (MLIA) systems or system components. This year 100 groups mainly but not only from academia participated in the campaign. Most of the groups were from Europe but there was also a good contingent from North America and Asia plus a few participants from South America and Africa. Full details regarding the design of the tracks, the methodologies used for evaluation and the results obtained by the participants can be found in the different sections of these proceedings. The results of the CLEF 2008 campaign were presented at a two and a half day workshop held in Aarhus, Denmark, September 17-19 and attended by 150 researchers and system developers. The annual workshop held in conjunction with the European Conference on Digital Libraries plays an important role by providing the opportunity for all the groups that have participated in the evaluation campaign to get together, comparing approaches and exchanging ideas. The schedule of the workshop was divided between plenary track overviews and parallel poster and breakout sessions presenting this year's experiments and discussing ideas for the future. There were several invited talks.

The tenth campaign of the Cross Language Evaluation Forum CLEF for European languages was held from January to September 2009. There were eight main evaluation tracks in CLEF 2009 plus a pilot task. The aim, as usual, was to test the performance of a wide range of multilingual information access (MLIA) systems or system components. This year about 150 groups, mainly but not only from academia, registered to participate in the campaign. Most of the groups were from Europe, but there was also a good contingent from North America and Asia. The results were presented at a two and a half day workshop held in Corfu, Greece, September 30 to October 2, 2009, in conjunction with the European Conference on Digital Libraries. The workshop, attended by 160 researchers and system developers, provided the opportunity for all the groups that had participated in the evaluation campaign to get together, compare approaches, and exchange ideas.

The Cambridge Companion to Hans Urs Von Balthasar Edward T. Oakes, David Moss, 2004-08-05. Publisher's description: Hans Urs von Balthasar (1905-1988) is one of the most prolific, creative, and wide-ranging theologians of the twentieth century who is just now coming to prominence. But because of his own daring speculations about the meaning of Christ's descent into hell after the crucifixion, about the uniqueness of Christ as savior of a pluralistic world, and because he draws so many of his resources for his theology from literature, drama, and philosophy, Balthasar has never been an easily categorized theologian. He is neither liberal nor conservative, neither Thomist nor modernist, and he seems to elude all attempts to capture the exact way he creatively reinterprets the tradition of Christian thought. For that reason, this Companion is singularly welcome, bringing together a wide range of theologians both to outline and to assess the work of someone whom history will surely rank someday with Origen, John Calvin, and Karl Barth.

Whose Language Is English? Jieun Kiaer, 2024-09-17. An exhilarating new account of the English language from British colonialism to the age of social media, emphasizing dynamism and democratization. Whose language is English? Although we often think of it as native to one place, today there are many Englishes. About seventy-five countries are now using English as their official or first language, and the number of people speaking it around the world continues to rise. But the makeup of the English-speaking population is changing. The proportion of speakers for whom English is a first language, for instance, is decreasing due to the explosion in popularity of English as a second language. In this ambitious book, Jieun Kiaer explores the lives of English words in the twenty-first century, when the creation and use of language has become an increasingly dynamic, interactive, and diverse process in which ordinary people have taken leading roles, offering such coinages as flexitarian, MeToo, glow up, and shitizen, to No, sabo, kids, and beyond. As English language grows ever more diverse, Kiaer believes we need a paradigm shift. We must acknowledge that all varieties of English are languages in their own right when they are used by a community of speakers. English is a language that belongs to everyone Considering the effects of social media the Covid 19 pandemic virtual work globalization and artificial intelligence Kiaer paints a compelling portrait of a diffuse rapidly evolving language characterized by creativity and democratization
