Shattered Lives The Case For Tough International Arms Control Oxfam Campaign Reports:

Shattered Lives Debbie Hillyer, 2003-12-15 Les armes sont hors de contrôle. Les armes tuent plus d'un demi million d'hommes, de femmes et d'enfants en moyenne chaque année. Des milliers d'autres personnes sont mutilées, torturées ou forcées de fuir leurs maisons. La prolifération anarchique des armes attise les violations des droits humains, exacerbe les conflits et intensifie la pauvreté. Le temps pour les dirigeants mondiaux d'agir est maintenant. Faire face à cette crise. Oxfam, Amnesty International et le Réseau d'action international sur les armes légères IANSA ont lancé ensemble une campagne internationale appelant un contrôle des armes efficaces pour rendre les gens vraiment sûrs de la menace de la violence armée. Ce volume présente une analyse percutante de la façon dont l'abus des armes légères dans le monde entier alimente la pauvreté et la souffrance. Shattered Lives Debbie Hillier, Brian Wood, 2003 Summary Med separat sammanfattning From Poverty to Power Duncan Green, 2008 Offers a look at the causes and effects of poverty and inequality as well as the possible solutions. This title features research, human stories, statistics and compelling arguments. It discusses about the world we live in and how we can make it a better place. From Poverty to Power, 2nd Edition Duncan Green, 2012 From Poverty to Power argues that a radical redistribution of power, opportunities and assets rather than traditional models of charitable or government aid is required to break the cycle of poverty and inequality. The forces driving this transformation are active citizens and effective states. Published in association with Oxfam GB. Taking Aim at the Arms Trade Doctor Anna Stavrianakis, 2013-07-18 Taking Aim at The Arms Trade NGOs Global Civil Society and the World Military Order takes a critical look at the ways in which NGOs portray the arms trade as a problem of international politics and the strategies they use to effect change. NGOs have been pivotal in bringing the suffering caused by the arms trade to public attention, documenting its negative impact on human rights, conflict, security and development around the world and pushing for measures to control or eradicate the trade. Overall, however, their activity has helped sideline debate on Northern military predominance while facilitating intervention in the South based on liberal understandings of the arms trade, conflict, development and human rights. They thus contribute to the perpetuation of a hierarchical world military order and the construction of the South as a site of Northern benevolence and intervention. Stavrianakis exposes the tensions inherent in NGOs' engagement with the arms trade and argues for a re-examination of dominant assumptions about NGOs as global civil society actors. Guns Or Growth?, 2004 A report published by Amnesty International, IANSA and Oxfam for the Control Arms campaign. Published in association with Project Ploughshares and Saferworld. Every state has a right to self defence under Article 51 of the UN Charter. However, the UN Charter also requires all member states to promote universal respect for and observance of human rights and freedoms in order to achieve economic and social progress and development. Articles 1, 55 and 56 and to promote the establishment and maintenance of international peace and security with the least diversion for armaments of the world's human and economic resources. Article 26. The countries of Africa, Latin America, Asia and the Middle East hold 51 percent of the world's heavy weapons Excessive or inappropriate arms purchases are a drain on social and economic resources which developing countries simply cannot afford The Millennium Development Goals will not be achieved without addressing the issue of sustainable development in all aspects of policy including arms transfers Both arms importers and exporters must ensure that arms transfers do not undermine sustainable development For arms exporters various export control regimes already include this requirement as does the proposed Arms Trade Treaty but few governments fully respect these commitments Lip service leads to arms falling into the wrong hands and the diversion of scarce resources from fighting poverty To protect the social and economic rights of poor people exporting governments must apply an effective and systematic methodology to assess whether proposed arms transfers will affect sustainable development This report proposes such a methodology and explains why excepting legitimate security needs arms transfers with an adverse impact on sustainable development must not go ahead

Quarterly Human Rights Report ,2003 State of the World 2005 Michael Renner,Linda Starke,Worldwatch Institute,2005 Tackles the pressing issue of international security and its ramifications on the health of our planet

Emerging Conflicts of Principle Thomas Kane,2016-04-29 Debates over the ethics of war economic redistribution resource consumption and the rights and responsibilities associated with membership of a political community are just some of the major conflicts of principle identified by Thomas Kane which characterize world politics today According to the author debates such as these are being drawn towards increasingly polarized positions represented by strongly universalist and particularist moral and political ideologies such as cosmopolitanism and republicanism Kane analyzes each of these areas identifying that the potential for ideologically driven conflict will constitute the greatest challenge facing scholars and policy makers in the twenty first century

Ploughshares Monitor ,2003 State of the World 2005 Worldwatch Institute,2017-07-28 State of the World 2005 takes a new and deeper look at the theme that has dominated international politics since 9 11 security Not the armed conflicts that occur when it breaks down but the underlying social economic and environmental pressures which determine how threatened and vulnerable people feel These include food water other natural resources exposure to environmental change and health threats Without equitable and sustainable management of these conditions lasting security cannot be achieved The result is a fascinating and illuminating volume that offers a new definition of security and the means to achieve it Published annually in 28 languages each edition draws on the breadth of expertise of the Worldwatch Institute s team of writers and researchers State of the World is relied upon by national governments UN agencies development workers and law makers for its authoritative and up to the minute analysis and information It is essential for anyone concerned with building a positive global future

The Amnesty International Report Amnesty International,2004 The Arms Trade and International Law Zeray Yihdego,2007-11-16 Shortlisted for the 2008 Young Authors Inner Temple Book Prize There are believed to be about 700 million small arms and light weapons SALW in the world often contributing to highly destabilising security and other concerns in international law SALW are the primary source of violations and abuses of humanitarian and human rights principles by states rebels terrorists and criminals Many consider them the real weapons of mass destruction of our time causing about half a million deaths annually The unrestricted international transfer of SALW by states 99 states and 1000 companies involved in manufacturing and supply is one of the major contributory and aggravating factors of this crisis another is the illicit traffic in small arms This book deals with the proliferation of SALW and their unregulated trade and transfer across borders It addresses questions of definition manufacturing trade transfer and issues relating to state responsibility The primary focus is on conventional small arms in particular military style weapons The book tackles the core and most divisive legal problem of whether or not the laws relating to arms control and relevant norms of international law provide substantive restrictions upon the transfer of small arms by states The application of the norms of international peace and security non intervention humanitarian and human rights laws and evolved relevant customary rules of arms control relating to these norms are considered particularly carefully Questions of application and enforcement of relevant rules and institutional responses to the problem are also examined The UN began considering an arms trade treaty in 2006 the publication of the book at this critical moment in time will make a positive contribution towards shaping the debate and aims to further enhance understanding in an area where close analysis is required

Machel Study 10-year Strategic Review ,2009 The organisation of this report aims to heighten our understanding of the myriad ways in which armed conflict affects children and how children regard their participation not only in war but in programmes aimed at preventing violence against them and in promoting their recovery and reintegration The central message of this 10 year strategic review is that war violates every right of the child The report thus frames its findings within three categories political and diplomatic actions and responsibilities system wide international policies standards and architectures and prevention and response

Amnesty International Report Amnesty International,2004 Huge challenges confronted the international human rights movement in 2003 The UN faced a crisis of legitimacy and credibility because of the US led war on Iraq and the organization s inability to hold states to account for gross human rights violations International human rights standards continued to be flouted in the name of the war on terror resulting in thousands of women and men suffering unlawful detention unfair trial and torture often solely because of their ethnic or religious background Around the world more than a billion people s lives were ruined by extreme poverty and social injustice while governments continued to spend freely on arms This Amnesty International s report reflects those challenges It documents the human rights situations in 155 countries and territories in 2003 and summarizes regional trends It reports on areas of work being prioritized and developed by Amnesty International such as violence against women economic social and cultural rights justice and protection of refugees and migrants and celebrates the achievements of activists in these and other areas      Parliamentary Debates (Hansard).
