1960s these directors responded with films that were self conscious attempts at keeping pace with the developments in film modernism These films Lang s The Thousand Eyes of Dr Mabuse Hitchcock s Marnie and Minnelli s Two Weeks in Another Town were widely regarded as failures at the time and bolstered critics claims concerning the irrelevance of their directors in relation to contemporary filmmaking However author Joe McElhaney sheds new light on these films by situating them in relation to such acclaimed modernist works of the period as Godard s Contempt Fellini s La dolce vita Antonioni s Red Desert and Resnais s Last Year at Marienbad He finds that these modernist films rather than being diametrically opposed in form to the work of Hitchcock Lang and Minnelli are in fact profoundly linked to them Point of View in the Cinema Edward Branigan,2012-01-02 Branigan effectively criticizes the communication model of narration a task long overdue in Anglo American circles The book brings out the extent to which mainstream mimetic theories have relied upon the elastic notion of an invisible idealized observer a convenient spook whom critics can summon up whenever they desire to naturalize style The book also makes distinctions among types of subjectivity after this we will have much more precise ways of tracing the fluctuations among a character s vision dreams wishes and so forth Branigan also explains the necessity of distinguishing levels of narration The RoutledgeFalmer Guide to Key Debates in Education Dennis Hayes,2005-09-29 Debating is out of fashion No one raises the question of what has gone wrong when the entire political project of a society is seemingly reduced to education education education The aim of this lively and challenging book is to provide the stimulus for further thinking about key educational issues by exposing and explaining the assumptions behind this obsession Over forty contributors all experts in their fields have written short accessible informed and lively articles for students teachers and others involved in education They address broad questions that are central to any understanding of what is really going on in the education system Topics covered include the new relationship of the state to education the changed nature of schools whether teachers are afraid to teach the problems with circle time anti bullying strategies citizenship education and multiple intelligences the retreat from truth and the demise of theory in teacher training and much more Everyone learning to teach in primary and secondary schools and further education colleges will find this book relevant to their programmes In particular the book would be useful for students on Education Studies courses Feminist Speculations and the Practice of
