She Is With Angels My Mothers Suicide A Childs Journey:

She is with Angels August Swanenberg, 2001 She Is With Angels recounts the journey from a child's encounter with mental illness and suicide to the adult's quest for understanding the mysteries from thirty years ago. August's childhood is changed forever when his mother becomes clinically depressed. After five years of struggle, his mother ends her life. August, his brother, and his father face their own and other people's taboos about mental illness and suicide. After his father dies many years later, August discovers carefully hidden notes that help him to understand what happened to his mother. She Is With Angels is written for survivors of suicide and for those who have experienced mental illness either first hand or through family members or friends. Each year in the U.S. 32,000 people die from suicide more than from murder. Suicide is the leading cause of death among adolescents. A suicide occurs every 15 minutes in the U.S. and it is estimated that an attempt is made about once a minute. Over 40 million Americans will suffer an episode of depression during their lifetimes. One in four families will directly feel the impact of mental illness. New Books on Women and Feminism, 2004

Featuring a foreword by Globe and Mail Africa Bureau Chief Geoffrey York. In 1994, Obadiah was the thirteen-year-old son of a Hutu pastor living comfortably in Rwanda and dreaming of becoming a pilot when violence and bloodshed began to engulf the country. His family soon fled their home, pursued by soldiers and stalked by death and hunger. As the genocide led into a horrific war, Obadiah was forced to survive unrelenting terror and the darkest despair as a refugee both in neighbouring Zaire and eventually in the American refugee detention system. Obadiah was sustained through these horrors by his faith and the philosophy of ubuntu, finding one's self through connection with others. In the Spirit of Night by Elie Wiesel. Die Walking is one boy's horrific story of shared humanity in a chaotic world. The Friend, 1893 Arthur's Illustrated Home Magazine, 1874 Meinrad Craighead Meinrad Craighead, 2003 This extensively illustrated volume collects the varied, powerful work of Meinrad Craighead, an artist whose images find their beginnings in her Catholic roots. Connelly,2013-06-12 For most of my life the word mother had been a doubled edged sword When I was nine years old my mother was diagnosed with schizophrenia This monster of a disease robbed my family of their mother and my mother of her family Many years later when I married at age twenty three I started an unexpected and deeply painful journey through infertility I found myself in a place where few could ever begin to understand my pain and loss As I struggled to have a family of my own I began to reflect back on the loss of my own mother to mental illness This book is dedicated to my mother Susan In writing this I hope to share the tragic yet beautiful story of her life and to shed some light on the devastating effects schizophrenia has on families The Friends' Library: Comprising Journals, Doctrinal Treatises, and Other Writings of Members of the Religious Society of Friends William Evans,1850
