In 1948, the bishops of Canada established the Commission for Social Action to help spread the gospel through actions for justice and the transformation of society

Word to Action (1976) - This stressed that the struggle for justice is not an option; it is an integral part of bringing the gospel into the world.

Ethical Choices and Political Changes (1983) - This reinforced that Catholics ought to continue working for justice.

The Struggle Against Poverty (1996) - Bishops criticized governments for neglecting to care for the poorest people in society. They called for action to end poverty, with a special awareness of poverty among women, the young, newcomers to Canada and Aboriginal people.

Common Good or Exclusion: A Choice for Canadians (2001) - Bishops told MPs that the Church is especially preoccupied with defending the poor.
