Moan Lisa, 2014-06-08 Poems of love and despair the hanging longings of a woman who has lost her lover s hand She can t go on but she must and the feelings she holds inside These are depressive love poems poems of want and desire      Nalini Lillian Verna McKenney, 1926      Life and Love Judith Early, 2002-12 It might almost seem that Judith Early was born in the wrong place at the wrong time She was born and raised in rural Alberta in a time and place where her radical views on religion health and the environment were not welcomed by the conventional conservatism of her community In the late 1970s she was advocating wheat grass and health food and concepts such as social and environmental responsibility in a town where ham and eggs were staples and the word cholesterol had not yet become part of the language Now in her late eighties after several decades of writing she has finally found an audience that is ready for her message Life and Love is the first of her books that she has decided to publish After reading Life and Love I felt refreshed Judith Early demonstrates the triumph of the will in the face of adversity and inspiration of the spirit that guides one to that deeper level of reality that exists beyond the pall of linear logical thought Her poetry reveals both beauty of nature and the spirit of God in harmonious surprising and inspiring verse that is both skillful and organic like a fine glass of wine to be sipped savoured and recalled to memory whenever we take the time to slow down and remember Orpheus Author of The Seven Secrets of the Ascended Masters      Desert Air Robert Hichens, 2019-12-04 In Desert Air Robert Hichens masterfully captures the haunting beauty and desolation of the desert landscape employing a lush evocative prose that immerses the reader in the stark contrasts of nature and human emotion The novel intertwines themes of love existential longing and the search for meaning amidst the arid expanses reflecting the psychological experiences of characters who find both solace and torment in their surroundings Set against the backdrop of early 20th century colonialism Hichens explores the interplay between civilization and the untamed wilderness offering a poignant commentary on the human condition through his uniquely atmospheric narrative style Robert Hichens 1864 1950 was an English author known for his vivid portrayals of exotic locales shaped by his own travels in the Middle East and North Africa His experiences in these regions imbued his writing with authenticity and depth as he often set his narratives in unfamiliar environments that challenged characters perceptions of morality identity and belonging Desert Air reflects Hichens s fascination with the contrasts between the comfortable trappings of civilization and the raw unyielding beauty of nature elements that resonate deeply throughout his oeuvre This poignant novel is a must read for those intrigued by the intricate relationships between environment and the psyche Hichens s skillful exploration of the transformative power of nature encourages readers to reflect on their connections to place and self Whether you seek an atmospheric journey or a profound meditation on human experiences Desert Air promises to deliver both inviting readers to lose themselves in its spellbinding embrace

Rereading the Black Legend Margaret R. Greer,Walter D. Mignolo,Maureen Quilligan,2008-09-15 The phrase The Black Legend was coined in 1912 by a Spanish journalist in protest of the characterization of Spain by other Europeans as a backward country defined by ignorance superstition and religious fanaticism whose history could never recover from the black mark of its violent conquest of the Americas Challenging this stereotype Rereading the Black Legend contextualizes Spain s uniquely tarnished reputation by exposing the colonial efforts of other nations whose interests were served by propagating the Black Legend A distinguished group of contributors here examine early modern imperialisms including the Ottomans in Eastern Europe the Portuguese in East India and the cases of Mughal India and China to historicize the charge of unique Spanish brutality in encounters with indigenous peoples during the Age of Exploration The geographic reach and linguistic breadth of this ambitious collection will make it a valuable resource for any discussion of race national identity and religious belief in the European Renaissance

Geppert,2010-10-01 In Europe love has been given a prominent place in European self representations from the Enlightenment onwards The category of love stemming from private and personal spheres was given a public function and used to distinguish European civilisation from others Contributors to this volume trace historical links and analyse specific connections between the two discourses on love and

Europe over the course of the twentieth century exploring the distinctions made between the public and private the political and personal In doing so this volume develops an innovative historiography that includes such resources as autobiographies love letters and cinematic representations and takes issue with the exclusivity of Eurocentrism Its contributors put forth hypotheses about the historical pre eminence of emotions and consider this history as a basis for a non Eurocentric understanding of new possible European identities
