University Press since its founding in 1905 Mandelstam Brown,1973-10-26 Osip Mandelstam who died in 1938 in one of Stalin's labour camps is one of the greatest poets of this century Brown's 1978 volume is a very full and important book which tells of Mandelstam's earlier life and gives an introduction to the poetry Professor Brown tells as much as will probably ever be known about Mandelstam's early life his studies his literary relationships and recreates in piquant detail the intellectual world of prerevolutionary St Petersburg Indeed the criticism of Mandelstam's three collections of poetry quoted both in Russian and in translation manages the seemingly impossible the reader with no Russian begins to grasp as though at first hand how this poetry makes its effects and he senses its originality and importance and its place in European literature Professor Brown here presents the first critical study of the life and works Encyclopedia of Life Writing Margaretta Jolly,2013-12-04 First published in 2001 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informal company Psychoanalysis and Covidian Life Ana de Staal,Howard B Levine,2021-03-29 Showcasing a diverse range of contributions from psychoanalysts of many different countries and theoretical orientations Psychoanalysis and Covidian Life a collective work edited by Howard B Levine and Ana de Staal offers readers the opportunity to explore and reflect upon the ways in which the Covid 19 pandemic has begun to influence analytical practice From the changes imposed on the framework online sessions to the impact of the trauma of isolation and the disruption of our social anchoring required by confinement and health protection gestures to the challenge presented to the ordinary denial of mortality this book explores the lessons of what the pandemic can teach us about how to understand and treat collective distress individually and puts psychoanalytical tools to the test of the profound psychosocial upheavals that the twenty first century may hold in store This book will be of interest to practising and trainee clinicians and anyone with an interest in the all consuming effects of a global pandemic Contributions from Christopher Bollas Patricia Cardoso de Mello Bernard Chervet Joshua Durban Antonino Ferro Serge Frisch Steven Jaron Daniel Kupermann Howard Levine Francois Levy Riccardo Lombardi Elias Alberto Rocha Barros Michael Rustin Ana de Staal and Jean Jacques Tyszler Joseph Brodsky and the Creation of Exile David M. Bethea,2014-07-14 Joseph Brodsky one of the most prominent contemporary American poets is also among the finest living poets in the Russian language Nevertheless his poetry and the crucial bilingual dimension of his poetic world are still insufficiently understood by Western audiences How did the Russian born Brodsky arrive at his present status as an international man of letters and American poet laureate Has he been created by his bilingual experience or has he fashioned the bilingual self as a necessary precondition for writing poetry in the first place Here David Bethea suggests that the key to Brodsky perhaps the last of the great Russian poets in the bardic mode is in his relation to others or the Other Brodsky's master trope turns out to be triangular vision the tendency to mediate a prior model Dante with a closer model Mandelstam in the creation of a palimpsest like text in which the poet is implicated as a triangulated hybrid of these earlier incarnations In pursuing this theme Bethea compares and contrasts Brodsky to the poet's favorite models Donne Auden Mandelstam and Tsvetaeva and analyzes his fundamental differences with Nabokov the only Russian exile of Brodsky's stature to rival him as a bilingual phenomenon Various critical paradigms are used throughout the study as foils to Brodsky's thinking Originally published in 1994 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Beyond Realism Elizabeth Allen, 1992-05-01 Critical studies of Turgenev have tended to focus on his realistic portrayals of nineteenth century Russian life and have therefore closely allied Turgenev with the dominant literary movement of that time Realism By contrast this book reveals the non Realist literary patterns that distinguish Turgenev's fiction In so doing it newly uncovers an intricate imaginative vision of human experience that unites poetics and ethics The first part of the book identifies and assesses the ethical values associated with Realism finding them rooted in the virtues of the traditional rural community It then elucidates the very different ethical values that inform Turgenev's art which are rooted not in the virtues of the community but in those of the individual who creatively conceives and independent ethical stance Turgenev is thus shown to prize art not as a means of merely representing reality but as a means of demonstrating how human lives can be artistically shaped to achieve psychological and moral fulfillment In its second part this study addresses various facets of Turgenev's poetics and the ethical motives behind them as exemplified in disparate works One chapter examines how Turgenev orchestrates time and space to illuminate the moral advantages of self constraint Another explores Turgenev's adroit management of language to foster imprecision and ambiguity and thereby to prevent explicit articulation of psychologically and morally threatening ideas Still another chapter concentrates on Turgenev's manipulations of narrative points of view as he displays the benefits of bringing multiple perspectives to bear on painful experience And a final chapter probes the techniques of characterization Turgenev employs to evaluate varieties of success and failure in pursuit of self fulfillment The book concludes by indicating how Turgenev faltered in his last novel precisely by undertaking the Realist enterprise and how he then reasserted non Realist aesthetic and ethical principles in his final literary creations prose poems Throughout this book a series of close reading discloses the very rhythm of Turgenev's thought the nexus between his aesthetic and moral imaginations These readings reveal Turgenev's belief in secular salvation a belief inspired not by faith in otherworldly redemption but by confidence in individual human beings ability to save themselves from suffering in this world This study therefore shows Turgenev to be at once more complex and more creative more modern and more moral than readers confining him to the realm of Realism have acknowledged
