Graphic Violence Emily Edwards, 2019-06-17 Graphic Violence provides an innovative introduction to the relationship between violence and visual media, discussing how media consumers and producers can think critically about and interact with violent visual content. It comprehensively surveys predominant theories of media violence and the research supporting and challenging them, addressing issues ranging from social learning to representations of war and terrorism to gender and hyper masculinity. Each chapter features original artwork presenting a story in the style of a graphic novel to demonstrate the concepts at hand. Truly unique in its approach to the subject and medium, this volume is an excellent resource for undergraduate students of communication and media theory as well as anyone interested in understanding the causes and effects of violence in media. The Sound of Sins Danni

Roan, 2022-02-10 Jessica Whyne is finished with college but her life is not going as she had planned. Still working as a barista at the college coffee shop, she doesn't know what comes next. Life has changed since graduation with her mother's recent marriage and new sweet baby brother, and Jessica decides that she needs a change. When she buys a small house near her hometown of Macon, Georgia, she is soon on the trail of the mysterious sounds emanating from her basement each night. Can a retired cop living at her mother's elder care facility in the old Georgia Plantation help her find the answers she needs or will danger silence the sound of sins from the past? Ghosts Beneath Us Kathryn Meyer Griffith, 2015-07-10 Someone is terrorizing the elderly in a certain neighborhood, spooking and vandalizing their homes. As usual, Abigail Sutton, a freelance artist, and her boyfriend Frank Lester, a retired homicide detective, are called in to help find out who's doing these awful acts. The two seem to have an uncanny knack for unraveling mysteries and getting to the bottom of such strange happenings. Some of the old people think it's ghosts in their basements doing these destructive deeds, but Frank doesn't believe in ghosts, while Abigail isn't so sure. Then the old folks begin to disappear one by one or to die suspiciously, and Frank thinks there's a sinister plan behind the crimes and is determined to uncover who or what is responsible. In the end, they, with a little help from their friend, eccentric old Myrtle, must solve the mystery, or more of the old ones in town might end up dead.
