Nomad One Womans Journey:

Nomad Mary Ann Fitzgerald,1994-01 Perfect Love - One Woman's Journey from Flesh to Faith Shari Hall,2021-01-29 God I can t feel him touch him see him or hear him so how can he be and what could he ever want with me Illegitimate poor bi racial in 1960s America searching for an identity and unconditional love As she recalls a childhood trauma and hair straightening torture sessions we feel her heartache pain and sense of not being good enough A critical choice leads her down a path of self destruction as she denies her authentic self in search of wealth and worthiness Fleeing to Australia suffering a dysfunctional marriage battling with alcohol drugs sugar and relationships with all the wrong men it s a chance meeting with a long lost friend that is her saving grace His belief in her music and God s purpose for her life leads her on a path to salvation devastating loss and ultimately Perfect Love Nomad Mary Anne Fitzgerald,1994 A Nomad's Journey Alexander Amani,2010-05-06 A Nomad s Journey Lessons learned from a eclectic soul is for anyone who ever hated working for someone else It delves into the author s early adolescence growing up under the guidance of an extremely strict yet loving Cherokee ancestry grandmother and a fiery and free spirited Scottish national mother Professional experiences are shared as the author recounts lessons learned in a variety of short careers The book concludes with the author realizing his passion to write and finally finishing the long awaited memoirs Women's Writing and Muslim Societies Sharif Gemie,2012-11-15 Women s Writing and Muslim Societies looks at the rise in works concerning Muslim societies by both western and Muslim women from pioneering female travellers like Freya Stark and Edith Wharton in the early twentieth century whose accounts of the Orient were usually playful and humorous to the present day and such works as Azar Nafisi s Reading Lolita in Tehran and Betty Mahmoody s Not Without My Daughter which present a radically different view of Muslim Societies marked by fear hostility and even disgust The author Sharif Gemie also considers a new range of female Muslim writers whose works suggest a variety of other perspectives that speak of difficult journeys the problems of integration identity crises and the changing nature of Muslim cultures in the process this volume examines varied journeys across cultural political and religious borders discussing the problems faced by female travellers the problems of trans cultural romances and the difficulties of constructing dialogue between enemy camps Hyena and the Moon Heather McNeil,1994-05-15 Gathered from 7 of the more than 40 ethnic groups of Kenya these stores are brought to you both as original translations and as lively ready to use retellings Ethnic groups respresented are the Kikuyu Turkana Akamba Kipsigis Taita Luhya and Samburu Cultural and historical background information on the groups notes on the stories lists of further resources and tips for retelling make this collection useful to librarians storytellers public speakers teachers and parents The fascinating account of McNeils s own experiences and observations in collecting the tales is woven throughout the book Beautiful color photos of Kenyan storytellers and the animals portrayed in the stories illustrate her journey and the tales Mystic Nomad Annette Knopp,2025-10-28 A must read for anyone on the path of awakening Roshi

Joan Halifax A raw and revelatory spiritual memoir that chronicles a woman's quest for love healing and awakening across multiple continents From the emotional barrenness of a postwar German childhood to the false promise of guru culture the ecstasy of mystical experience and the crucible of human intimacy Annette Knopp's unflinchingly honest account illuminates both the pitfalls and rewards of the spiritual path and her work as a teacher assisting others in navigating the path to wholeness Struggling with depression and lack of meaning prompts the author to leave her fiancé and successful career in Spain to travel to the Osho ashram in Pune Her journey takes her further to the Dalai Lama in Northern India the nightclubs and Shinto shrines in Japan facing a female Buddha in New Zealand working nightshifts in an opal mine in Australia's outback diving into somatic therapy and Tibetan Buddhism in Amsterdam shamanism in Peru teaching in the US until the opening of a retreat center with her husband in Costa Rica Annette experiences profound shifts of spiritual awakening and the shattering of illusions in her encounters with various teachers and traditions Her path takes a dark turn when she is sexually assaulted by a trusted spiritual mentor plunging her into a crisis of faith and a deep descent into unresolved trauma With unflinching honesty and vulnerability she illuminates the complexities of the teacher student relationship the dangers of spiritual bypassing and the importance of personal empowerment and discernment on the spiritual path Sharing her healing and integration process Knopp weaves insights from Eastern contemplative traditions Western psychology earth based wisdom practices and somatic approaches to trauma resolution Memoirs of a Centaur Mercedes Ciccocioppo, 2023-01-05

Juana seemed to have it all She had finally reached that important position she had been looking for in the company she was working with And she also knew she could reach other professional goals and even fame However when she moved to a new city because of her job she felt the need to move in more than one sense She started traveling getting away from it all but even though she had been dreaming about it during her whole life it seemed that it was not enough nor were the relationships she would develop on the way Her life was a constant emotional roller coaster driven mainly by the influence of the exterior of others of the struggle between the must be and the to be And so on her deep inner journey she started realizing that what she actually needed was simply to live Going Places Robert Burgin, 2013-01-08

The Tao of Equus Linda Kohanov, 2024-06-18 After more than 20 years in print an updated edition of the evocative and transformational classic about the powerful bond between women and horses When Linda Kohanov wrote The Tao of Equus over twenty years ago she posed questions that few were asking Do horses make choices How do they seem to know what people are thinking and feeling Are horses spiritual beings What do they have to teach people Why are women so attracted to horses The answers detailed in this extraordinary chronicle that synthesizes science behavioral research and personal insight transformed how we think about one of humanity s oldest companions and established Kohanov at the vanguard of the emerging field of animal assisted learning therapy In this updated edition Kohanov weaves new developments in neurological science and scholarship into her original exploration of spiritual awakening cultural history and mythology The Tao of Equus delves into the mental and spiritual processes behind the magical connections that people often experience with horses It remains a powerful exploration of the feminine wisdom horses model subtleties that women riders have intuited for centuries A Woman's World and the Men in Between Mary G. Wanjiku,2018-09-25 Jenny s destiny was determined at birth Her future husband was ready and waiting to take her for a wife soon after she was born However she refused to abide by the tribal customs Her desire to build a queendom to rule and to control and to fight for women s liberation set her on a different course But when she locked eyes with Johnny a millionaire mogul who traveled to Kenya from England in search of his kingdom and a place of tranquility life was never the same again At first they tried to show each other up seemingly vying for dominance But he was ready to be the gentleman Or was he When they left for England Jenny never anticipated what would transpire in the process of her quest for independence However she was not ready to give up Freedom was in her DNA but what seemed to be the truth wasn t as she had thought Learning to Breathe Alison

Wright,2008-08-14 THE NATIONAL BESTSELLER An extraordinary spiritual memoir about the will to survive one breath at a time with a foreword by the Dalai Lama While traveling in Laos on a winding mountain road the bus that award winning photojournalist Alison Wright was riding in collided with a logging truck As she waited fourteen hours for proper medical care in excruciating pain certain she was moments from death she drew upon years of meditation practice and concentrated on every breath as if it would be her last Despite countless surgeries and a grueling recovery Alison set herself the goal of achieving a new dream to one day climb Mount Kilimanjaro and she reached the summit on her fortieth birthday Gasping for air once again she stood at the highest point in Africa determined to never again take a single breath for granted Perfect for readers who love spiritual authors traveling abroad such as Elizabeth Gilbert Eat Pray Love and Greg Mortenson Three Cups of Tea this memoir is an amazingly inspirational tale of how a life changing accident transformed one woman s faith

Second Journey Joan Anderson,2012-04-24 From the bestselling author of A Year by the Sea this memoir is a coming of age story for every woman who has asked herself Now what The Second Journey chronicles Anderson s quest to restore equilibrium to her life after the responsibilities of being a mother wife grandmother caretaker and bestselling author distract her almost dangerously from taking care of herself Suffused with Anderson s characteristic humor and warmth this book is a permission slip for any woman who seeks to step out of line and create her own destiny As Joan shares her stories of balancing love marriage family parents and spirituality she inspires and instructs readers to find peace and a unique purpose within their own lives She offers reassurance that the best is yet to come and empowers other women to come of age in the middle of life Cyrella Carole Carder Slaughter,2021-11-08 Cyrella By Carole Carder Slaughter Following the story of Cyrella from childhood to death Carole Carder Slaughter brings a twist on the classic fairytale of Cinderella Although the fairytale may seem glamorous readers will see what really happens after the infamous ball Experiencing trauma and tragedy Cyrella s life reflects women s issues that are very much so significant in today s world Muslim Women in the United Kingdom and Beyond Haifaa Jawad,Tansin Benn,2002-12-01 The book explores ways in which Muslim women are portrayed alongside their experiences of being Muslim and part of a predominantly western culture. It engages with Muslim women living predominantly in the United Kingdom with contributions from other countries such as Australia, America and Sweden. Religious prejudice is a major theme that permeates the book, providing empirical evidence of ways in which islamophobia and visible symbols such as the hijab influence life experiences and perceptions of Muslim women negatively. Accounts of the impact of discrimination on life chances and opportunities are vivid. The book recounts ways in which the women cope in challenging diasporic contexts and concludes with recommendations for positive change. The text will be particularly valuable to anyone interested in issues of gender, religion and ethnicity, including students, employers, politicians and professionals.
