Nomadic Peoples Of Iran:

The Nomadic Peoples of Iran Richard Tapper, Jon Thompson, 2002 With the 1978 79 Revolution in Iran the Pahlavi dynasty fell and was replaced by the Islamic Republic In the decades since the Revolution all sectors of Iranian society from the middle class villas of northern Tehran to the remotest villages and nomad camps have undergone profound changes For many years the country was difficult to access by outsiders Foreign media provided images of bearded men toting guns veiled women in the cities and the horrors of the war with Iraq yet little was known of what was going on in the countryside Some nomad tribes were reported to be barely surviving after suffering discrimination and reductions in numbers in the last years of the Pahlavis whereas others were said to be experiencing something of a renaissance This book documents the life of the nomads in Iran at the end of the twentieth century Frontier Nomads of Iran Richard Tapper, 1997-08-28 Richard

Tapper's 1997 book which is based on three decades of ethnographic fieldwork and extensive documentary research traces the political and social history of the Shahsevan one of the major nomadic peoples of Iran The story is a dramatic one recounting the mythical origins of the tribes their unification as a confederacy and their decline under the Pahlavi Shahs The book is intended as a contribution to three different debates The first concerns the riddle of Shahsevan origins while another considers how far changes in tribal social and political formations are a function of relations with states The third discusses how different constructions of the identity of a particular people determine their view of the past In this way the book promises not only to make a major contribution to the history and anthropology of the Middle East and Central Asia but also to theoretical debates in both disciplines Nomadism in Iran Daniel T. Potts, 2014 Potts examines the development of nomadism in Iran over the course of three millennia Evidence of nomadism in prehistory is examined and found insufficient to justify claims of its great antiquity The background of the earliest nomadic groups identified as Persian tribes by Herodotus is examined within the context of the migration of Iranian speakers onto the Iranian plateau in the late second or early first millennium B C Thereafter evidence of nomadic groups in Late Antiquity and early Islamic times is reviewed

Lifestyle and Livelihood Changes Among Formerly Nomadic Peoples A. Allan Degen, Léo-Paul Dana, 2024-02-29 Contemporary policymakers as their predecessors continue to view nomadic people as a weak minority and their way of life and raising livestock as a backward and inefficient paradigm Wherever nomads are not the dominant group the trend to settle them continues even today as in the past This book describes the changes forced upon formerly nomadic groups and how they still attempt to maintain their traditional social and cultural practices in their new settings The book deals with the several modes of livelihood of these communities including entrepreneurship and demonstrates the impact of investment oriented urbanization policies leading to eviction from ancestral lands and hurdles for nomadic mobility ultimately threatening their survival The book illustrates how some groups like the Borana and the Maasai practice livelihood diversity and raise productive livestock and how other groups migrate to urban centers in search of employment and remit money to family members left in the rural areas The book aims to raise awareness among the research community especially those who work on regional and demographic labor policies It helps in understanding why society needs to help build business and livelihood strategies without harming the values of nomadic groups Iran the People April Fast,2005 The vast majority of Iranians are descended from the Aryans Asian peoples who settled in what became known as Persia Iran the people follows the history of this ancient land from the height of the Persian Empire through the Muslim conquest in the mid 600s and the Revolution of 1979 Interesting photographs detail how today s Islamic Republic influences the daily lives of Iranians especially in education and the role of women Iran's Diverse Peoples Massoume Price,2005-07-26 Spanning a 5 000 year period this is the first work to document the origins evolution and current status of all major ethnic groups in Iran From ancient civilizations of 3000 B C to the election of President Mohammad Khatami five millennia later Iran s history is a rich palette of conquests invasions occupations and revolutions Iran s Diverse Peoples A Reference Sourcebook documents for the first time the major ethnic groups that emerged during each era and traces their evolution to the present day Written by a social anthropologist educated in Iran and England this analysis presents vital statistics on the Persians Kurds Turks Lurs Assyrians Arabs and other pastoral and urban groups of Iran highlighting their differing languages religions cultural practices political agendas and current problems The settling of nomadic tribes the unveiling of women the Islamic Revolution OPEC Soviet intervention Kurdish oppression these and other contentious topics are all examined with respect to their impact on Iran s ethnic entities Nomadic Peoples ,2003 Nomadic Peoples and Human Rights Jérémie Gilbert,2014-03-26 Although nomadic peoples are scattered worldwide and have highly heterogeneous lifestyles they face similar threats to their mobile livelihood and survival Commonly nomadic peoples are facing pressure from the predominant sedentary world over mobility land rights water resources access to natural resources and migration routes Adding to these traditional problems rapid growth in the extractive industry and the need for the exploitation of the natural resources are putting new strains on nomadic lifestyles This book provides an innovative rights based approach to the issue of nomadism looking at issues including discrimination persecution freedom of movement land rights cultural and political rights and effective management of natural resources Jeremie Gilbert analyses the extent to which human rights law is able to provide protection for nomadic peoples to perpetuate their own way of life and culture The book questions whether the current human rights regime is able to protect nomadic peoples and highlights the lacuna that currently exists in international human rights law in relation to nomadic peoples It goes on to propose avenues for the development of specific rights for nomadic peoples offering a new reading on freedom of movement land rights and development in the context of nomadism

Iran is More Than Persia Brenda Shaffer,2022-12-19 Iran is More than Persia Ethnic Politics in Iran analyses Iranian politics from a unique perspective one that focuses on the relations between the Persian dominated Iranian state and the country s ethnic minorities The book explores the stability of the ruling regime in light of the challenges that multiethnicity brings Persians comprise less than half of the population of Iran and more than 40 percent of Iranians lack fluency in the Persian language An overwhelming majority of non Persian groups inhabit most of Iran s border regions as such the book explores Iran s foreign policy toward neighboring states that share co ethnic populations Iran s ethnic minorities inhabit the state s poorest provinces and the country s growing environmental and water supply challenges hit the ethnic minority provinces harder than the Persian center adding an ominous ethnic character to what are often presented as purely environmental or economic challenges The book further examines the potential impact of ethnic based unrest in Khuzestan on Iran s oil production Iran s main oil producing region Drawing on a rich assortment of primary data and interviews this book offers unparalleled insights into ethnic politics in Iran It will be of interest to upper level undergraduates and postgraduates researchers and professionals interested in the Middle East international relations and ethnic studies

Iranian Romance in the Digital Age Janet Afary, Jesilyn Faust, 2021-01-28 Following the 1979 Islamic Revolution there was a dramatic reversal of women s rights and the state revived many premodern social conventions through modern means and institutions Customs such as the enforced veiling of women easy divorce for men child marriage and polygamy were robustly reintroduced and those who did not conform to societal strictures were severely punished At the same time new social and economic programs benefited the urban and rural poor especially women which had a direct impact on gender relations and the institution of marriage Edited by Janet Afary and Jesilyn Faust this interdisciplinary volume responds to the growing interest and need for literature on gender marriage and family relations in the Islamic context The book examines how the institution of marriage transformed in Iran paying close attention to the country s culture and politics Part One examines changes in urban marriages to new forms of cohabitation In Part Two contributors such as Soraya Tremayne explore the way technology and social media has impacted and altered the institution of family Part Three turns its eye to look at marital changes in the rural and tribal sectors of society through the works of anthropologists including Erika Friedl and Mary Hegland Based on the work of both new and established scholars the book provides an up to date study of an important and intensely politicized subject

Conceptualizing Iranian Anthropology Shahnaz R. Nadjmabadi, 2010-01-01 During recent years attempts have been made to move beyond the Eurocentric perspective that characterized the social sciences especially anthropology for over 150 years A debate on the anthropology of anthropology was needed one that would consider other forms of knowledge modalities of writing and political and intellectual practices This volume undertakes that challenge it is the result of discussions held at the first organized encounter between Iranian American and European anthropologists since the Iranian Revolution of 1979 It is considered an important first step in overcoming the dichotomy between peripheral anthropologies versus central anthropologies The contributors examine from a critical perspective the historical cultural and political field in which anthropological research emerged in Iran at the beginning of the twentieth century and in which it continues to develop today

The Encyclopædia Britannica Hugh Chisholm, James Louis Garvin, 1926

Nomads in Postrevolutionary Iran Lois Beck, 2014-09-19 Examining the rapid transition in Iran from a modernizing westernizing secularizing monarchy 1941-79 to a hard line conservative clergy run Islamic republic 1979 this book focuses on the ways this process has impacted the Qashqai a rural nomadic tribally organized Turkish speaking ethnic minority of a million and a half people who are dispersed across the southern Zagros Mountains Analysing the relationship between the tribal polity and each of the two regimes the book goes on to explain the resilience of the people's tribal organizations kinship networks and politicized ethnolinguistic identities to demonstrate how these structures and ideologies offered the Qashqai a way to confront the pressures emanating from the two central governments Existing scholarly works on politics in Iran rarely consider Iranian society outside the capital of Tehran and beyond the reach of the details of national politics Local level studies on Iran accounts of the ways people actually lived are now rare especially after the revolution Based on long term anthropological research Nomads in Postrevolutionary Iran provides a unique insight into how national level issues relate to the local level and will be of interest to scholars and researchers in Anthropology Iranian Studies and Middle Eastern Studies

A History of Islamic Societies Ira M. Lapidus, 2014-10-13 This third edition of Ira M Lapidus's classic A History of Islamic Societies has been substantially revised to incorporate the insights of new scholarship and updated to include historical developments in the first decade of the twenty first century Lapidus's history explores the beginnings and transformations of Islamic civilizations in the Middle East and details Islam's worldwide diffusion to Africa Spain Turkey and the Balkans Central South and Southeast Asia and North America situating Islamic societies within their global political and economic contexts It accounts for the impact of European imperialism on Islamic societies and traces the development of the modern national state system and the simultaneous Islamic revival from the early nineteenth century to the present This book is essential for readers seeking to understand Muslim peoples Publisher information

A Mission for Development Richard Garlitz, 2018-07-02 A Mission for Development tells the remarkable story of faculty from three Utah universities who lived and worked in Iran as part of the Point Four Program Using the experience of these advisors the book reexamines the rise and fall of the US Iranian alliance and explores the roles that American universities played in international development during the Cold War The Point Four Program sponsored American technical assistance for developing countries during the 1950s an American Cold War strategy to cultivate friendly governments and economic development in countries purportedly susceptible to Communist influence Between 1951 and 1964 advisors from Brigham Young University sought to modernize Iranian public education experts from Utah State University worked to improve agricultural production and doctors and nurses from the University of Utah helped with the Iranian government's rural health initiatives In A Mission for Development author Richard Garlitz offers a critical and clear eyed assessment of the challenges the Utahns faced and the contributions they made to Iranian development The book also reexamines the Iranian political crisis of the early 1950s and the overthrow of Prime Minister

Mohammad Mossadegh through the eyes of the Utah advisors A Mission for Development provides rare insight into the university role in international development and will be of interest to historians and policy makers Arab-Iranian Relations Shireen T. Hunter, 2019-04-22 This textbook helps students and readers navigate the various factors ranging from the legacy of the past ethnic sectarian differences and cultural rivalry to the impact of colonial rule modernization and state building plus the evolving nature of the international political system and great power policies in shaping Arab Iranian relations in the last seven decades The first part of this book looks into factors such as history ethnic sectarian and cultural issues that have shaped Iran's relations with Arab states It explores the impact of the process of modernization and state building in the Arab world on these relations plus the legacy of colonialism and the shifting dynamics of international politics and the evolution key global players policies towards Iran and the Arab states The second part examines case studies in the evolution of Iran's relations with several key Arab states including Egypt Syria and Lebanon Iraq Saudi Arabia and the smaller Persian Gulf Arab states By highlighting the complex set of factors and their interactions that have shaped Arab Iranian relations the book hopes to be a corrective to the simplistic and reductionist interpretations of these relations This approach shows how a variety of factors and their interactions have shaped these relations sometimes they have exacerbated the conflictual aspects of these relations and at other times have fostered accommodation and even cooperation Iran's Reconstruction Jihad Eric Lob, 2020-02-27 The first full length study to examine the significance of the critical but neglected Iranian organization and ministry Reconstruction Jihad Iran in Pictures Stacy Taus-Bolstad, 2004-01-01 Text and illustrations present detailed information on the geography history and government economy people cultural life and society of traditional and modern Iran Armies of the Achaemenid Persian Empire, 550-330 BC Gabriele Esposito, 2025-09-30 Gabriele Esposito presents a detailed overview of the history organization equipment and tactics of the military forces deployed by Achaemenid Persia during the period 550 330 BC The Achaemenid Empire founded by Cyrus the Great was one of the major military powers of Antiquity conquering vast territories that straddled three continents Its large and varied population supplied a dazzling array of troop types producing a versatile war machine that campaigned from India to Egypt These were the armies that drank rivers dry as they invaded Greece and at the Empire's zenith defeated the Spartans at Thermopylae and torched Athens They continued to evolve but proved unable to cope with Alexander the Great's Macedonians The author outlines the major campaigns fought by the Persians from Cyrus the Great to the conquest by Alexander He details the organization equipment and tactics of the many different contingents that made up the Persian military forces including but not limited to the famous royal guard of the Immortals and such varied troops as Persian archers scythed chariots Ionian Greek hoplites Arab camel riders Scythian horse archers Sogdians and Bactrian armoured cavalry Thracian peltasts Egyptians and Indian war elephants The text is complemented by a colourful mix of photos of reenactors and specially commissioned artworks
