Remember the Alamo Carl S. Adams, 2003 As America suffered the internal upheaval of the Vietnam War era Carl Adams and thousands of other young men volunteered to serve their country in wartime Trained as sentry dog handlers many together with their devoted German shepherd dogs were assigned to guard American air bases against the continual threat of Vietcong attack These heroic K9 teams did their jobs well they share credit for saving more than 10 000 American lives during the war Nearly all the dog handlers returned to the United States after their tours of duty The dogs despite their valorous service were classified as surplus equipment at the war's end and were destroyed outright or consigned to a doubtful fate when they were turned over to the Army of South Vietnam Here is the story of K9 seen firsthand through the eyes of a nineteen year old who never chanted Hell no we won't go Remember the Alamo has been selected as an information resource for a planned documentary on the modern military working dog A high school student working on an assignment asked me Why do you think we lost the Vietnam War I replied Imagine you're on the football team You're scheduled to play a team from another conference Many of your fellow students don't want the game played so they march in protest and refuse to participate When you get to the other team's stadium you find out the game will be played with two sets of rules one for your side and another for your opponents They don't even wear uniforms so it's impossible to tell them apart from their fans in the stands
