Nonviolence and Peace Building in Islam Mohammed Abu-Nimer, 2003 Most approaches to violence or its opposite in Islam try to establish that the religion of the Prophet is one or the other and thus get nowhere Avoiding this trap Abu Nimer has given us a wide ranging and thoroughly researched study that will be of interest to scholars and of use to peace builders Michael Nagler University of California Berkeley Written by a Muslim scholar lecturer and trainer in conflict resolution this book examines the largely unexplored theme of nonviolence and peace building in Islamic religion tradition and culture After comprehensively reviewing the existing studies on this topic Abu Nimer presents solid evidence for the existence of principles and values in the Qur'an Hadith and Islamic tradition that support the application of nonviolence and peace building strategies in resolving disputes He addresses the challenges that face the utilization of peace building and nonviolent strategies in an Islamic context and explores these challenges on both local and global levels Through a discussion of the structural and cultural obstacles to peace building and nonviolence the author explains the gap between Islamic values and ideals and their applications in day to day reality To illustrate the actual practice of these values and principles of peace building the book analyzes three case studies drawing from the political sociocultural and professional arenas The initial case study discusses the First Palestinian Intifada it is analyzed as a nonviolent political movement in which Islamic cultural and religious values and rituals played an important role in mobilizing communities to join the movement The second case study focuses on the role that such values play in traditional Arab dispute resolution practices such as Sulha mediation arbitration and reconciliation it extracts lessons and principles used by Arab traditional elders who peacefully resolve family interpersonal and community disputes The third case study discusses the obstacles and challenges facing professionals who provide peace building and conflict resolution training and initiatives within the Islamic world Combining theory with practical applications of peace building conflict resolution and nonviolent initiatives in Islamic communities Abu Nimer provides a framework for further developing and utilizing these principles in an Islamic context Mohammed Abu Nimer is associate professor in the International Peace and Conflict Resolution Program at American University Washington D C where he is also director of the Conflict Resolution Skills Institute

Nonviolence and Peace Psychology Daniel Mayton, 2009-05-28 Recent trends and events worldwide have increased public interest in nonviolence pacifism and peace psychology as well as professional interest across the social sciences Nonviolence and Peace Psychology assembles multiple perspectives to create a more comprehensive and nuanced understanding of the concepts and phenomena of nonviolence than is usually seen on the subject Through this diverse literature spanning psychology political science religious studies anthropology and sociology peace psychologist Dan Mayton gives readers the opportunity to view nonviolence as a body of principles a system of pragmatics and a strategy for social change This important volume Draws critical distinctions between nonviolence pacifism and related concepts Classifies nonviolence in terms of its scope intrapersonal interpersonal societal global and pacifism according to political and situational dimensions Applies standard psychological concepts such as beliefs motives dispositions and values to define nonviolent actions and behaviors Brings sociohistorical and cross cultural context to peace psychology Analyzes a century s worth of nonviolent social action from the pathbreaking work of Gandhi and King to the Courage to Refuse movement within the Israeli armed forces Reviews methodological and measurement issues in nonviolence research and suggests areas for future study Although more attention is traditionally devoted to violence and aggression within the social sciences Nonviolence and Peace Psychology reveals a robust knowledge base and a framework for peacebuilding work granting peace psychologists activists and mediators new possibilities for the transformative power of nonviolence Reenvisioning Peacebuilding and Conflict Resolution in Islam Qamar-ul Huda,2024-03-18

Reenvisioning Peacebuilding and Conflict Resolution in Islam examines the variety of strategic peacebuilding and conflict resolution activities conducted by Muslim practitioners and nongovernmental organizations in Muslim majority communities Qamar ul Huda explores ways that Muslim scholars civil society members and communities interpret violence and nonviolence peacebuilding and conflict resolution in an interconnected globalized age focusing on methods practices and strategies He shows how a faith based commitment can empower effective social political and intellectual action that results in meaningful change The book sheds light on a variety of vital topics including how the state utilizes hard and soft power in global religious diplomacy ways in which civil society organizations and NGOs maximize networks to engage in peacebuilding and conflict resolution the role of civil society in soft power politics and how some peacebuilding organizations are out of step with local Muslim cultures religious customs and why that matters Qamar ul Huda charts a vision of contemporary ethics of peacebuilding pluralism reconciliation and dialogue Conflict Resolution and Peacemaking in Islam Harris Sadik Kirazli,2024-05-26 The book explores Islamic perspectives on conflict resolution and peacemaking It delves into key topics such as the principles of Islamic conflict resolution historical examples of peaceful resolutions and contemporary challenges faced by Muslim societies By addressing these topics the book aims to provide insight into Islamic teachings and practices that can contribute to building bridges and fostering peace in diverse contexts The book is important and relevant due to the increasing need for understanding and promoting peaceful resolutions in today s world particularly in regions influenced by Islam It offers a comprehensive examination of the principles and methods of conflict resolution within an Islamic framework shedding light on the rich history of peacemaking within Muslim societies By highlighting Islamic perspectives on peace the book aims to bridge cultural divides and foster dialogue promoting a greater understanding and appreciation of the contributions Islam can make to conflict resolution The book seeks to address the prevalent misconceptions and stereotypes surrounding Islam s approach to conflict resolution It aims to challenge the notion that Islam is inherently associated with violence or lack of peaceful solutions By presenting authentic Islamic teachings and historical examples of peaceful resolutions the book endeavours to contribute to a more nuanced and accurate understanding of Islam s

role in promoting conflict resolution and peacemaking It offers readers an opportunity to explore Islamic perspectives on resolving conflicts encouraging dialogue and cultivating a more peaceful world

The Oxford Handbook of Religion, Conflict, and Peacebuilding Atalia Omer,R. Scott Appleby,David Little,2015 The book provides a comprehensive overview of the literature on religion conflict and peacebuilding With a focus on structural and cultural violence the volume also offers a cutting edge interdisciplinary reframing of the scope of scholarship in the field

Islam and Peacebuilding Ishan Yilmaz,2013-02-27 The exploration of the contributions is made with regards to the title in hand by the thought and practice of the global movement associated with the Turkish Muslim scholar Fethullah Gulen The importance and distinctiveness of teaching of Gulen and the practice of the movement is that it is rooted in a confident Turkish Islamic heritage while being fully engaged with modernity It offers the possibility of a contextualised renewal of Islam for Muslims in the modern world while being fully rooted in the teachings of the Qu ran and the Sunnah of the Prophet It advocates the freedom of religion while making an Islamic contribution to the wider society based on a commitment to service of others

The Hizmet Movement and Peacebuilding Mohammed Abu-Nimer,Timothy Seidel,2018-08-31 The Hizmet Movement and Peacebuilding assesses the peacebuilding implications and societal impact of the Hizmet Movement characterized as a pacifist and inclusive expression of Islam With a range of both supporters and critics the studies of the Hizmet Movement presented in these cases provide a counter to negative stereotypes with examples of positive educational institutions rooted in Islamic values The book includes contributions from scholars and practitioners around the world that critically explore the intersection of the movement and peacebuilding in countries such as Northern Iraq Nigeria Ethiopia Kazakhstan Kyrgyzstan Sri Lanka and the Philippines

Peace-Building by, between, and beyond Muslims and Evangelical Christians Mohammed Abu-Nimer,David Augsburg,2009-02-16 This timely work addresses sensitive issues and relations between Muslims and Christians around the world The book uniquely captures the opportunity for Christians and Muslims to come together and discuss pertinent issues such as pluralism governance preaching Christian missionary efforts and general misperceptions of Muslim and Christian communities Joint authorship and discussion within the book is used to offer dialogue and responses between different contributors This dialogue reveals that Christians and Muslims hold many things in common while having meaningful differences It also shows the value of honestly sharing convictions while respecting and hearing the beliefs of another

Evaluating Interreligious Peacebuilding and Dialogue Mohammed Abu-Nimer,Renáta Katalin Nelson,2021-09-20 In the emerging fields of religious and interreligious peacebuilding the question of monitoring and evaluation is a challenging yet necessary process The need to develop comprehensive yet fitting evaluation models for religious and interreligious peacebuilding is not only important for donor interests but also critical as a means of documenting and learning for peacebuilders themselves Theories and best practices in monitoring and evaluation have become prevalent in many fields yet the amount of literature on evaluating intercultural and especially religious and interreligious projects remains scant in comparison This volume offers a unique contribution that not only looks at several of the challenges and implications faced by religious and interreligious peacebuilders but also provides concrete examples of new models and tools for monitoring and evaluating religious and interreligious peacebuilding projects In doing so this volume serves as a tool and point of reference for individuals and organizations developing and implementing interreligious dialogue and peacebuilding projects

Creating the Third Force Maureen P. Flaherty,Hamdesa Tusso,2016-11-21 The profession of peacemaking has been practiced by indigenous communities around the world for many centuries however the ethnocentric world view of the West which dominated the world of ideas for the last five centuries dismissed indigenous forms of peacemaking as irrelevant and backward tribal rituals Neither did indigenous forms of peacemaking fit the conception of modernization and development of the new ruling elites who inherited the postcolonial state The new profession of Alternative Dispute Resolution ADR which emerged in the West as a new profession during the 1970s neglected the tradition and practice of indigenous forms of peacemaking The scant literature which has appeared on this critical subject tends to focus on the ritual aspect of the indigenous practices of peacemaking The goal of this book is to fill this lacuna in scholarship More specifically this work focuses on the process of peacemaking exploring the major steps of process of peacemaking which the peacemakers follow in dislodging antagonists from the stage of hostile confrontation to peaceful resolution of disputes and eventual reconciliation The book commences with a critique of ADR for neglecting indigenous processes of peacemaking and then utilizes case studies from different communities around the world to focus on the following major themes the basic structure of peacemaking process change and continuity in the traditions of peacemaking the role of indigenous women in peacemaking the nature of the tools peacemakers deploy common features found in indigenous processes of peacemaking and the overarching goals of peacemaking activities in indigenous communities Contemporary Islam Abdul Aziz Said, Mohammed Abu-Nimer, Meena Sharify-Funk, 2006-09-27 Contemporary Islam provides a counterweight to the prevailing opinions of Islamic thought as conservative and static with a preference for violence over dialogue It gathers together a collection of eminent scholars from around the world who tackle issues such as intellectual pluralism gender the ethics of political participation human rights non violence and religious harmony This is a highly topical and important study which gives a progressive outlook for Islam's role in modern politics and society Religious Credibility under Fire

Leif-Hagen Seibert, 2018-02-05 Leif Hagen Seibert carries out a three step praxeological analysis of empirical data from field studies in the research project The ethos of religious peace builders that allows for novel assessments of societal conjuncture field theory subjective meaning habitus analysis and the mutual rules of engagement of religious practice the religious nomos Over the course of this three step argument the sociological concept of religious credibility i.e. the determinants of religious legitimacy gains more and more contours and facilitates the reevaluation of risks and chances in a peace process where religion is a vector for both peace and division The Concept of Peace in Judaism, Christianity and Islam Georges Tamer, 2020-10-26 The eighth volume of the series Key Concepts of Interreligious Discourses investigates the roots of the concept of peace in Judaism Christianity and Islam and its relevance for the present time Facing present violent conflicts waged and justified by religious ideas or reasons peace building prevails in current debates about religion and peace Here the central question is How may traditional sources in religions help to put down the weapons and create a society in which everyone can live safely without hostilities and the threat of violence When we take the Sacred Scriptures of Judaism Christianity and Islam into consideration it becomes obvious that the term peace and its equivalents in Hebrew Greek and Arabic describe at first an ideal state based on the love mercy of God to his creation It is a divine gift that brings inward peace to the individual and outer peace resting upon justice and equality One main task of Jews Christian and Muslims in the history is to find out how to bring down this transcendent ideal upon earth The volume presents the concept of peace in its different aspects as anchored in the traditions of Judaism Christianity and Islam It unfolds commonalities and differences between the three monotheistic religions as well as the manifold discourses about peace within these three traditions The book offers fundamental knowledge about the specific understanding of peace in each one of these traditions their interdependencies and their relationship to secular world views Religious Pluralism, Globalization, and World

Politics Thomas Banchoff, 2008-11-26 Religious pluralism is everywhere in today's politics Increased immigration flows the collapse of communism and the globalization of communications technologies have all fostered a wider variety of religious beliefs practices and organizations within and across democratic societies This is true in both the United States and Europe where growing and diverse minority communities are transforming the political landscape As a result controversies over such things as headscarves and depictions of Mohammed are unsettling a largely secular Europe while a Christian majority in the

US faces familiar questions about church state relations amidst unprecedented religious diversity Far from receding into the background religious language pervades arguments around established issues such as abortion and capital punishment and new ones such as stem cell research and same sex marriage In Democracy and the New Religious Pluralism leading scholars from multiple disciplines explore these dynamics and their implications for democratic theory and practice What are the contours of this new religious pluralism What are its implications for the theory and practice of democracy Does increasing religious pluralism erode the cultural and social foundations of democracy To what extent do different religious communities embrace similar or at least compatible ethical and political commitments By seeking answers to these questions and revealing religious pluralism as both a source of animosity and a potent force for peaceful engagement this book offers a revealing look at the future of religion in democratic societies Postcolonial Politics and Theology Kwok

Pui-lan,2021-12-07 Postcolonial Politics and Theology seeks to reform and reimagine the field of political theology uprooting it from the colonial soil using the comparative lenses of postcolonial politics and theology to bring attention to the realities of the Global South Kwok Pui lan traces the history of the political impacts of Western theological development especially developments in the U S context and the need to shift these interlocking fields toward non Western traditions in theory and practice A special focus of the book is on the changing sociopolitical realities of American Empire and Sino American competition illustrated in Donald Trump s slogan of Make America Great Again and Xi Jinping s hope for a China Dream The shifting of U S and Asian relationships highlights the need to move our theological and political categories away from a vision of strongman domination and toward a postmodern postcolonial and transnational world especially exemplified in the Asia Pacific context Throughout Kwok overturns the idea of centering one cultural framework and marginalizing others in favor of living into a multiplicity of deeply contextual theologies She explores how these theologies are being developed in global postcolonial contexts through struggles for democracy and civil disobedience in Hong Kong by efforts to reclaim selfhood and sexual identity from exploitative colonial desire through the work of interreligious solidarity and peacebuilding and in the practice of earth care in the face of ecological crisis Striving in the Path of God Asma Afsaruddin,2013-05-07 In popular and academic literature jihad is predominantly assumed to refer exclusively to armed combat and martyrdom in the Islamic context is understood to be invariably of the military kind This perspective derived mainly from legal texts has led to discussions of jihad and martyrdom as concepts with fixed universal meanings divorced from the socio political circumstances in which they have been deployed through the centuries Asma Afsaruddin studies in a more holistic manner the range of significations that can be ascribed to the term jihad from the earliest period to the present and historically contextualizes the competing discourses that developed over time Many assumptions about the military jihad and martyrdom in Islam are thereby challenged and deconstructed A comprehensive interrogation of varied sources reveals early and multiple competing definitions of a word that in combination with the phrase fi sabil Allah translates literally to striving in the path of God Contemporary radical Islamists have appropriated this language to exhort their cadres to armed political opposition which they legitimize under the rubric of jihad Afsaruddin shows that the multivalent connotations of jihad and shahid recovered from the formative period lead us to question the assertions of those who maintain that belligerent and militant interpretations preserve the earliest and only authentic understanding of these two key terms Retrieval of these multiple perspectives has important implications for our world today in which the concepts of jihad and martyrdom are still being fiercely debated
