Moshe Menuhin

Nor By Power:

Not by Might, Nor by Power Graham Power, 2009 This is not the story of a mighty organizational tool nor the abilities of one man Graham Power Rather it is a testimony to the work of the Holy Spirit that began in South Africa and then spread throughout the rest of the world In these twenty one chapters readers will learn the history and beginnings of the Global Day of Prayer and how God answers prayer and makes visions come true "Not by Might, Nor by Power" Moshe Menuhin, 2017-03-07 With a new introduction by Adi Ophir An early and fierce critique of Zionism from a Jewish child of Palestine who argued against nationalism and injustice Born in 1893 Moshe Menuhin was part of the inaugural class to attend the first Zionist high school in Palestine the Herzliya gymnasium in Tel Aviv He had grown up in a Hasidic home but eventually rejected orthodoxy while remaining dedicated to Judaism As a witness to the evolution of Israel Menuhin grew disaffected with what he saw as a betrayal of the Jews spiritual principles This memoir written in 1965 is considered the first revisionist history of Zionism A groundbreaking document it discusses the treatment of the Palestinians the effects of the Holocaust the exploitation of the Mizrahi Jewish immigrants and the use of propaganda to win over public opinion in America and among American Jews In a postscript added after the Six Day War Menuhin also addresses the question of occupation This new edition is updated with an introduction by Israeli philosopher Adi Ophir putting Menuhin s work into a contemporary historical context Passionate and sometimes inflammatory in its prose and met with controversy and anger upon its original publication under the title The Decadence of Judaism in Our Time Menuhin s polemic remains both a thought provoking reassessment of Zionist history and a fascinating look at one observer s experience of this embattled corner of the world over the course of several tumultuous decades Neither Power Nor Glory Paul Strangio, 2012 When Frank Hardy published Power Without Glory his notorious novel about corruption and venality in the Victorian Labor Party it quickly came to be seen as a true account of the party Until now there has been no authoritative chronicle of the struggles of political Labor in Victoria from its origins in the mid nineteenth century through to the calamitous split of the 1950s By conventional measures these were fallow years Ensnared by the colony s powerful liberal protectionist tradition in the late nineteenth century Victorian Labor then found itself hindered by a grossly unfair electoral system and the lack of a constituency outside Melbourne s industrial suburbs But exile from government also meant that the party developed its own distinctive traditions and culture It was a unique and intriguing species among the state Labor parties Meticulously researched and elegantly written Neither Power Nor Glory fills an important gap in Australian political history and our understanding of the Labor Party It is also a timely antidote to nostalgia about Labor s past In Victoria at least that past was anything but golden One-Minute Prayers When You Need a Miracle Nick Harrison, 2020-01-14 God Is Big Enough When life looks bleak and you need God to show up in a big way it can be hard to imagine how He might rescue you from your desperate situation One Minute Prayers When You Need a Miracle connects your needs to God s promises by offering brief prayers to stretch your faith and enlarge your view of God Each devotion provides a heartfelt prayer and a scripture to ponder that will comfort you in times of trouble strengthen your faith as you wait patiently for God s answer build your trust as you lean into God s unique plan for you If you re praying for a miracle you can expect God to answer and provide you with real hope even in your darkest hours
