Nordic Security Occasional Paper Series:

Nordic Security John Hm Hagard,1987-12-08 Nordic Security at the Turn of the Twenty-First Century Ciro Elliott Zoppo,1992-05-30 High ranking government officials defense analysts and scholars focus on the geopolitics and security of the Nordic region at a time when East West relations in Europe are undergoing momentous changes Experts from Scandinavia Europe and the United States examine the impact of the United States and the Soviet Union on Scandinavian security in terms of defense doctrines and deployment and the evolving technologies of defense paying particular attention to neutral Finland and Sweden This strategic analysis edited by Ciro Zoppo is intended for academicians and policymakers in the fields of military studies political science Nordic and European affairs and East West relations This survey of key problems and prospects in the Northern cap of the globe offers the historical background necessary for understanding the foreign policies and domestic politics of Norway Finland Sweden Iceland and Denmark The study is unique in its detailed examination of military policy and emerging technologies alongside a discussion about their economic consequences for the countries in the region The cross national team of experts also considers the significance of the changing political and technological environment for the future of Swedish and Finnish defense and neutrality Papers Available Foreign Affairs Research Documentation Center,1969 Nordic Security in the 1990s Jan Øberg,1992 The Nordic countries have traditionally been seen as peaceful welfare states with egalitarian relations within each and between them This ethos has also influenced the role their governments have played in international affairs However in recent years this role has become increasingly reactive based on an outmoded world view The Nordic countries both individually and as a bloc must now make a choice about future strategy within the European and global framework whether to remain on the periphery of European politics and continue in a reactive fashion or to engage in the broader framework of the post cold war era This study assesses the possibilities for the countries of the region and the contribution they can make to the changing Europe in terms of security and sustainable regional development The European Neutrals In The 1990s Hanspeter Neuhold,2019-07-09 This book presents the work of leading experts from Austria Finland Sweden and Switzerland on the changing opportunities and challenges faced by the neutral states of Europe It outlines some of the political changes that have recently taken place in the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe Foreign Affairs Research Special Papers Available Foreign Affairs Research Documentation Center,1970 Gender, Sex and the Postnational Defense Annica Kronsell,2012-02-24 From a feminist constructivist institutional approach the author explores how gender aspects and UN SCR 1325 has influenced the way that the post national defense organizes its practices and the policies pursued Scandinavian NATO Policy John Lund,1990 Special Papers Available Foreign Affairs Research Documentation Center,1969 Environmental Change and Security Project Report ,1998 Gender Equality in UN Peacekeeping Sally Anne Corcoran,2024-04-23 This book investigates to what extent UNSCR 1325 WPS agenda has functioned in practice to advance women s equality and empowerment in the peacekeeping context and beyond The book examines whether widespread implementation of UNSCR 1325 and the broader WPS agenda via gender mainstreaming in UN operations has translated into increased gender equality in peacekeeping operations the broader UN institutional context and by extension the host countries in which missions are situated via norm dissemination The book investigates this via a review of the implementation of UNSCR1325 in the operations chosen as research sites over three snapshot years The book undertakes a comparative analysis that scrutinizes if how and under what conditions gender mainstreaming has succeeded as a strategy to advance gender equality by analyzing the factors conditions that have led to successful gender mainstreaming across the operational context and those that have impeded this outcome The book concludes that despite rhetorical commitments to women s equality in peacekeeping since the passage of UNSCR 1325 progress on the ground has remained minimal and that the operational environment continues to be discriminatory against women Both quantitatively and qualitatively women do not participate as equal partners in peacekeeping and continue to have less access to resources and decision making power overall The book interrogates that by exploring the spaces available within law policy and practice of the UN to pursue the human rights agenda of gender equality and considers whether UNSCR 1325 has enlarged those spaces It also points to the irony of internal UN structures failing to adequately adapt to their own gender mainstreaming mandates while those same structures have delivered some gender equality mandates successes externally at local levels This book will be of interest to students of peacekeeping gender studies and International Relations

Horizons of Security Marco Zoppi, 2021-08-20 Issues of welfare access and deservedness are increasingly permeating political debates in present day Scandinavian welfare states which are worldwide renowned for their comprehensive safety net Across the region the Somalis are oftentimes singled out in political debates about immigration and integration policies as the least integrated group if not as a burden for public finances Against this background Horizons of Security accounts for historical patterns of integration from the specific point of view of welfare and security among the Somalis in Scandinavia Drawing on qualitative interviews with the Somali diaspora the book explores how the Somalis are experiencing relevant changes in the way they think and formulate expectations about the safety net often embracing elements of both welfare systems at the same time not all of the integration measures set up by Scandinavian states are conducive for alleviating Somalis security issues especially in the immediate time after the resettlement This dynamic can cause considerable degrees of insecurity and long term social vulnerability among the Somalis Horizons of Security offers insight on integration and the organization of welfare to be applied in comparative perspectives to other diasporas and world areas

African Governance, Security, and Development Wanjala S. Nasong'o, 2021-08-10 African Governance Security and Development explores the political economy of development in Africa The contributors examine the impact and implications of the democratization process in Africa with particular focus on issues of economic social and institutional development Through a variety of critical perspectives and disciplines contributors analyze topics such as the impact of democratization on governance and institutional development foreign aid and foreign direct investment terrorism in Africa identity politics and the politics of oil extraction African Governance Security and Development features the voices of scholars from institutions of higher learning in Africa and showcases case studies from the continent bringing much needed African and Africanist perspectives to current discussions about African political development and economy The Mediterranean Dimension of the European Union's Internal Security S. Wolff, 2012-09-27 EU internal security concerns such as migration police and judicial cooperation are today part of EU foreign policy This book shows how those concerns dominate the EU agenda towards Mediterranean countries Adopting a rational choice institutionalist approach it explores EU policy and the strategic choices made after the 2011 Arab revolts Small States and Security in Europe

Tomáš Weiss, Geoffrey Edwards, 2021-12-28 This book studies how domestic contestation influences the security policy of small states within the European Union EU and North Atlantic Treaty Organization NATO A multinational group of expert contributors consider how domestic contestation is translated into small states foreign policies how membership of international organisations alters attitudes to security policy in small states and how patterns of small states behaviour across domestic traditions security cultures and geographical location can be identified Anchored in new institutionalism the book explores the influence of international organisations on security policies and the tensions created by connecting four strands of literature on Europeanisation on the impact of and on institutions on the way foreign and security policy is made and the security strategic culture of small states It will be of interest to all scholars and students of international relations security studies EU studies area studies and politics The African Union's Role in Peacekeeping Isiaka

Badmus, 2015-05-27 This study examines the African Union's peacekeeping role in managing African conflicts Based on a qualitative research methodology it analyses AU peace operations in Burundi and Somalia and hybrid peacekeeping in Darfur in order to identify the lessons learned and suggest how future outcomes may be improved Contemporary Security

Analysis and Copenhagen Peace Research , The Social Construction of Swedish Neutrality Christine Agius, 2006-07-30 Since the end of the Cold War and particularly in the post 9 11 international environment neutrality has been conceptualised as a problematic subject With the end of bipolarity neutrality as a foreign and security policy lost much of its justification and in the ongoing War on Terror no state according to the Bush Administration can be neutral However much of this debate has gone unnoticed in IR literature This book newly available in paperback examines the conceptualisation of neutrality from the Peloponnesian War to the present day uncovering how neutrality has been a neglected and misunderstood subject in IR theory and politics By rethinking neutrality through constructivism this book argues that neutrality is intrinsically linked to identity Using Sweden as a case study it links identity sovereignty internationalism and solidarity to the debates about Swedish neutrality today and how neutrality has been central to Swedish identity and its world view Transatlantic Security from the Sahel to the Horn of Africa Riccardo Alcaro, Nicoletta

Pirozzi ,2014-05-21 As the so called Arab Spring has slid into political uncertainty lingering insecurity and civil conflict European and American initial enthusiasm for anti authoritarian protests has given way to growing concerns that revolutionary turmoil in North Africa may in fact have exposed the West to new risks Critical in cementing this conviction has been the realisation that developments originated from Arab Mediterranean countries and spread to the Sahel have now such a potential to affect Western security and interests as to warrant even military intervention as France s operation in Mali attests EU and US involvement in fighting piracy off the Horn of Africa had already laid bare the nexus between their security interests and protracted crises in sub Saharan Africa But the new centrality acquired by the Sahel after the Arab uprisings particularly after Libya s civil war has elevated this nexus to a new larger dimension The centre of gravity of Europe s security may be swinging to Africa encompassing a wide portion of the continental landmass extending south of Mediterranean coastal states The recrudescence of the terrorist threat from Mali to Algeria might pave the way to an American pivot to Africa thus requiring fresh thinking on how the European Union and the United States can better collaborate with each other and with relevant regional actors
