In Hawthorne's Shadow Samuel Chase Coale, 2021-10-21 The world is so sad and solemn wrote Nathaniel Hawthorne that things meant in jest are liable by an overwhelming influence to become dreadful earnest gaily dressed fantasies turning to ghostly and black clad images of themselves From the radical dualism of Hawthorne's vision Samuel Coale argues springs a continuing tradition in the American novel In Hawthorne's Shadow is the first critical study to describe precisely the formal shape of Hawthorne's psychological romance and to explore his themes and images in relation to such contemporary writers as John Cheever Norman Mailer Joan Didion John Gardner

Joyce Carol Oates William Styron and John Updike When viewed from this perspective certain writers particularly Cheever Mailer Oates and Gardner appear in a new and very different light leading to a considerable reevaluation of their achievement and their place in American fiction Mr Coale's long interviews and conversations with John Cheever John Gardner William Styron and others have provided insights and perspectives that make this book particularly valuable to students of contemporary American literature Coale links contemporary writers to an on going American romantic tradition represented by such earlier authors as Melville Harold Frederic Faulkner Flannery O'Connor and Carson McCullers He explores the distinctly Manichean matter of much American romance linking it to America's Puritan past and to the almost schizophrenic dynamics of American culture in general Finally he reexamines the post modernist writers in light of Hawthorne's shadow and shows that however similar they may be in some ways they differ remarkably from the previous American romantic tradition Research Guide to Biography and Criticism Walton Beacham, Erica Dickson, Charles J.

This book is an analysis of the social criticism and the political implications of rhetorical strategies in personal political nonfictional narratives by liberal American writers from the 18th century till the 1970s. Using the theories of Mikhail Bakhtin, Schueller examines works by Benjamin Franklin, Henry David Thoreau, Henry James, Henry Adams, Jane Addams, James Agee, Norman Mailer, and Maxine Hong Kingston. Norman Mailer Andrew Wilson, 2008. This book is a comprehensive study of the work of the American author Norman Mailer, charting his response to critical events in his country's development since 1945. Focusing on Mailer's descriptions of World War II, 1960s counter culture, the Vietnam War, the Apollo 11 mission, and the execution of Gary Gilmore in Utah in 1977, the book analyses the native vernaculars in ten of his most critically acclaimed works. Moving beyond politically orientated scholarship, the author outlines Mailer's New York, American GI, Mid West, and Southern styles, contextualising his prose against earlier American authors including Henry Adams, Ernest Hemingway, and John Dos Passos, and positioning his writing alongside contemporary notables such as Joan Didion, William Burroughs, and Truman Capote. Incorporating over forty years of scholarship in the form of articles, reviews, and interviews, this book pinpoints the American attributes in Mailer's writing with a view to identifying trends in post-war American literary movements, the Beat Generation, New Journalism, and Pop Art, among others. Twentieth Century Fiction George Woodcock, 1983-04-01.
