Special Committee on Aging, 1963 The Birth of Hollywood North Allan Wargon, 2017-06-28 This is the story of a man whose struggle with poverty artistic and moral issues inadvertently starts an industry Allan Wargon's pioneering efforts take us from the infancy of Canadian film and television to its grand unfolding Often at odds with the holders of purse strings and despite obstacles and deprecation he perseveres Following many awards he devises and makes Mr Piper Canada's first weekly colour television show which sparks the surge of Canadian and American production that becomes Hollywood North Much later he writes and publishes books From painter to film director to writer the author's journey is marked by a consistent refusal to compromise his vision and creative integrity From Varley and Lismer to Paul Anka from John Diefenbaker to Pierre Elliot Trudeau from Lou Applebaum to Jack Warner he works with and crosses paths with many artists musicians and public figures Hollywood North is a frank intensely personal sometimes gut wrenching and always engrossing inside story New York Magazine, 1997-04-07 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Books in Print, 1991 Marketing to Moviegoers Robert Marich, 2013-01-30 While Hollywood executives spend millions of dollars making movies even more money is poured into selling those films to the public In the third edition of his comprehensive guidebook Marketing to Moviegoers A Handbook of Strategies and Tactics veteran film and TV journalist Robert Marich plumbs the depths of the methods used by studios to market their films to consumers Updates to the third edition include a chapter on marketing movies using digital media an insightful discussion of the use of music in film trailers new and expanded materials on marketing targeted toward affinity groups and awards fresh analysis of booking contracts between theaters and distributors a brief history of indie film marketing and explorations of the overlooked potential of the drive in theater and the revival of third party financed movie campaigns While many books have been written on the business to business aspect of film promotion Marich's volume is one of the few that focuses on the techniques used to sell motion pictures to those in a position to truly make or break a film the public A highly navigable handbook that breaks down a complicated process into manageable strategies in an easy to read style Marketing to Moviegoers is a must for all professionals and students in today's rapidly evolving film industry The Jews in America Trilogy Stephen Birmingham, 2016-06-28 Three New York Times bestsellers chronicle the rise of America's most influential Jewish families as they transition from poor immigrants to household names In his acclaimed trilogy author Stephen Birmingham paints an engrossing portrait of Jewish American life from the colonial era through the twentieth century with fascinating narrative and meticulous research The collection's best known book Our Crowd follows nineteenth century German immigrants with recognizable names like Loeb Sachs Lehman Guggenheim and Goldman Turning small family businesses into institutions of finance banking and philanthropy they elevated themselves from Lower East Side tenements to

Park Avenue mansions Barred from New York's gentile elite because of their religion and humble backgrounds they created their own exclusive group as affluent and selective as the one that had refused them entry The Grandees travels farther back in history to 1654 when twenty three Sephardic Jews arrived in New York Members of this small and insulated group considered the first Jewish community in America soon established themselves as wealthy businessmen and financiers With descendants including poet Emma Lazarus Barnard College founder Annie Nathan Meyer and Supreme Court Justice Benjamin N Cardozo these families were and still are hugely influential in the nation's culture politics and economics In The Rest of Us Birmingham documents the third major wave of Jewish immigration Eastern Europeans who swept through Ellis Island between 1880 and 1924 These refugees from czarist Russia and Polish shtetls were considered barbaric uneducated and too steeped in the traditions of the old country to be accepted by the well established German American Jews But the new arrivals were tough passionate and determined Their incredible rags to riches stories include those of the lives of Hollywood tycoon Samuel Goldwyn Broadway composer Irving Berlin makeup mogul Helena Rubenstein and mobster Meyer Lansky This unforgettable collection comprises a comprehensive account of the Jewish American upper class their opulent world and their lasting mark on American society
