Religion And Society Towards A Theology Of Struggle:

Religion and Society Forum for Interdisciplinary Endeavors and Studies, 1988 Religion and society Mary Rosario Battung, 1988 Toward a Theology of Struggle Eleazar S. Fernandez, 2009-02-01 The Theology of Struggle is a genuinely popular Filipino theology rooted in the history and culture of a people who have endured colonial oppression at the hands of Spain North America and Japan as well as neo colonialism and home grown dictatorship Because Christianity has played a role in assisting the history of oppression in the Philippines a theology of struggle must include a struggle in theology to wrest Christian symbols from the hands of the oppressors and return them to the poor This theology which is otherwise expressed in articles poems art and action receives its first systematic treatment in Toward a Theology of Struggle In Part One Fernandez establishes the historical and cultural context out of which the Theology of Struggle has emerged Part Two represents Fernandez's own constructive work in which he shows how a theology of struggle must address the quest for identity and peoplehood In Part Three Fernandez explores the question of theological method outlining the areas of convergence and distinction between the Theology of struggle and other Third World theologies as well as setting forth the distinctive challenge that this theology of the Philippines poses to the authority and dominance of Western theology as a whole Religion and society Mary Rosario Battung, 1988 Christologies, Cultures, and Religions, Papers presented at the First Theological Forum of Mindanao 2014 Inter religious and inter cultural perspectives on how we view and understand Christ Contributors Victor Aguilan Herbert T Ale Mariano C Apilado Pascal D Bazzell Lee Joseph Custodio Jos M de Mesa Edgar B Ebojo Eleazar S Fernandez Foreword Omar Abu Khalil Melba P Maggay Epilogue Muriel Orevillo Montenegro Aldrin M Pe amora Brian Powell Chiu Eng Tan Rico Villanueva Emo Yango Resisting Theologies and the Everyday Wren Radford, 2025-06-26 This powerful volume provides dynamic ways of constructing theologies of resistance and liberation by engaging with the everyday practices of marginalised communities In doing so this collection of theological experts reject abstracted concepts of bodies and taxonomies of race gender sexuality and disability Readers will find this a dynamic book with a variety of approaches that provide ways of constructing theologies of resistance and liberation Experiences of marginalisation have provided a powerful reference point for developing theologies of justice and liberation however theological and political frameworks often reduce the complexity of lived experiences into categories and themes Daily practices of resisting and surviving are frequently considered too fleshy domestic or banal to be of theological meaning Therefore Radford and their coterie of academics draw on understandings of the everyday in feminist womanist Latinx and decolonial theologies as well as in cultural theory This allows critical reflection on how theological approaches can shape alternative relations to self society and the sacred In recognising the lived and felt realities of struggling against oppressive colonial and racialised systems contributors engage with academic and activist debates about the possibilities of remaking social relations and creating other ways of knowing and being From Black theology to disabled activists on social media to queer clergy in South Africa this volume holds together differences in contributors approaches modelling the view that there is not just one form of resistance nor a single approach to constructing theology Old Catholic and Philippine Independent Ecclesiologies in History Peter-Ben Smit,2011-08-25 This study researches the historical development of the self understanding of the Old Catholic Churches of the Union of Utrecht and the Iglesia Filipina Independiente Throughout the 20th century both churches have been in a developing relationship with each other resulting in full communion in 1965 In the same time period both churches developed an ecclesiological self understanding in which an ecclesiology of the national church gradually gave way to an ecclesiology of the local church By outlining this development for each of these two churches and comparing the developments the study gives insight both into the individual development of the two churches involved and shows how these developments relate to each other In this way the study presents a new historical portrait of these churches and their self understanding The Oxford Handbook of Christianity in Asia Felix Wilfred,2014-05-23 Named by the International Bulletin of Missionary Studies as an Outstanding Book of 2014 for Mission Studies Despite the ongoing global expansion of Christianity there remains a lack of comprehensive scholarship on its development in Asia This volume fills the gap by exploring the world of Asian Christianity and its manifold expressions including worship theology spirituality inter religious relations interventions in society and mission The contributors from over twenty countries deconstruct many of the widespread misconceptions and interpretations of Christianity in Asia They analyze how the growth of Christian beliefs throughout the continent is linked with the socio political and cultural processes of colonization decolonization modernization democratization identity construction of social groups and various social movements With a particular focus on inter religious encounters and emerging theological and spiritual paradigms the volume provides alternative frames for understanding the phenomenon of conversion and studies how the scriptures of other religious traditions are used in the practice of Christianity within Asia Jesus Of Asian Women (the) Muriel Orevillo-Montenegro,2010 Life in Freedom Michael Amaladoss,2014-04-17 In Life in Freedom Michael Amaladoss analyzes the many rich and complex strands of Asian religious thought on the notion and nature of the path toward liberation As he shows Asian liberation theology departs significantly from the Latin American model with which it is commonly compared Rather than put primary emphasis on economic issues Asian cultures give much greater priority to the role of religion in the composition of a healthy society In Part One Amaladoss discusses current liberation movements and thought in Korea the Philippines and India In two other chapters he shows also that the awakening of women is integral to the search for human freedom and development and the growing importance sound ecological policies in any valid approach to liberation in Asia In Part Two Amaladoss discusses non Christian approaches to human liberation and freedom showing how the lives and thought of influential figures of other faiths have given distinctive shape to Asian approaches to liberation Buddhists such as Thich Nhat Hanh and Hindus such as Mahatma Gandhi and E V Ramaswamy show that hostility to religion is remote from the most characteristic Asian liberation movements Gandhi's entire politics was rooted in the notion that to attain Truth or to realize God is the goal of human life But God for Gandhi is realized concretely in the world and particularly in other people Service to others then becomes a way to God and ultimately to human liberation Similarly Confucian traditions embody a deeply indigenous Asian way of constructing reality as a sacred whole In that construct liberation and freedom take on meanings and dimensions functionally religious in the way they anchor individuals and the community to the cosmic whole In Part Three Amaladoss gives his own analysis and prophetic overview on how the plurality of images of liberation enriches the possibility for interreligious cooperation in overcoming the forces of oppression in Asia

Seminaries and divinity schools have for years been described as marketplaces of ideas Unfortunately many such institutions have been marketplaces or more appropriately malls of Western ideas In other words if one were to go shopping in these malls of theological education one will be amazed by the number of stalls stores and shops offering imported goods from theologies to liturgies to libraries to models of hermeneutics I cringe at the thought that the more we train our students the further they are drawn away from the poetry and the arts the thought forms and patterns the hermeneutics the sentiments and feelings and the imaginative and visioning processes of their own people 1 Anumang hiram kung hindi masikip ay maluwan Anything borrowed is either too tight or too loose The saying is true with clothes It is equally true with theology Panahon na upang iguhit ang sariling palad Panahon na upang lilukin ang sariling hugis Ihabi ang sariling talambuhay 2 We need more shops that proudly offer the depth and the breadth of diverse Filipino articulations and constructions of theology Anumang hiram kayang iwasto para sakto Nevertheless the Filipino has the ability to transform anything borrowed to fit him or her perfectly We also need more stores that showcase the Filipinos religious imagination that empowers them to beat swords into ploughshares to turn weapons of mass destruction into instruments for mass celebration and to transform US military jeeps into Filipino mass transport jeepneys This anthology is an attempt at doing both 1 Romeo Del Rosario quoted in Carlos Abesamis What is Inside the Wooden Bowl Manila Socio Pastoral Institute 1997 24 2 Carlos Abesamis 23

Interventions E. Castelli,J. Jakobsen,2004-11-26 This collection brings together top scholars to discuss the significance of violence from a global perspective and the intersections between the global structures of violence and more localized and intimate forms of violence Activists and academics consider questions such as are there situations in which violence should be politically supported Are non violent or anti war movements in the US able to effectively respond to violence Do we need to rethink our understanding of both religion and secularism in light of the current world situation Have new paradigms been developed in response to violence The essays in this collection offer inclusive analysis of particular situations and creative alternatives to the omnipresence of violence The Dream Need Not Die Mariano Casuga Apilado,1999 The Colonized Apostle Christopher D. Stanley, The Role and Meaning of Religion for Korean Society Song-Chong

Lee,2019-04-25 This special issue presents discussions of the role and meaning of religion for Korean society Covering wide ranging time periods the authors explores with their own cases four major characteristics of Korean religion Creativity Greater Responsiveness Adaptability and Prophethood Their topical religious traditions include Neo Confucianism Christianity Buddhism and Korean new religious movements Winstanley and the Diggers, 1649-1999 Andrew Bradstock,2013-12-19 This collection of essays explore the the Diggers a group of 17th century men who shared a vision of a society based on collective ownership of the land The themes discussed include the continuing power of leader Winstanley s writings ideas on civil liberty and the economic background Contextual Evangelization in the Philippines Oscar A. Ante,1991 Mystic-wanderers in the Land of Perpetual Departure Karl Gaspar,2005 The Spirit Shaped Church Swarup Bar,2021-02-23 In The Spirit Shaped Church Swarup Bar argues that the church is defined by its relationship with others A relational church depends on the porousness of its borders which means that while a church has its distinctiveness it ought to be open to negotiate relational engagements with the world around it This sort of relationally distinct permeable church is found to be possible through the leading of the Spirit and the work of Christ Such engagement is found to be relevant in a plural religio cultural context and in situations of marginalization in India The Spirit Shaped Church reflects an ongoing commitment on the part of Fortress Press to engage the needs of Christian communities around the world The book is aimed at teachers clergy students and anyone with an interest in the lived experience of Christians in India Protestantism and Authoritarian Politics Oscar S. Suarez,1999
