Choosing Our Religion Elizabeth Drescher,2016-03-01 To the dismay of religious leaders study after study has shown a steady decline in affiliation and identification with traditional religions in America By 2014 more than twenty percent of adults identified as unaffiliated up more than seven percent just since 2007 Even more startling more than thirty percent of those under the age of thirty now identify as Nones answering none when queried about their religious affiliation Is America losing its religion Or as more and more Americans choose different spiritual paths are they changing what it means to be religious in the United States today In Choosing Our Religion Elizabeth Drescher explores the diverse complex spiritual lives of Nones across generations and across categories of self identification such as Spiritual But Not Religious Atheist Agnostic Humanist just Spiritual and more Drawing on more than one hundred interviews conducted across the United States Drescher opens a window into the lives of a broad cross section of Nones diverse with respect to age gender race sexual orientation and prior religious background She allows Nones to speak eloquently for themselves illuminating the processes by which they became None the sources of information and inspiration that enrich their spiritual lives the practices they find spiritually meaningful how prayer functions in spiritual lives not centered on doctrinal belief how morals and values are shaped outside of institutional religions and how Nones approach the spiritual development of their own children These compelling stories are deeply revealing about how religion is changing in America both for Nones and for the religiously affiliated family friends and neighbors with whom their lives remain intertwined The New Generation ,1922

European Perspectives on the New Comparative Theology Francis X. Clooney,John Berthrong,2018-10-09 Printed Edition of the Special Issue Published in Religions with a Summary by Perry Schmidt Leukel Cultural Catholics Maureen K. Day,2024-10-15 Over half of self identified Catholics are regularly absent from the pews on Sunday How do these cultural Catholics practice their faith and how can we better minister to them Who are cultural Catholics and how do we connect with them Written by award winning sociologist and professor of religion Maureen K Day Cultural Catholics tells the story of those who consider themselves Catholic but infrequently attend Mass This accessible book examines cultural Catholics on a range of topics allowing readers to come to a better understanding of this group and offers ministerial insights for connecting with and accompanying them on their spiritual journeys Cultural Catholics comprise just over half of self identified Catholics in the United States Typical efforts or questions of outreach come from parishes but because most cultural Catholics are loosely tethered to parish life the standard avenues of Catholic ministry do not reach them in any reliable way Using a nationally representative survey of more than 1 500 American Catholics as well as insights from ministry leaders this book allows readers to see the differences and similarities in how cultural Catholics relate to their faith compared to Catholics in the pews It also explores cultural Catholics religious beliefs and practices political and civic commitments parish experiences and concludes with concrete evidence based pastoral approaches The Survey ,1926
