Religion And Soc Tp 2ed:

Sugar and Society in China Sucheta Mazumdar, 1998 In this study Sucheta Mazumdar offers an answer to the fundamental question of why China universally acknowledged as one of the most developed economies in the world throughout the mid 18th century paused in this development process in the 19th century Focusing on cane sugar production domestic and international trade technology and the history of consumption for over 1000 years as a means of framing the larger questions the author shows that the economy of late imperial China was not stagnant nor was the state suppressing trade indeed China was integrated into the world market well before the Opium War However the trajectory of development did not transform the social organization of production or set in motion sustained economic growth Studies of Chinese Religion Laurence G. Library, 1960 Res Publica Constituta Carsten Hjort Lange, 2009 The years surrounding the decisive battle of Actium in 31 BC and the various measures undertaken by the victor Augustus to create and legitimate a new system of government in Rome are among the most discussed aspects of Roman history This book re evaluates Augustus rise to power first as triumvir along with Antonius and Lepidus and then as sole ruler focusing particularly on the part played by propaganda and ideological claims Augustus is shown to have acknowledged the Actium war as a civil as well as an external war and the commemorations of the battle at the site and in Rome are re assessed along with the role ascribed to Apollo in the victory

The celebrated settlement of 28 27 BC is shown to have constituted the accomplishment of the triumviral assignment
