Discerning the Spirit(s) Amos Yong, 2019-03-08 Efforts to construct a Christian theology of religions have inevitably stumbled on the Christian scandal of particularity the historical Jesus of Nazareth What however if we began by focusing on the universal presence and activity of God in the world as symbolized by the Holy Spirit Yong develops just such a pneumatological approach to religions drawing by way of resource on the Pentecostal charismatic experience of the Spirit This book thus invites Pentecostals charismatics and other Christians to conceive of how a pneumatological approach to religions can invigorate the wider ecumenical conversation At the same time it also brings recent Pentecostal charismatic scholarship into dialogue with a broader audience including those interested in philosophical theology world religions global spiritualities and comparative religion and theology

The Pauline Concept of Supernatural Powers Kabiro wa Gatumu, 2009-02-20 The study of supernatural powers is fraught with vexing hermeneutical challenges which aggravate further in the African context While on the one hand Western anthropology tends to discount the idea of supernatural powers by attempting to explain them away on the other Western biblical scholarship has mainly worked from the premise of demythologizing them But none of these approaches make tangible sense to African scholars for whom supernatural powers constitute an integral component of their spiritual psyche This book based on an examination of over a thousand documentary sources both classic and modern attempts to address the issue of interpreting supernatural powers from an African worldview The author analyzes identifies and critiques major hermeneutical errors and offers a bridging hermeneutic using the method of reader response criticism Wombs and Alien Spirits Janice Boddy,1989-12-01 Based on nearly two years of ethnographic fieldwork in a Muslim village in northern Sudan Wombs and Alien Spirits explores the z r cult the most widely practiced traditional healing cult in Africa Adherents of the cult are usually women with marital or fertility problems who are possessed by spirits very different from their own proscribed roles as mothers Through the woman the spirit makes demands upon her husband and family and makes provocative comments on village issues such as the increasing influence of formal Islam or encroaching Western economic domination In accommodating the spirits the women are able metaphorically to reformulate everyday discourse to portray consciousness of their own subordination Janice Boddy examines the moral universe of the village discussing female circumcision personhood kinship and bodily integrity then describes the workings of the cult and the effect of possession on the lives of men as well as women She suggests that spirit possession is a feminist discourse though a veiled and allegorical one on women s objectification and subordination Additionally the spirit world acts as a foil for village life in the context of rapid historical change and as such provides a focus for cultural resistance that is particularly though not exclusively relevant to women

Women and Men Nancy Bonvillain,2020-03-20 The fifth edition of Women and Men Cultural Constructs of Gender presents a synthesis of a wide range of ethnographic and historical data concerning the roles of women men and gender nonconforming people in different societies It focuses on both material conditions and ideological valuations that affect and reflect cultural models of gender NEW TO THIS EDITION Chapter 3 includes new sections on alternative gendered identities in the Lakota of the Plains and the Navajo of the Southwest and on Yanomamo land rights Chapter 4 contains new sections on marriage options in the Northwest Coast and on Canadian First Nations contemporary issues concerning territorial rights and the protection of lands from contamination Chapter 6 is significantly expanded by thorough discussions of the intersectionality of gender class and race Chapter 7 includes a new section on the transmigration of women from poor countries in Asia Africa and Central and South America to wealthier countries in the Middle East Europe and North America to work as nannies cooks and other household help as well as other resources Chapter 8 is significantly revised to include changes that have recently taken place to counter dominating and dominant notions of gender and sexuality This revision contains numerous new sections along with updated economic and social statistical data pertaining to the United States and to global resources It reframes concepts of gender and of the intersectionality of gender class and race as they relate to discussions throughout the book Ethnographic studies are expanded to include contemporary material on the peoples featured in the chapters The Satanism Scare Joel Best,2017-09-29 Although there is growing concern over Satanism as a threat to American life the topic has received surprisingly little serious attention Recognizing this the editors of this volume have selected papers from a wide variety of disciplines broadly covering contemporary aspects of Satanism from the vantage points of studies in folklore cults religion deviance rock music rumor and the mass media All contributors are skeptical of claims that a large powerful satanic conspiracy can be substantiated Their research focuses instead on claims about Satanism and on the question of whose interests are served by such claims Several papers consider the impact of anti Satanism campaigns on public opinion law enforcement and civil litigation child protection services and other sectors of American society The constructionist perspective adopted by the editors does not deny the existence of some activities by real Satanists and two papers describe the workings of satanic groups Whatever the basis of the claims examined and analyzed there is growing evidence that belief in the satanic menace will have real social consequences in the years ahead

Spirit and Healing in Africa Deborah van den Bosch-Heij, 2012-01-01 There is a great need for healing in Africa This need is in itself no different elsewhere in the world but it is greatly determined by the involvement of religious communities and traditions Faith communities and religious institutions play a major role in assisting African believers to find health healing and completeness in everyday life

The Self Possessed Frederick M. Smith, 2006 The Self Possessed is a multifaceted diachronic study reconsidering the very nature of religion in South Asia the culmination of years of intensive research Frederick M Smith proposes that positive oracular or ecstatic possession is the most common form of spiritual expression in India and that it has been linguistically distinguished from negative disease producing possession for thousands of years In South Asia possession has always been broader and more diverse than in the West where it has been almost entirely characterized as demonic At best spirit possession has been regarded as a medically treatable psychological ailment and at worst as a condition that requires exorcism or punishment In South and East Asia ecstatic or oracular possession has been widely practiced throughout history occupying a position of respect in early and recent Hinduism and in certain forms of Buddhism Smith analyzes Indic literature from all ages the earliest Vedic texts the Mahabharata Buddhist Jain Yogic Ayurvedic and Tantric texts Hindu devotional literature Sanskrit drama and narrative literature and more than a hundred ethnographies He identifies several forms of possession including festival initiatory oracular and devotional and demonstrates their multivocality within a wide range of sects and religious identities Possession is common among both men and women and is practiced by members of all social and caste strata Smith theorizes on notions of embodiment disembodiment selfhood personal identity and other key issues through the prism of possession redefining the relationship between Sanskrit and vernacular culture and between elite and popular religion Smith's study is also comparative introducing considerable material from Tibet classical China modern America and elsewhere Brilliant and persuasive The Self Possessed provides careful new translations of rare material and is the most comprehensive study in any language on this subject

The Re-Enchantment of the West, Vol 2 Christopher Partridge, 2006-04-20 The Re Enchantment of the West challenges those theories that predict widespread secularization beyond traditional institutional religiosity. Spiritualities are emerging that are not only quite different from the those forms of religion that are in decline but are often defined over against them and articulated and passed on in ways quite different from those of traditional religion. In particular it is argued that such contemporary Western spirituality is fed by a constantly replenished reservoir of ideas, practices and methodologies which is here termed occulture. Moreover such occultural ideas both feed into and are resourced by popular culture. Indeed popular occulture is a key feature of the re-enchantment of the West. Demonstrating the significance and ubiquity of these ideas, this book examines for example healthcare and nursing, contemporary environmentalism, psychedelia and drug use, the Internet and cyberspirituality, belief in UFOs and extraterrestrial life, demonology and the contemporary fascination with the figure of Satan, the heavy metal subculture, popular apocalypticism and millennial violence. Mad Men And Medusas Juliet Mitchell, 2008-01-06. This worthy successor to Psychoanalysis and Feminism is both a defense of the long dismissed diagnosis of hysteria as a centerpiece of the human condition and a plea for a new understanding of the influence of sibling and peer relationships. Juliet Mitchell argues that because it our first social relationship the sibling relationship is crucial to development and that it is a critical failure of psychoanalysis and other psychological theories of development to obscure and ignore the importance of siblings and peers. In Mad Men and Medusas Mitchell traces the history of hysteria from the Greek wandering womb to modern day psychiatric diagnoses, arguing that we need to reclaim hysteria to understand how distress and trauma express themselves in different societies and different times. Using fascinating examples from anthropology, Freud's case studies, literature and her own clinical practice, Mitchell convincingly demonstrates that while hysteria may have disappeared as a disease, it is still a critical factor in understanding psychological development through the life cycle.

Worlds of Power Stephen Ellis, Gerrie ter Haar, 2004. With Christian revivals including Evangelicals in the White House, Islamic radicalism and the revitalisation of traditional religions, it is clear that the world is not heading towards a community of secular states. Nowhere are religious thought and political practice more closely intertwined than in Africa. African migrants in Europe and America who send home money to build churches and mosques, African politicians who consult diviners, guerrilla fighters who believe that amulets can protect them from bullets and ordinary people who seek ritual healing, all of these are applying religious ideas to everyday problems of existence at every level of society. Far from falling off the map of the world, Africa is today a leading centre of Christianity and a growing field of Islamic activism while African traditional religions are gaining converts in the West. One cannot understand the politics of the present without taking religious thought seriously. Stories about witches, miracles or people returning from the dead incite political action. In Africa, religious belief has a huge impact on politics, from the top of society to the bottom. Religious ideas show what people actually think about the world and how to deal with it. Ellis and Ter Haar maintain that the specific content of religious thought has to be mastered if we are to grasp the political significance of religion in Africa today, but their book also informs our understanding of the relationship between religion and political practice in general Lived Experiences of Ideologies in Contextual Islam Judy Wanjiru Wang'ombe, 2024-02-29 There is a tendency within the study of Islam to prioritize religious ideology over the lived experiences of ordinary Muslims While affirming the significance of such ideology Dr Judy Wanjiru Wang ombe suggests that it is equally important to understand how Islamic teachings are actually lived out within Muslim communities Utilizing a cognitive anthropological framework and drawing from qualitative field data this study examines the phenomenon of spirit possession as experienced by Borana Muslims in Marsabit County Kenya Dr Wang ombe analyzes the practices and beliefs of the Ayyaana possession cult in light of stipulations provided by official Islamic texts specifically the Qur'an and Hadith as taught by their Muslim teachers and explores the prominent gaps that often exist between tenet and practice An excellent resource for scholars and practitioners alike this study enhances anthropological understanding of contextual Islam as practiced in East Africa while offering insight into local perspectives on the spirit world Routledge Handbook of Islam in Africa Terje Østebø, 2021-12-20 Bringing together cutting edge research from a range of disciplines this handbook argues that despite often being overlooked or treated as marginal the study of Islam from an African context is integral to the broader Muslim world Challenging the portrayal of African Muslims as passive recipients of religious impetuses arriving from the outside this book shows how the continent has been a site for the development of rich Islamic scholarship and religious discourses Over the course of the book the contributors reflect on The history and infrastructure of Islam in Africa Politics and Islamic reform Gender youth and everyday life for African Muslims New technologies media and popular culture Written by leading scholars in the field the contributions examine the connections between Islam and broader sociopolitical developments across the continent demonstrating the important role of religion in the everyday lives of Africans This book is an important and timely contribution to a subject that is often diffusely studied and will be of interest to researchers across religious studies African studies politics and sociology
