D. Greene, 2015-10-14 Christology defines the very heart of the Christian faith Traditionally the study of the person and work of Christ has been understood largely as an exercise in biblical exegesis or historical and doctrinal analysis Rarely if ever has Christology focused on the changing cultural paradigms that have deeply influenced the development of human knowledge and self understanding This unique volume by Colin Greene reverses that trend and in line with developments in modern cultural theory explores the interlaces between successive cultural contexts and the story of Jesus to which the Scriptures bear witness Starting with an examination of the three main Christological trajectories that have dominated the history of Christology cosmological

Christology political Christology and anthropological Christology Greene proceeds to concentrate on the subtle and complex linkages between Christology and the sociopolitical paradigms that have bolstered the epistemological assumptions of modernity Greene's wide ranging study closes with a creative exploration into how Christology might once again provide us with a Christ centered vision of reality

Philosophy in Culture J. Tosam, Peter Takov, 2016-09-13 This book explores the symbiotic relationship between philosophy and culture Every philosophy emerges as a reaction to or as justification for a particular culture and it is for this reason that philosophy may differ from one culture to another It argues that philosophy is an essential part of every culture Philosophy is the means by which every culture provides itself with justification for its values beliefs and worldview and also serves as a catalyst for progress Philosophy critically questions and confronts established beliefs customs practices and institutions of a society As reflective critical thinking philosophy is linked to a way of life a form of enquiry intended to guide behaviour a form of thinking that sharpens and broadens our intellectual horizon scrutinizes our assumptions and clarifies the beliefs and values by which we live Philosophy helps to liberate the individual from the imprisonment of ignorance prejudice superstition narrow mindedness and the despotism of custom Culture constitutes the raw data the laboratory from which philosophers do their analytic experimentation Culture is considered as philosophy of the first order activity The book maintains that any genuine global philosophy must include philosophical traditions from all cultures and regions of the world as it is by seeking alternative philosophical answers to some of the thorniest problems facing humanity that we are most likely to find more lasting solutions to some global problems In this commitment to a universal humanity we cannot afford to depend on solutions from a single culture or from the most influential cultures

Higher Education Nigel Tubbs, 2006-01-26 At about the age of 13 I began to realise that my formal education was separating itself off from my philosophical education Of course at the time I did not know it in this way I experienced it as a split between what I was being taught and my experience of what I was being taught It was I now know the philosophical experience of formal schooling It was not until beginning the study of sociology at 16 that I came across the idea of dualisms pairs of opposites that always appeared together but were never reconciled In sociology it was the dualism of the individual and society The question most asked in our classes was always regarding which aspect of the dualism dominated the other The answer we always leaned towards was that both were mutually affected by the other The answer seemed to lie somewhere in the middle It was only at university first as an undergraduate and then as a postgraduate that I came across the idea of the dialectic Slowly I began to recognise that the dualisms which plagued social theory I and we self and other good and evil modernity and post modernity autonomy and heteronomy freedom and nature truth and relativism and so many more were not only dialectical in being thought about but also that the thought of them being dialectical had an even stranger quality It was the same experience as being at school
