Archaeology and Classical Studies Spiritual and Religious Tourism Ruth Dowson, Jabar Yaqub, Razaq Raj, 2019-08-12 This book reviews tourist motivations for making religious or spiritual journeys and the management aspects related to them. It explores sacred journeys across both traditional religions such as Christianity and Islam and newer forms of pilgrimage faith systems and quasi religious activities such as sport music and food. Demonstrating to the reader the intrinsic elements and events that play a crucial role within the destination management process, it provides a timely reassessment of the increasing interconnections between religion and spirituality as a motivation for travel. Providing researchers and students of tourism, religious studies, anthropology and related subjects with an important review of the topic, this book aims to bridge the ever widening gap between specialists within the religious tourism management and education sectors. Routledge
