Religious Encounters With Death:

Religious Encounters with death ,1973 Religious Encounters with Death American Academy of Religion,1977

Religious Encounters with Death American Academy of Religion,1977 Spiritual Encounters with Unusual Light Phenomena Mark Fox,2013-06-15 This book is a study of unusual light phenomena based on almost 400 unpublished accounts of modern day encounters with strange lights collected over a period of thirty years held at the University of Wales Lampeter It is an original and perennially topical book that goes beyond existing studies of unusual light phenomena such as lights encountered during angelic experiences near death experiences after death communications in a number of ways It shows for example that experiences of unusual spiritual religious and paranormal lights are cross cultural trans historical and are reported widely in the present day but not necessarily experienced when near to death It also demonstrates that these experiences share to a remarkable degree a common core showing by drawing on a large number of vivid unpublished and dramatic testimonies that unusual lights typically manifest at times of crisis and are overwhelmingly benign and loving producing turning points in the lives of experiencers and typically setting them in new spiritual and creative directions

Religious Experience and the End of Metaphysics Jeffrey Bloechl,2003 Does religious thinking stand in opposition to postmodernity Does the existence of God present the ultimate challenge to metaphysics Strands of continental thought especially those running from Kant Husserl and Heidegger focus on individual consciousness as the horizon for all meaning and provide modern philosophy of religion with much of its present ferment In Religious Experience and the End of Metaphysics 11 influential continental philosophers share the conviction that religious thinking cannot afford to disengage from the challenges of modern European philosophy Together they provide a rich and intriguing set of answers to questions surrounding the meaning of religious experience Topics include subjectivity selfhood and rationality language community and ethics the influence of Jewish and eastern religions on religious experience God as phenomenology and religion in the postmodern age These lucid and arresting essays bring together many of the leading voices in the contemporary continental debate on God and religion

African Traditional Religion Encounters Christianity John Chitakure,2017-11-07 Right from the beginning of humankind God has never deprived a people of his grace and revelation In fact God uses people s environment and culture to communicate his will There is no single religion that can claim to have the exclusive possession of God s revelation for God is too immense to be confined within one faith Hence it was erroneous blasphemous and misleading for some of the early Christian missionaries to Africa to claim that they had brought God to Africa a mentality that implied the non existence of God in Africa before their arrival Of course God was already in Africa but the missionaries either failed to discern his presence or just disregarded the traces of his existence This book explores the religious beliefs practices and values of the indigenous people of Africa at the time of the early missionaries arrival with particular reference to the Shona people of Zimbabwe It also evaluates the extent of the missionaries s successes and challenges in converting Africans to Christianity It finally surveys how African Christians have remained attached to the indigenous religious beliefs that used to provide answers to their existential questions Understanding Religious Experiences J. Harold Ellens, 2007-11-30 Today most people feel less interested in religion and more interested in spirituality If you ask what they mean they will tell you that organized religion tends to turn them off but nonetheless they feel a hunger in the heart that they cannot seem to fill They do not mean that they would rather have disorganized religion they mean that institutional religion does not seem to satisfy their spirits and feel there must be something more some better way of experiencing whatever that is for which they are hungry Much new experimentation is going on as a result Some of it is a search for the meaning to fill the soul and satisfy the spirit much of it is a search for meaning on the spiritual level itself Spirituality reaches always toward the question about the meaning of God the meaning of relationships with others the meaning of intimacy and the meaning of soul gratifying insights into truth Here Ellens carefully and sensitively explores the full range of our spiritual natures and the variety of spiritual experiences of which we are capable describing the way our souls and psyches work in our hunger and thirst for meaning He explains in an enlightening and unconventional way why and how every human desires to reflect upon learn and share a heartfelt experience of God and of others Readers will find in this book a description of the meaning of the biblical stories about spiritual experiences in addition to descriptions of the kinds of spiritual experiences that ordinary people are having how they are achieving them and the ways in which they are filling their lives with meaning that goes beyond the horizons of material life The author paints this picture in such a way as to let us in on what biblically based authentic spirituality and spiritual experience really is and why it may or may not necessarily have anything to do with traditional institutionalized religion He carefully and vividly explains the notion of spirituality as it is illustrated in the Bible and discusses spiritual experiences such as prayer epiphany visions and other experiences He considers whether spirituality is mainly a connection with God with others or with both Readers hoping to get a better sense of what it means to be spiritual will have many of their questions answered in these pages Religious Encounter and the Making of the Yoruba John David Yeadon

Peel, J. D. Y. Peel, 2003-02-21 Peel is by training an anthropologist but one possessed of an acute historical sensibility Indeed this magnificent book achieves a degree of analytical verve rare in either discipline History Today This is scholarship of the highest quality Peel lifts the Yoruba past to a dimension of comparative seriousness that no one else has managed The book teems with ideas about big and compelling matters of very wide interest T C McCaskie In this magisterial book J D Y Peel contends that it is through their encounter with Christian missions in the mid 19th century that the Yoruba came to know themselves as a distinctive people Peel's detailed study of the encounter is based on the rich archives of the Anglican Church Missionary Society which contain the journals written by the African agents of mission who as the first generation of literate Yoruba played a key role in shaping modern Yoruba consciousness This distinguished book pays special attention to the experiences of ordinary men and women and shows how the process of Christian conversion transformed Christianity into something more deeply Yoruba The Confusion of Worlds Heiner Schwenke, 2019-01-31 The idea of the resurrection of the physical body and the eternal continuation of life with this body in a future paradisiacal kingdom of God on earth is one of the most enigmatic of religious ideas It fully contradicts our knowledge of the transitoriness of all things in this universe According to the author the origin for this idea lies in certain forms of otherworld experiences as for example reported by people who had near death experiences encounters with the dead in brilliantly beautiful bodies and the experience of paradisiacal seemingly earthly landscapes He observes that cultures with a pre modern cosmology sometimes projected such otherworld experiences onto this world to distant and unknown locations on earth These experiences were the blueprint for an expectation of paradisiacal conditions on earth The author establishes parallels between the reports of otherworld experiences and the eschatological ideas of Zoroastrianism Judaism and Christianity He shows that otherworld experiences can indeed foster the expectation of paradisiacal conditions on earth by referring to the Ghost Dance movement of the Lakota people in 1890 He presumes that the confusion of worlds proved fatal not only for the Lakota people but also for Jesus of Nazareth The Religious Experience and Prophecies of H. Hutchinson ... Written by Himself Henry HUTCHINSON (of Heighington, Durham.), 1854 Acute Religious Experiences Richard Saville-Smith, 2023-02-09 This book engages the problem of how in the 21st century we are to speak about experiences of the extraordinary anomalous extreme which occur on a transhistorical and transcultural basis Critical re readings of seminal texts show how 20th century theoreticians in the humanities sought to erase madness from their irrational subjects This propensity to sanitize madness in the study of religions was mirrored by the instinct of psychiatrists to degrade religious experiences by reducing mad consciousness to psychosis or dissociation Richard Saville Smith introduces explanatory pluralism as a way of recognizing these disciplinary biases and mad studies as a way of negotiating this understanding The disproportionate significance of madness in shaping the fabric of the human story can then be recovered from both erasure and dismissal to be given the recognition previously denied as acute religious experiences Acute Religious Experiences divides into three sections beginning with re readings of William James's pathological programme Rudolf Otto's numinous T K Oesterreich's possession Mircea Eliade's shamanism Walter Stace's mysticism Walter Pahnke's psychedelic experience and Abraham Maslow's peak experiences These ideas are shown to constitute the beginnings of a fractured discourse on the irrational In part two contemporary psychiatry's Diagnostic and Statistical Manual DSM and Foucault's History of Madness are re read to reposition madness as not necessarily pathological This opens the way for the identification of acute religious experiences as a new holistic and post colonial approach through which religious data can be organized and addressed on a comparative basis In part three The Gospel of Mark is re read as a case study to demonstrate the novel insights which flow from the identification of acute religious experiences Richard Saville Smith draws on his own experiences of madness and his PhD from the School of Divinity at The University of Edinburgh to elucidate his research Transformative Religious Experience Joshua

Iyadurai,2015-04-30 What makes a priest of one religion become a preacher of another religion How could a person embrace a religion suddenly that he or she had up to then opposed Why would young women risk their reputation and endanger their lives for the sake of newfound faith How could an alcoholic detest a sip of wine all of a sudden What drives an atheist to become an ardent worshiper of God How could an intelligent person relate to God as to an adult human being Transformative Religious Experience answers these questions with fascinating narratives of conversion These narratives together show how the transforming effects of conversion permeate the daily lives of converts in a multireligious context Joshua Iyadurai analyzes psychologically the mystical turning point in the conversion process and finds that the divine human encounter entails a cognitive restructuring a new set of beliefs values and desires replaces previously held religious beliefs values and desires By drawing insights from the fields of psychology sociology anthropology and theology Iyadurai develops an interdisciplinary step model from a phenomenological perspective to explain the conversion process that incorporates the religious practices and social psychological factors while giving a central place to religious experience Readings in
