Encyclopedia of Religion and Nature Bron Taylor, Jeffrey Kaplan, 2005-01-01 No Marketing Blurb Ritual and Religion in the Making of Humanity Roy A. Rappaport, 1999-03-25 Roy Rappaport argues that religion is central to the continuing evolution of life although it has been displaced from its original position of intellectual authority by the rise of modern science His book which could be construed as in some degree religious as well as about religion insists that religion can and must be reconciled with science Combining adaptive and cognitive approaches to the study of humankind he mounts a comprehensive analysis of religion's evolutionary significance seeing it as co extensive with the invention of language and hence of culture as we know it At the same time he assembles the fullest study yet of religion's main component ritual which constructs the conceptions which we take to be religious and has been central in the making of humanity's adaptation The text amounts to a manual for effective ritual illustrated by examples drawn from anthropology history philosophy comparative religion and elsewhere Sustainability and Health Valerie A. The Faith Louis A. Marini, 2022-04-25 Faith is a word frequently used these days as we continue to struggle through a pandemic that took the lives of over eight hundred thousand Americans and rising Amid unsolved questions posed to the world of medicine in the throes of political and social unrest the darkness of this nightmare has left many with a growing skepticism in the leadership of many traditional institutions of Church and State Why are people so concerned over the existential issues of life and faith during these unprecedented times where the world seems to have gone topsy turvy Louis Marini suggests that faith has always been a multidimensional reality inherent in people s lives People have always aspired to faith to unite a nation in times of distress and social unrest The human act of believing is the first step to walking in faith Believing is always believing in another human being Faith always necessitates and is sustained only in relationships whether faith is solely based upon human interaction or seeking communion with the Divine These reflections open the possibility for discussions that faith is not just a human phenomenon but a natural gift that may transition into a relationship with the Divine Faith which is fundamentally a human reality can become a divine mystery This realization hopefully can console and heal us from the scars left from the angst of these uncertain times
