Life: Existential Questions as a Resource for Education Jari Ristiniemi, Geir Skeie, Karin Sporre, 2018 There is an increasing recognition today that young people need to have knowledge about religions and world views in order to live and work in diverse societies What kind of maps are they provided with through religious values and ethics education Does education address the challenging existential questions that children and adolescents ask about life and the world This volume addresses different aspects of how existential questions have been dealt with in educational research It especially draws attention to the Swedish research tradition of focusing on life questions and the interpretation of life in education but with contemporary international research added It also addresses issues of ethics education and discusses possible options for the future of existential questions as a resource for education Morality Policies in Europe Christoph Knill, 2017-07-05 The regulation of issues like abortion euthanasia gun control same sex unions pornography prostitution drugs or gambling is commonly referred to a special class of so called morality policies The distinctive feature of these policies is that politics are shaped by conflicts over first principle When does life end When does it begin Is gambling drug consumption or prostitution inherently malignant The regulation of these value conflicts entails decisions about right or wrong and hence the validation of a particular set of basic values Yet there is still a remarkable lack of scholarly attention on morality policies in particular with regard to general implications for the study of public policy To stimulate further research in this area this book focuses on different concepts and theories of morality policy change in European countries It is based on a broad and comparative empirical perspective on different morality issues including for instance the regulation of prostitution abortion euthanasia gambling drugs as well as gun controls This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of European Public Policy
