Remaking the Middle East: The Long Arab 19th Century

The Current events stirring the Middle East can be discerned most easily as a matter of politics, economic, or culture, but steeped in complexity they are much more. In order to explain the rise of ISIL (Islamic State in Iraq and the Levant), the Syrian refugee question, the Palestinian Uprising, and the failure of the Arab Uprisings, this lecture reconstructs the regional history. It traces the roots of these events to the early 19th century (with emphasis on specific significant historical moments throughout since 1871 e.g. 19-48 Palestinian Nakba, the late 1970s expansion of neoliberalism).

It argues that the existing accounts of the regional historical accounts do not explain the political present or the unfolding geopolitical regional order. As such, and in order to explain the current geopolitical conditions, identify the root causes of the current events and their possible outcomes, a reconstruction of the regional history is essential.

The lecture will address the following interrelated topics:
The Rise of ISIL: Why ISIL?
The Syrian Refugee Question
The Palestinian Question and Colonial Zionism
