Cultures in Movement Martine Raibaud, Ionut Untea, Micéala Symington, 2015-02-05 The contributors to this volume encourage a re thinking of the very notion of culture by examining the experiences situations and the representations of those who chose or were forced to change cultures from the nineteenth century to the present day Beyond a simple study of migration forced or otherwise this collective work also re examines the model of integration As recent entrants into new social settings may be perceived as affecting the previously accepted social equilibrium mechanisms encouraging or inhibiting population flows are sometimes put in place From this perspective integration may become less a matter of internal choice than an external obligation imposed by the dominant political power in which case integration may only be a euphemism for cultural uniformity The strategies of cultural survival developed as a reaction to such a rising tide of cultural uniformity can be seen as necessary points of departure for an ever growing shared multiculturalism A long term voluntary commitment to make cultural boundaries more flexible and allow a more engaged individual participation in the process of defining the self and finding its place within a culture in movement may represent a key element for cultural cohesion in a globalized world

Follow the Light Julie Garro, 2016-01-08 We know how the story begins Now take a fresh look at Gods first recorded words And God said Let there be light and there was light Genesis 1:3 In John 8:12 Jesus said I am the light of the world This light goes on forever just as the love of God never ends Follow the Light links the first words God spoke in the Bible to the experiences of Gods people and the teachings of Jesus Christ Delve into an exploration of the Scriptures considering all the ways that light is a metaphor for God His Kingdom and His infinite love Created for individuals and small groups Follow the Light examines Gods presence in various forms of light and uses numerous scriptural references to show us that the presence of our Heavenly Father is all around us This eight week study is divided into personal daily assignments along with suggested prayer topics to encourage regular conversations with our Heavenly Father The final chapter is designed as a self reflection tool and offers suggestions to develop a rich and fulfilling prayer life As you complete this Bible study and contemplate on the glory of Gods Word and the vastness of His creation you will begin to feel our Heavenly Fathers constant presence and visibility in your life and there was beautiful life giving and loving light
