St. Louis Cardinals Fans' Bucket List Dan O'Neill, Adam Wainwright, 2016-05-15 Every St. Louis Cardinals fan has a bucket list of activities to take part in at some point in their lives. But even the most die-hard fans haven't done everything there is to experience in and around St. Louis. From visiting Ballpark Village to learning how to do an Ozzie Smith backflip, author Dan O'Neill provides ideas, recommendations, and insider tips for must-see places and can't miss activities near Busch Stadium. But not every experience requires a trip to St. Louis; long-distance Cardinals fans can cross some items off their list from the comfort of their own homes. Whether you're attending every home game or supporting the Cards from afar, there's something for every fan to do in The St. Louis Cardinals Fans Bucket List.

Fathers and Sons in Baseball Broadcasting Tony Silvia, 2009-07-15 In this work, first-hand accounts and original interviews illuminate how the father-son relationship thrives because of baseball and sometimes in spite of it. Each of these men bears a legendary name in baseball broadcasting: Caray, Brennaman, Buck, and Kalas, and some can count four generations of men whose voices defined a team. All of the sons relate how their fathers' names opened doors for them but concurrently raised expectations of how they should perform, and all relate how they learned from their fathers and grandfathers' triumphs and mistakes. Includes a foreword by Chip Caray, speeches by Joe Buck about his father Jack, and articles by Skip Caray, Chip Caray, and Marty Brennaman.

Stowaway Jack and the Bottomless Pit Jack Buck, 2014-12-09 Jack Buck, a fifteen-year-old from Northwest Florida, is an average-looking guy with brown eyes, little bulb of a nose, strong eyebrows, his face topped with wavy dark brown hair, worn kind of long. His life is anything but average. A year ago, his father disappeared, and now his mother has died, leaving Jack and his sister Annie as orphans. Following clues left in a series of cryptic letters, Jack realizes he must find the one person who might still want him. He is the only one who believes his father isn't lost to this world after disappearing in the West Pacific while on expedition to prove the widely derided theory in ancient astronauts: Believed to have colonized earth at the dawn of history, these aliens left their mark in the form of monuments and edifices; the pyramids of Egypt only being the best known created with powers not yet discovered by man. Early humans memorialized these visits in myriad sculptures and edifices unearthed by archaeologists. Jack's father's final communication from a Pacific island hinted he'd found proof these visitations actually occurred. Armed only with the belief in his heart that his dad is still alive, Jack retraces his father's path from Florida to the far-flung Pacific with only scant hints as to his whereabouts. Jack begins his journey as a stowaway on the Lady Jane, heading out of New Orleans for Jamaica. Will faith and determination be enough to save Jack from the same fate his father?
