Wiley, 2005-03 Reminders for the Electrician Tom Henry, 1993-10-01 Kenneth Strickfaden, Dr. Frankenstein's Electrician Harry Goldman, 2005-11-25 Kenneth Strickfaden innovative genius of illusionary special effects from silent films to the age of television set the standard for Hollywood's mad scientists Strickfaden created the science fiction apparatus in more than 100 motion picture films and television programs from 1931's Frankenstein to the Wizard of Oz and The Mask of Fu Manchu to television's The Munsters The skilled technician known around Hollywood's back lots as Mr Electric once doubled for Boris Karloff in a dangerous scene and was nearly electrocuted From his birth in 1896 to his death in 1984 Strickfaden's life was filled with adventure He spent his early years working the amusement parks on both coasts served overseas as a Marine during World War I took a 1919 cross country trip in a dilapidated Model T and favored risky pursuits like automobile and speedboat racing He worked as an aeronautical mechanic constructing airplanes for an historic around the world flight A science teacher at heart he gave 1 500 traveling science demonstration lectures across the U S and Canada Besides covering Strickfaden's entire personal and professional life this book discusses how later films show his influence It reveals the fate of his collection of equipment and is richly illustrated with numerous rare and previously unpublished photographs Appendices provide a selection of notes doodles and scribbles from Strickfaden's notebooks informal sketches correspondence documents a chronology of his film and television contributions a bibliography a film index and a complete subject index Exploring the Early Digital Thomas Haigh, 2019-04-30 Changes in the present challenge us to reinterpret the past but historians have not yet come to grips with the convergence of computing media and communications technology Today these things are inextricably intertwined in technologies such as the smartphone and internet in convergent industries and in social practices Yet they remain three distinct historical subfields tilted by different groups of scholars using different tools We often call this conglomeration the digital recognizing its deep connection to the technology of digital computing Unfortunately interdisciplinary studies of digital practices digital methods or digital humanities have rarely been informed by deep engagement with the history of computing Contributors to this volume have come together to reexamine an apparently familiar era in the history of computing through new lenses exploring early digital computing and engineering practice as digital phenomena rather than as engines of mathematics and logic Most focus on the period 1945 to 1960 the era in which the first electronic digital computers were created and the computer industry began to develop Because digitality is first and foremost a way of reading objects and encoding information within them we are foregrounding topics that have until now been viewed as peripheral in the history of computing betting odds calculators card file systems program and data storage programmable calculators and digital circuit design practices Reconceptualizing the history of computing as study of the early digital decenters the stored program computer repositioning it as one of many digital technologies

Salvation of the Soul Mark W. Secrest, 2013-03-12 Do you hear God effectively Do you really understand God's will for your life Are you seeking his kingdom or your own The world is quickly changing Mankind is facing challenges that are overwhelming It is time for the body of Christ to rise to the occasion to show the world that God has answers It is time to give God the ability to guide your life so it isn't ruled by circumstances and fear Salvation of the Soul is a challenge to believers to evaluate the way we perceive ourselves and our circumstances Are we seeing from God's perspective or our own It is God's insight to changing our thought patterns and unhealthy perceptions to living a life of goals obtained directly from our creator rather than our own selfish desires Supporting every point with scripture Mark Secrest provides clear direction to living out your Salvation of the Soul Learn a greater insight to how natural circumstances are working in your life how the human was patterned after his creator and what he was created for Develop a divine path in your life rather than allowing circumstances and human desire to rule you

Wailoo, Karen M. O'Neill, Jeffrey Dowd, Roland Anglin, 2010-06-23 Katrina's Imprint highlights the power of this sentinel American event and its continuing reverberations in contemporary politics culture and public policy Published on the fifth anniversary of Hurricane Katrina the multidisciplinary volume reflects on how history location access to transportation health care and social position feed resilience recovery and prospects for the future of New Orleans and the Gulf region Essays examine the intersecting vulnerabilities that gave rise to the disaster explore the cultural and psychic legacies of the storm reveal how the process of rebuilding and starting over replicates past vulnerabilities and analyze Katrina's imprint alongside American's myths of self sufficiency A case study of new weaknesses that have emerged in our era this book offers an argument for why we cannot wait for the next disaster before we apply the lessons that should be learned from Katrina

Fundamental Accounting David Flynn, Carolina Koornhof, 2005 The book has been specifically designed to include all topics covered in first courses in accounting in higher education In addition it caters for the curriculum of professional bodies which examine students for entry into business and accounting careers

Global Muckraking Anya Schiffrin, 2014 Crusading journalists from Sinclair Lewis to Bob Woodward and Carl Bernstein have played a central role in American politics checking abuses of power revealing corporate misdeeds and exposing government corruption Muckraking journalism is part and parcel of American democracy But how many people know about the role that muckraking has played around the world This groundbreaking new book presents the most important examples of world changing journalism spanning one hundred years and every continent Carefully curated by prominent international journalists working in Asia Africa Latin America Europe and the Middle East Global Muckraking includes Ken Saro Wiwa's defense of the Ogoni people in the Niger Horacio Verbitsky's uncovering of the gruesome disappearance of political detainees in Argentina Gareth Jones's coverage of the Ukraine famine of 1932-33 missionary newspapers coverage of Chinese foot binding in the nineteenth century Dwarkanath Ganguli's expos of the British coolie trade in nineteenth century Assam India and many others Edited by the noted author and journalist Anya Schiffrin Global Muckraking is a sweeping introduction to international journalism that has galvanized the world's attention In an era when human rights are in the spotlight and the fate of newspapers hangs in the balance here is both a riveting read and a sweeping argument for why the world needs long form investigative reporting

Morality, Competition, and the Firm Joseph Heath, 2014 In four new and nine previously published essays Joseph Heath provides a compelling new framework for thinking about the moral obligations of economic actors The market failures approach to business ethics that he develops provides the basis for a unified theory of business ethics corporate law economic regulation and the welfare state

Captive Images Katherine Biber, 2007-05-07 Captive Images examines the law's treatment of photographic evidence and uses it to investigate the relationship between law image and fantasy Based around the scholarly examination of a bank robbery in which a surveillance camera captures the robbery in progress Katherine Biber draws upon critical writing from psychoanalysis postcolonialism art law literature and feminism to read this crime its texts and its images The result is an interdisciplinary study of crime that unfolds a compelling narrative about race relations national identity and fear This book is an essential read for all levels of law students studying or interested in law criminology and cultural studies It's Not Just Who You Know Tommy Spaulding, 2010-08-10 In It's Not Just Who You Know Tommy Spaulding the former CEO of Up With People has written the new How to Win Friends and Influence People for the twenty first century Success in business and in life is all about relationships In this powerful guide to reaching out to others Spaulding takes Dale Carnegie's classic philosophy to the next level how to create lasting relationships that go well beyond mere superficial contacts and second floor relationships Tommy Spaulding learned at a very young age that he was not destined to be an academic star He may have gotten a 4.0 but only if he added his high school and college GPAs together The reason he found academics so challenging he discovered later is that Tommy is dyslexic But his dyslexia didn't hold him back in fact it helped him to develop the talents he did have For Tommy is a natural leader he realized early on that he had a unique ability to connect with others whatever their age or background As a teenager he was given a copy of How to Win Friends and Influence People by his father and it quickly became his bible He became a national finalist for the DECA Entrepreneurial Business competition in high school and ran successfully for senior class president He went on to become the CEO of Up With People one of the largest nonprofit international leadership organizations in the world At every step Tommy learned that the secret to getting ahead was reaching out for the support and insight and influence of others None of us achieve great success alone We need the help of other people In this candid revealing book Tommy expands upon the principles that Dale Carnegie outlined 75 years ago and shows us how to take them one step further to accomplish the impossible in our lives and careers To invite others to be genuine partners in our lives and success Tommy explains you have to first be interested in other people It's not just who you know or what they can do for you but what you can do for them Motives matter Establishing a deeper connection is about authenticity not manipulation Reciprocity not selfishness Every relationship is a two way street we never know when a chance encounter can change the direction of our life In the bestselling tradition of Dale Carnegie's classic It's Not Just Who You Know shows how each and every one of us can use the power of netgiving of helping others to expand our world and achieve our goals and make a difference in our job our career and our community The Electrical Journal, 1882 Islam and the Politics of Culture in Europe Frank Peter, Sarah Dornhof, Elena Arigita, 2014-03-15 Culture is a constant reference in debates surrounding Islam in Europe Yet the notion of culture is commonly restricted to conceptual frames of multiculturalism where it relates to group identities collective ways of life and recognition This volume extends such analysis of culture by approaching it as semiotic practice which conjoins the making of subjects with the configuration of the social Examining fields such as memory literature film and Islamic art the studies in this volume explore culture as another element in the assemblage of rationalities governing European Islam From this perspective the transformations of European identities can be understood as a matter of cultural practice and politics which extend the analytical frames of political philosophy historical legacies normative orders and social dynamics Fair Employment Practice Cases ,2006 With case table Race, Place, and Environmental Justice After Hurricane Katrina Robert D. Bullard,2018-04-17 On August 29 2005 Hurricane Katrina made landfall near New Orleans leaving death and destruction across the Louisiana Mississippi and Alabama Gulf Coast counties The lethargic and inept emergency response that followed exposed institutional flaws poor planning and false assumptions that are built into the emergency response and homeland security plans and programs Questions linger What went wrong Can it happen again Is our government equipped to plan for mitigate respond to and recover from natural and manmade disasters Can the public trust government response to be fair Does race matter Racial disparities exist in disaster response cleanup rebuilding reconstruction and recovery Race plays out in natural disaster survivors ability to rebuild replace infrastructure obtain loans and locate temporary and permanent housing Generally low income and people of color disaster victims spend more time in temporary housing shelters trailers mobile homes and hotels and are more vulnerable to permanent displacement Some temporary homes have not proved to be that temporary In exploring the geography of vulnerability this book asks why some communities get left behind economically spatially and physically before and after disasters strike The New Yorker ,2007 Acts of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Virginia Virginia,
