Giorgio Agamben Leland de la Durantaye, 2009-05-21 A critical introduction to the work of the Italian philosopher

Giorgio Agamben      After Representation? R. Clifton Spargo, Robert Ehrenreich, 2009-11-11 After Representation explores one of the major issues in Holocaust studies the intersection of memory and ethics in artistic expression particularly within literature As experts in the study of literature and culture the scholars in this collection examine the shifting cultural contexts for Holocaust representation and reveal how writers whether they write as witnesses to the Holocaust or at an imaginative distance from the Nazi genocide articulate the shadowy borderline between fact and fiction between event and expression and between the condition of life endured in atrocity and the hope of a meaningful existence What imaginative literature brings to the study of the Holocaust is an ability to test the limits of language and its conventions After Representation moves beyond the suspicion of representation and explores the changing meaning of the Holocaust for different generations audiences and contexts      Politics, Metaphysics, and Death Andrew Norris, 2005-07-11 A collection of essays by political theorists on Agamben's Homo Sacer      No One's Witness Syd Zolf, 2021-06-28 In No One's Witness Syd Zolf activates the last three lines of a poem by Jewish Nazi holocaust survivor Paul Celan No one bears witness for the witness to theorize the poetics and im possibility of witnessing Drawing on black studies continental philosophy queer theory experimental poetics and work by several writers and artists Zolf asks what it means to witness from the excessive incalculable position of No One In a fragmentary and recursive style that enacts the monstrous speech it pursues No One's Witness demonstrates the necessity of confronting the Nazi holocaust in relation to transatlantic slavery and its afterlives Thinking along with black feminist theory's notions of entangled swarm field plenum chorus No One's Witness interrogates the limits and thresholds of witnessing its dangerous perhaps No One operates outside the bounds of the sovereign individual hauntologically informed by the fleshly no thingness that has been historically ascribed to blackness and that blackness enacts within apposite to and beyond the No One No One bears witness to becomings beyond comprehension making and unmaking monstrous forms of entangled future anterior life      Confessions Thomas Docherty, 2012-08-01 This book explores what is at stake in the confessional culture Thomas Docherty examines confessional writings from Augustine to Derrida arguing that through all this work runs a philosophical substratum the conditions under which it is possible to assert a confessional mode that needs exploration and explication      The Post-traumatic Theatre of Grotowski and Kantor Magda Romanska, 2012 Despite its international influence Polish theatre remains a mystery to many Westerners This volume attempts to fill in current gaps in English language scholarship by offering a historical and critical analysis of two of the most influential works of Polish theatre Jerzy Grotowski's Akropolis and Tadeusz Kantor's Dead Class By examining each director's representation of Auschwitz this study provides a new understanding of how translating national trauma through the prism of performance can alter and deflect the meaning and reception of theatrical works both inside and outside of their cultural and historical contexts A World Otherwise Yuki Miyamoto,2021-02-17 In her book A World Otherwise Environmental Praxis in Minamata Yuki Miyamoto examines the struggles of those suffering from Minamata disease eponymous with the Japanese city in which a Chisso factory released methylmercury into the Shiranui Sea leading to widespread poisonings Miyamoto explores Minamata sufferers struggles examining their physical pains as well as the emotional plight of having lost their loved ones their livelihood and fellowship in communities to the illness Miyamoto s analysis focuses on the philosophies and actions of a group Hongan no kai comprised of Minamata disease sufferers and their supporters in 1994 Relying on the group s newsletter Tamashii utsure Transferring the spirit this monograph explores the ways in which Hongan no kai members have come to terms with their experiences as well as their visions of a world otherwise janaka shaba where ontology epistemology and worldviews are construed differently from those of this modern world Catastrophe and Redemption

Jessica Whyte,2013-12-01 Offers a striking new reading of Agamben s political thought and its implications for political action in the present Challenging the prevalent account of Agamben as a pessimistic thinker Catastrophe and Redemption proposes a reading of his political thought in which the redemptive element of his work is not a curious aside but instead is fundamental to his project Jessica Whyte considers his critical account of contemporary politics his argument that Western politics has been biopolitics since its inception his critique of human rights his argument that the state of exception is now the norm and the paradigmatic significance he attributes to the concentration camp and shows that it is in the midst of these catastrophes of the present that Agamben sees the possibility of a form of profane redemption Whyte outlines the importance of potentiality in his attempt to formulate a new politics examines his relation to Jewish and Christian strands of messianism and interrogates the new forms of praxis that he situates within contemporary commodity culture taking Agamben s thought as a call for the creation of new political forms Time, Language, and Visuality in Agamben's Philosophy J.

Doussan,2013-05-21 Giorgio Agamben a philosopher both celebrated and reviled is among the prominent voices in contemporary Italian thought today His work which touches upon fields as diverse as aesthetics and biopolitics is often understood within a framework of Aristotelian potentiality With this incisive critique Doussan identifies a different tendency in the philosopher s work an engagement with the problem of time that is inextricably bound up with language and visuality Founded in his early writings on metaphysics and continuing to his present occupation with inoperativity Time Language and Visuality in Agamben s Philosophy forges an original path through Agamben s extensive commentary on the linguistic and the visual to illuminate the recurrent temporal theme of capture and evasion the cat and mouse game that bears the foundational violence of not just representation but concept formation itself In the process Doussan both reveals its limit and establishes a ground for future engagements Primo Levi and the Identity of a Survivor Nancy Harrowitz,2017-01-06 Primo Levi 1919 1987 was an Italian chemist writer and Holocaust survivor who used a combination of testimony essays and creative writing to explore crucial themes related to the Shoah His voice is among the most important to emerge from this dark chapter in human history In Primo Levi and the Identity of a Survivor Nancy Harrowitz examines the complex role that Levi's Jewish identity played in his choices of how to portray his survival as well as in his exposition of topics such as bystander complicity Her analysis uncovers a survivor's shame that deeply influenced the personas he created to recount his experiences Exploring a range of Levi's works including Survival at Auschwitz and lesser known works of fiction and poetry she illustrates key issues within his development as a writer At the heart of Levi's discourse Harrowitz argues lies a complex interplay of narrative modes that reveals his brilliance as a theorist of testimony

State Violence and the Execution of Law Joseph Pugliese, 2013 State Violence and the Execution of Law stages a provocative analysis of how the biopolitical divide between human and animal has played a fundamental role in enabling state violence including torture secret imprisonment and killing at a distance via drones Analyzing the complex ways in which the United States government deploys law in order to consolidate and further imperial relations of power Pugliese tracks the networks that enable the diffusion and normalization of the state's monopoly of violence both in the US and in an international context He demonstrates how networks of state violence are embedded within key legal institutions military apparatuses civilian sites corporations carceral architectures and advanced technologies The author argues that the exercise of state violence as unleashed by the war on terror has enmeshed the subjects of the Global South within institutional and discursive structures that position them as non human animals that can be tortured killed and disappeared with impunity Drawing on poststructuralist critical race and whiteness and critical legal theories the book is transdisciplinary in its approach and value It will be invaluable to university students and scholars in Critical Legal and Socio Legal Studies Cultural Studies Race and Ethnicity Studies International Politics and Postcolonial Studies

Decolonizing Memory Jill Jarvis, 2021-05-10 The magnitude of the legal violence exercised by the French to colonize and occupy Algeria 1830 1962 is such that only aesthetic works have been able to register its enduring effects In Decolonizing Memory Jill Jarvis examines the power of literature to provide what demographic data historical facts and legal trials have not in terms of attesting to and accounting for this destruction Taking up the unfinished work of decolonization since 1962 Algerian writers have played a crucial role in forging historical memory and nurturing political resistance their work helps to make possible what state violence has rendered almost unthinkable Drawing together readings of multilingual texts by Yamina Mechakra Waciny Laredj Zahia Rahmani Fadhma A th Mansour Amrouche Assia Djebar and Samira Negrouche alongside theoretical juridical visual and activist texts from both Algeria's national liberation war 1954 1962 and war on civilians 1988 1999 this book challenges temporal and geographical frameworks that have implicitly organized studies of cultural memory around Euro American reference points Jarvis shows how this literature rewrites history disputes state authority to arbitrate justice and cultivates a multilingual archive for imagining decolonized futures

Design and the Question of History Tony Fry, Clive Dilnot, Susan Stewart, 2015-02-26

Design and the Question of History is not a work of Design History Rather it is a mixture of mediation advocacy and polemic that takes seriously the directive force of design as an historical actor in and upon the world Understanding design as a shaper of worlds within which the political ethical and historical character of human being is at stake this text demands radically transformed notions of both design and history Above all the authors posit history as the generational site of the future Blindness to history it is suggested blinds us both to possibility and to the foreclosure of possibilities enacted through our designing The text is not a resolved continuous work presented through one voice Rather the three authors cut across each other presenting readers with the task of disclosing to themselves the commonalities repetitions and differences within the deployed arguments issues approaches and styles from which the text is constituted This is a work of friendship of solidarity in difference an act of cultural politics It invites the reader to take a position it seeks engagement over agreement

Better Off Dead Deborah Christie, Sarah Juliet Lauro, 2011 What has the zombie metaphor meant in the past Why does it continue to be so prevalent in our culture This collection seeks to provide an archaeology of the zombie tracing its lineage from Haiti mapping its various cultural transformations and suggesting the post humanist direction in which the zombie is ultimately heading

Crime Scenery in Postwar Film and Photography Henrik Gustafsson, 2019-05-24 This book offers a rare and innovative consideration of an enduring tendency in postwar art to explore places devoid of human agents in the wake of violent encounters To see the scenery together with the crime elicits a double interrogation not merely of a physical site but also of its formation as an aesthetic artefact and ultimately of our own acts of looking and imagining Closely engaging with a vast array of works made by artists filmmakers and photographers each who has forged a distinct vantage point on the aftermath of crime and conflict the study selectively maps the afterlife of landscape in search of the political and ethical agency of the image By way of a thoroughly interdisciplinary approach Crime Scenery in Postwar Film and Photography brings landscape studies into close dialogue with contemporary theory by paying sustained attention to how the gesture of retracing past events facilitates new configurations of the present and future

Giorgio Agamben Tom Frost, 2013-11-20 This book collects new contributions from an international group of leading scholars including many who have worked closely with Agamben to consider the impact of Agamben's thought on research in the humanities and social sciences Giorgio Agamben Legal Political and Philosophical Perspectives addresses the potential of Agamben's thought by re focusing attention away from his critiques of Western politics and towards his scheme for a political future Part I of the book draws upon a wide range of issues such as legal oaths legal reasoning and Christian conceptions of love in order to examine the potential for Agamben's work to impact upon future legal scholarship Part II focuses on political perspectives that include references to Marx Rousseau and Agamben's conception of the messianic Theology biology and the thought of Gilles Deleuze Walter Benjamin and Antonin Artaud are all drawn upon in Part III to explore philosophical perspectives in Agamben's thought This book demonstrates the importance and originality of Giorgio Agamben who has articulated a vision of politics that must be recognised as an influential contribution to modern philosophical and political thinking It is a book that will be of considerable interest to many working across the humanities and social sciences Writing-between-Worlds Ottmar Ette, 2016-02-22 This book proposes that there is no better no more complex way to access a community a society an era and its cultures than through literature For millennia literature from a wide variety of geocultural areas has gathered knowledge about life about survival and about living together without either falling into discursive or disciplinary specializations or functioning as a regulatory mechanism for cultural knowledge Literature is able to offer its readers knowledge through direct participation in the form of step by step intellectual and affective experiences Through this ability it can reach and affect audiences across great spatial and temporal distances Literature what different times and cultures have been able to understand as such in a broad sense has always been characterized by its transareal and transcultural origins and effects It is the product of many logics and it teaches us to think polylogically rather than monologically Literature is an experiment in living and living in a state of experimentation About the author Ottmar Ette has been Chair of Romance Literature at the University of Potsdam Germany since 1995 He is Honorary Member of the Modern Language Association of America MLA elected in 2014 member of the Berlin Brandenburg Academy of Sciences and Humanities elected in 2013 and regular member of the Academia Europaea since 2010 Refugees Now Kelly Oliver, Lisa M. Madura, Sabeen Ahmed, 2019-04-03 This important new book examines the status of refugees from a philosophical perspective The contributors explore the conditions faced by refugees and clarify the conceptual practical and ethical issues confronting the contemporary global community with respect to refugees The book takes up topics ranging from practical matters such as the social and political production of refugees refugee status and the tension between citizen rights and human rights and the handling of detention and deportation to more conceptual and theoretical concerns such as the ideology rhetoric and propaganda that sustain systems of exclusion and expulsion to the ethical dimensions that invoke hospitality and transnational responsibility Ideal for students and scholars in Political and Social Philosophy and Migration Studies more broadly the book provides a critical commentary on material responses to contemporary refugee crises as a means of opening pathways to more pointed assessments of both the political and ideological underpinnings of statelessness What Remains Dora Osborne, 2020 A study of the archival turn in contemporary German memory culture drawing on recent memorials documentaries and prose narratives that engage with the material legacy of National Socialism and the Holocaust
