The Cambridge History of Black and Asian British Writing Susheila Nasta,Mark U. Stein,2020-01-16 The Cambridge History of Black and Asian British Writing provides a comprehensive historical overview of the diverse literary traditions impacting on this field s evolution from the eighteenth century to the present Drawing on the expertise of over forty international experts this book gathers innovative scholarship to look forward to new readings and perspectives while also focusing on undervalued writers texts and research areas Creating new pathways to engage with the naming of a field that has often been contested readings of literary texts are interwoven throughout with key political social and material contexts In making visible the diverse influences constituting past and contemporary British literary culture this Cambridge History makes a unique contribution to British Commonwealth postcolonial transnational diasporic and global literary studies serving both as one of the first major reference works to cover four centuries of black and Asian British literary history and as a compass for future scholarship Post-Colonial Approaches in Kazakhstan and Beyond Dina Sharipova,Alima

Bissenova,Aziz Burkhanov,2024-02-28 This book explores the postcolonial discourse and decolonization processes in modern Kazakhstan and beyond It pays particular attention to such areas as national and religious identity language literature and historical narratives Despite the fact that the post colonial theory initially emerged in other regions of the world it has increasingly been applied in the scholarship on Central Asia Exploring recent debates on post coloniality in Kazakhstan this book is an attempt to bring together two bodies of scholarly literature scholarship on culture and society in post Soviet Central Asia and research on post colonial theory This volume will be of interest to scholars of Eurasian studies as well as researchers and students of post colonialism in various contexts beyond Eurasia Black Popular Music in Britain Since

1945 Jon Stratton,Nabeel Zuberi,2016-04-15 Black Popular Music in Britain Since 1945 provides the first broad scholarly discussion of this music since 1990 The book critically examines key moments in the history of black British popular music from 1940s jazz to 1970s soul and reggae 1990s Jungle and the sounds of Dubstep and Grime that have echoed through the 2000s While the book offers a history it also discusses the ways black musics in Britain have intersected with the politics of race and class multiculturalism gender and sexuality and debates about media and technology Contributors examine the impact of the local the ways that black music in Birmingham Bristol Liverpool Manchester and London evolved differently and how black popular music in Britain has always developed in complex interaction with the dominant British popular music tradition This tradition has its own histories located in folk music music hall and a constant engagement since the nineteenth century with American popular music itself a dynamic mixing of African American Latin American and other musics The ideas that run through various chapters form connecting narratives that challenge dominant understandings of black popular music in Britain and will be essential reading for those interested in Popular Music Studies Black British Studies and Cultural Studies British TV Comedies Juergen Kamm,Birgit Neumann,2016-01-26 This collection offers an overview of British

TV comedies ranging from the beginnings of sitcoms in the 1950s to the current boom of Britcoms It provides in depth analyses of major comedies systematically addressing their generic properties filmic history humour politics and cultural impact Critical Cultural Policy Studies Justin Lewis,Toby Miller,2008-04-15 Critical Cultural Policy Studies A Reader brings together classic statements and contemporary views that illustrate how everyday culture is as much a product of policy and economic determinants as it is of creative and consumer impulses The Television Studies Reader Robert Clyde

Allen, Annette Hill, 2004 A discussion of a truly international range of television programs this title covers alternative modes of television such as digital and satellite

European Film and Media Culture Lennard Højbjerg, Henrik Søndergaard, 2006 Brings into focus central aspects of developments in European film and media culture Through studies of both film and television the question of national identity European integration and globalisation is analysed in a both Eastern and Western European context This volume also offers several case studies

Remote Control June Givanni, British Film Institute. African & Caribbean Unit, 1995 The Black and White In Colour conference held in November 1992 continued where Isaac Julien's documentary programmes of the same name left off The conference sub titled Prospects of Black Intervention in British TV and Film posed the question so where do we go from here It brought together major television controllers black programme and film makers and key decision makers from the predominant film and television institutions Remote Control presents a summary of the topics which were debated on that day from a range of contributors and an overview of some of the main shifts that have taken place in this sector over the last few years

Historical Dictionary of British Cinema Alan Burton, Steve Chibnall, 2013-07-11 British cinema has been around from the very birth of motion pictures from black and white to color from talkies to sound and now 3D it has been making a major contribution to world cinema Many of its actors and directors have stayed at home but others ventured abroad like Charlie Chaplin and Alfred Hitchcock Today it is still going strong the only real competition to Hollywood turning out films which appeal not only to Brits just think of Bridget Jones while busily adding to franchises like James Bond and Harry Potter So this Historical Dictionary of British Cinema has a lot of ground to cover This it does with over 300 dictionary entries informing us about significant actors producers and directors outstanding films and serials organizations and studios different films genres from comedy to horror and memorable films among other things Two appendixes provide lists of award winners Meanwhile the chronology covers over a century of history These parts provide the details countless details while the introduction offers the big story And the extensive bibliography points toward other sources of information

Diaspora and Hybridity Virinder Kalra, Raminder Kaur, John Hutnyk, 2005-09-20 Diaspora Hybridity deals with those theoretical issues which concern social theory and social change in the new millennium The volume provides a refreshing critical and illuminating analysis of concepts of diaspora and hybridity and their impact on multi ethnic and multi cultural societies Dr Rohit Barot Department of Archaeology and Anthropology University of Bristol What do we mean by diaspora and hybridity Why are they pivotal concepts in contemporary debates on race culture and society This book is an exhaustive politically inflected assessment of the key debates on diaspora and hybridity It relates the topics to contemporary social struggles and cultural contexts providing the reader with a framework to evaluate and displace the key ideological arguments theories and narratives deployed in culturalist academic circles today The authors demonstrate how diaspora and hybridity serve as problematic tools cutting across traditional boundaries of nations and groups where trans national spaces for a range of contested cultural political and economic outcomes might arise Wide ranging richly illustrated and challenging it will be of interest to students of cultural studies sociology ethnicity and nationalism

Bidding for the Mainstream? Barbara Korte, Claudia Sternberg, 2021-07-26 This book looks at a sector of black and Asian British film and television as it presented itself in the 1990s and early 2000s For this period a mainstreaming of black and Asian British film has been observed in criticism and theory and articulated by an increasing number of practitioners themselves referring to changing modes of production distribution and reception and implying a more popular and commercial orientation of certain media products This idea is a leitmotif for the authors readings of recent films and examples of television drama including such diverse products as Young Soul Rebels and Babymother East Is East and Bend It Like Beckham The Buddha of Suburbia and White Teeth These analyses are supplemented with a look at earlier landmark productions like Pressure as well as relevant social institutional and aesthetic frameworks The book closes with a selection of statements by black and Asian media practitioners who operate from within Britain's cultural industries Mike Phillips Horace Ov Julian Henriques Parminder Vir and Gurinder Chadha

Representing Black Britain Sarita Malik, 2001-10-25 This is one of the most important books on race representation and politics to come along in a decade Sarita Malik's book is a brilliant contribution to the literature on race cultural studies and public pedagogy Henry Giroux Penn State University Representing Black Britain offers a critical history of Black and Asian representation on British television from the earliest days of broadcasting to the present day Working through programmes as wide ranging as the early documentaries to ethnic sitcoms and youth television this book provides a detailed analysis of shifting institutional contexts images of race and ethnic minority cultural politics in modern Britain Representing Black Britain focuses on issues of representation ideology race and difference covers a spectrum of television genres including documentary news comedy light entertainment youth television drama film and sport examines the sociopolitical context of Black Britain and looks at questions of policy and the institutional context of British broadcasting
