Renaissance Solos 12 Plays:

Renaissance Solos Laurence Holder, 2003-02-01 From Charlie Parker to Max Roach to Valaida Snow to Monk to Contemporary MAN and Contemporary WOMAN to Zora Neale Hurston to Langston Hughes the plays tap into the heart of Laurence Holder and worldview past and present Renaissance Solos Laurence Holder, Richard Gaffield-Knight, 2002-01-01 Renaissance Solos Laurence Holder, 2001-10 I ll say amen to that Calvin Newman laughed with a wave of his hand If I could go to being a teenager again equipped with the knowledge I have now they d have to lock me up The boys had finished their round of golf and were discussing what it would be like to live their lives over This story concerns one person who had that fantasy fulfilled From the posh setting of the Country Club Calvin Newman found himself thrust into just such a situation Only then did he learn that fantasy and the real world were quite different The devastating experience of being plunged into the small mill town community of Midland where he knew nobody provided a situation his mind had trouble coping with Not only was he unwelcome but the reality of a past life he knew nothing about haunted him constantly The emotional and physical adjustments to find a new way in life became an agony that kept ripping him between his old life and his new He discovered that the knowledge from his old life was the curse that prevented him from enjoying the euphoria of being young and carefree Other people s emotions became an insurmountable object he d never considered when dreaming of doing his life over How he managed to overcome the despair of being an outcast to someone who was admired and respected is the struggle that finally made a new man out of him Notes of a Neurotic! Poet Tree: Essalogues, Plays & Poemedies! Summer Hill Seven, 2004-10-19 In Notes of a Neurotic Summer Hill Seven provides poetry essays and plays that are as bombastic as the writings of Amiri Baraka as piercing as Miguel Pinero and as poetic as Paul Laurence Dunbar often all in the same sentence In addition to the entertainment and intellectual value these Notes of a Neurotic are specifically designed to heal the emotions of the reader the speaker and the writer of these words Click Here for Book Trailer The Greenwood Encyclopedia of African American Literature: D-H Hans A. Ostrom, J. David Macey, 2005 Designed to meet the needs of high school students undergraduates and general readers this encyclopedia is the most comprehensive reference available on African American literature from its origins to the present Other works include many brief entries or offer extended biographical sketches of a limited selection of writers This encyclopedia surpasses existing references by offering full and current coverage of a vast range of authors and topics While most of the entries are on individual authors the encyclopedia gathers together information about the genres and geographical and cultural environments in which these writers have worked and the social political and aesthetic movements in which they have participated Thus the encyclopedia gives special attention to the historical and cultural forces that have shaped African American writing Publisher Mastering the Guitar 1A William Bay, Mike Christiansen, 2016-01-08 Mastering the Guitar is an innovative exciting way to learn the guitar Co authored by William Bay and Mike Christiansen this extremely comprehensive method applies the array of musical styles and techniques found in today's music. Written in notation and tablature, it covers a vast array of guitar solo and accompaniment styles. A special feature of this method is that it teaches both flatpicking and fingerstyle solo and accompaniment techniques. We feel that Mastering the Guitar is the most comprehensive approach to guitar technique repertoire and performance to be found anywhere. Volume 1A Presents the essential foundational studies for contemporary guitar performance. Immediately introduces the student to the concept of playing contemporary music through the creative use of tablature. Logically and methodically teaches note reading utilizing the notes in first position on each string in numerous pages of playing material over 155 solos and duets in the keys of C, A minor, G and E minor. Contains more than 140 scale and picking studies, chord etudes and accompaniment pieces teaching contemporary techniques such as the slur, hammer on, pull off, vibrato and slide. Includes in depth sections on back up guitar and rhythm. Incorporates guitar duet material.

Solo Wargaming David Heading, 2024-08-30 This practitioner's guide to solo wargaming offers comprehensive coverage of the subject showing how it can be a fascinating complement to social gaming or an entire hobby in its own right. This book integrates ideas from across the hobby to discuss various aspects of gaming alone across all manner of conflicts, whether land, sea or air, and in any historical period or imagined setting. Starting with the fundamental question of why people play solo wargames, David Heading lays out the various advantages and disadvantages. He also considers such questions as whether to play both sides or to command one army against an automatic opponent, giving various ideas on how to control or program the responses of the opposing force with dice, cards or by other means. There is advice on how to construct challenging and interesting scenarios for one-off engagements, whether these are skirmishes or major battles, historical events or more generic ones, and how to combine these tactical actions into wider campaigns involving grand strategy, logistics and other factors. Tips on sustaining interest through such activities as recording results, writing campaign diaries and online blogs will help you enrich your hobby. The author has been playing solo wargames for forty years and shares the secrets of happy solo gaming. Packed full of common sense advice and inspiration, it offers plenty of value to the beginner and the seasoned veteran alike.

The Oxford Handbook of Shakespeare and Early Modern Authorship, 2025-09-09 The Oxford Handbook of Shakespeare and Early Modern Authorship draws together leading and emerging scholars of Shakespeare and early modern literature to consider anew how authorship worked in the time in which Shakespeare wrote and to interrogate the construction of the Shakespeare as author figure. Composed of four main sections, it offers fresh analysis of the literary and cultural influences and forces that formed authors in the period: the mechanics of early modern authorship; the mediation of Shakespeare and others' works in performance, manuscript and print; and the critical and popular reimagining across times of Shakespeare as an author figure. Diving into modern debates about early modern authorship, authority and identity, politics, contributors supply rich new accounts of the wider scene of professional authorship in early modern England, of how Shakespeare's writings contributed to it, and of what made him distinctive within it Looking beyond Shakespeare the Handbook seeks to provide a vital testing ground for new research into early modern literature and culture more broadly

Black Lives Under Nazism Sarah Phillips Casteel, 2024-02-06 In a little known chapter of World War II Black people living in Nazi Germany and occupied Europe were subjected to ostracization forced sterilization and incarceration in internment and concentration camps In the absence of public commemoration African diaspora writers and artists have preserved the stories of these forgotten victims of the Third Reich Their works illuminate the relationship between creative expression and wartime survival and the role of art in the formation of collective memory This groundbreaking book explores a range of largely overlooked literary and artistic works that challenge the invisibility of Black wartime history Emphasizing Black agency Sarah Phillips Casteel examines both testimonial art by victims of the Nazi regime and creative works that imaginatively reconstruct the wartime period Among these are the internment art of Caribbean painter Josef Nassy the survivor memoir of Black German journalist Hans J Massaquoi the jazz fiction of African American novelist John A Williams and Black Canadian novelist Esi Edugyan and the photomontages of Scottish Ghanaian visual artist Maud Sulter Bridging Black and Jewish studies this book identifies the significance of African diaspora experiences and artistic expression for Holocaust history memory and representation
