Art and Love in Renaissance Italy Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Kimbell Art Museum, 2008 Many famous artworks of the Italian Renaissance were made to celebrate love marriage and family They were the pinnacles of a tradition dating from early in the era of commemorating betrothals marriages and the birth of children by commissioning extraordinary objects maiolica glassware jewels textiles paintings that were often also exchanged as gifts This volume is the first comprehensive survey of artworks arising from Renaissance rituals of love and marriage and makes a major contribution to our understanding of Renaissance art in its broader cultural context The impressive range of works gathered in these pages extends from birth trays painted in the early fifteenth century to large canvases on mythological themes that Titian painted in the mid 1500s Each work of art would have been recognized by contemporary viewers for its prescribed function within the private domestic domain BOOK JACKET Art in Renaissance Italy John T. The Civilization of the Renaissance in Italy Jacob Burckhardt, 2020-12-01 The Civilization of the Renaissance in Italy 1860 is a work of art history by Swiss historian Jacob Burckhardt Recognized today as the founder of modern art history and as one of the key thinkers of the nineteenth century Burckhardt changed not only the way we think about the Renaissance in relation to European and world history but the value placed on art as a tool for understanding historical developments The Civilization of the Renaissance in Italy begins with a section on the historical events which sparked the Renaissance focusing especially on the frequent military conflicts which marred the era as well as on the constant political upheavals undergone by such Italian regions and cities as Rome Venice and Florence Burckhardt then moves to a philosophical discussion of the development of individuality in Italian culture arguing that the political circumstances of those living in the Republics enabled such thinkers as Dante and Petrarch to create art that corresponded with that newfound sense of individuality The third section discusses one of the key elements of Renaissance culture the revival of interest in the cultural products of the ancient world especially Greece and Rome Part four focuses on the prominence of discovery in Renaissance culture for which Burckhardt looks to the colonial expedition of Columbus the growth of the natural sciences and the achievements of such poets and writers as Dante Petrarch and Boccaccio in discovering new ways to describe humanity and the human spirit In the fifth section the importance of societal customs and festivals is discussed and in the sixth and final part Burckhardt observes the profound shifts undergone by religion and morality in Italy at the time The Civilization of the Renaissance in Italy is a thorough dynamic work of art history that not only changed the study of history at universities around the world but elevated the status of art in understanding the process of cultural change With a beautifully designed cover and professionally typeset manuscript this edition of Jacob Burckhardt s The Civilization of the Renaissance in Italy is a classic of European art history reimagined for modern readers
