Ewing, 19?? Words I Love to Recite Charles Santiago, 2024-02-15 The experience of the afterlife is normally considered to take place after death Death is seen as a wall of partition between those living and those departed Dead and gone are words often used to describe the departed The writer of these poems was at his wife s bedside when she took her last breath Anyone observing the horror and desperation the author expressed at that moment would have concluded that he truly believed his wife was dead and gone In fact he did believe she was dead and gone A grief counselor suggested to the new widower that he keep a journal of his experience He started keeping a journal which from the start was a dialogue between him and his departed wife The prose dialogue soon became peppered with poems The widower began to notice that there were sometimes correlations between what was written in the poems and his daily experience The poems and his daily experience became for the new widower proof enough that the afterlife can be experienced this side of the grave Making Whoopee Evan Morris,2004-01-01 The creator of the popular Web site Word Detective com sheds new light on the origins etymologies and evolution of 150 common words and phrases used to define romance and love answering questions about such key words as flirtation tryst adultery hanky pankey puppy love flirt chaperone concupiscence and many more Words I Love, Volume 5 Charles Santiago,2025-05-01 The author of the poems in Words I Love Volume 5 An Earthly Heavenly Romance has discovered a truth that he can take comfort in for the rest of his days on Earth He has discovered that since his wife s death there is something more that he can cling to besides merely reminiscing about their lovely life together before her passing He has discovered that he is a temple in which his wife dwells for the rest of his earthly days His wife lets him know that far from being dead and gone she is today alive and here There is a blissful continuity experienced between them since that fateful day of her passing Remember this dear Earthly beau You re a temple there below In all those Earthly things you do I m residing dear in you 3 A Temple verses 21 24
