Renegade Monk:

Renegade Monk Soho Machida,2023-12-22 The Pure Land sect of Japanese Buddhism is one of the strongest Buddhist sects in Japan with three and a half million followers In this book Soho Machida provides the first detailed objective account in English of the life and thought of its founder Honenbo Genku 1133 1212 known as Honen Opening with the destruction and chaos that beleaguered Kyoto during Honen s lifetime Soho Machida explores Honen s social context to discover the roots of his thought and the source of his popularity The Old Buddhist regime had a stranglehold on peasants he shows by concocting images of vindictive spirits hell and an apocalyptic collapse of the law in these chaotic times Machida asserts that when Honen countered such negative menacing images by focusing his imagination on the Pure Land and actually affirming death he became not only a radical thinker but also the leader of a revolutionary social movement a medieval Japanese liberation theology Clearly argued and informed by contemporary Western theory this book will become the definitive source on Honen s life and thought for decades to come The Pure Land sect of Japanese Buddhism is one of the strongest Buddhist sects in Japan with three and a half million followers In this book Soho Machida provides the first detailed objective account in English of the life and thought of its founder The Samurai Shūsaku Endō,1997 Considered one of the late Shusaku Endo s finest works THE SAMURAI seamlessly combines historical fact with a novelist s imaginings Set in the period preceding the Christian persecutions in Japan recorded so memorably in Endo s SILENCE this book traces the steps of some of the first Japanese to set foot on European soil Communities of Saint Martin Sharon Farmer,2019-03-15 Sharon Farmer here investigates the ways in which three medieval communities the town of Tours the basilica of Saint Martin there and the abbey of Marmoutier nearby all defined themselves through the cult of Saint Martin She demonstrates how in the early Middle Ages the bishops of Tours used the cult of Martin their fourthcentury predecessor to shape an idealized image of Tours as Martin s town As the heirs to Martin s see the bishops projected themselves as the rightful leaders of the community However in the late eleventh century she shows the canons of Saint Martin where the saint s relics resided and the monks of Marmoutier which Martin had founded took control of the cult and produced new legends and rituals to strengthen their corporate interests Since the basilica and the abbey differed in their spiritualities structures and external ties the canons and monks elaborated and manipulated Martin s cult in quite different ways Farmer shows how one saint s cult lent itself to these varying uses and analyzes the strikingly dissimilar Martins that emerged Her skillful inquiry into the relationship between group identity and cultural expression illuminates the degree to which culture is contested territory Farmer s rich blend of social history and hagiography will appeal to a wide range of medievalists cultural anthropologists religious historians and urban historians Enlightened Monks Ulrich L. Lehner,2011-03-24 A revisionist account of the effects of the Enlightenment process on German Benedictines which contributes to a better understanding not only of monastic culture in Central Europe but also of Catholic religious culture in general Buddhist Legends Buddhaghosa,1921 Bernard of

Clairvaux On the Life of the Mind John R. Sommerfeldt, 2004 Authority, Gender and Emotions in Late Medieval and Early Modern England Susan Broomhall, 2015-07-21 This collection explores how situations of authority governance and influence were practised through both gender ideologies and affective performances in medieval and early modern England Authority is inherently relational it must be asserted over someone who allows or is forced to accept this dominance The capacity to exercise authority is therefore a social and cultural act one that is shaped by social identities such as gender and by social practices that include emotions The contributions in this volume exploring case studies of women and men's letter writing political and ecclesiastical governance household rule exercise of law and order and creative agency investigate how gender and emotions shaped the ways different individuals could assert or maintain authority or indeed disrupt or provide alternatives to conventional practices of authority Bernard of Clairvaux on the Spirituality of Relationship John R. Sommerfeldt, 2004 This study argues that Bernard impacted Europe politically ecclesiastically and spiritually because his own life embodied so many of the ideals and values of his age some of which had not crystallized until his coming Bernard saw the Church as the sum of all those pursuing however feebly the path to perfection For him Noah Daniel and Job signified the three orders of church and society prelates monks and laypeople His enthusiasm for church and society was matched by his confidence that people throughout Europe could respond positively to God's invitation to perfection and thus could reach the goal of happiness no matter the social order to which they belonged or the pilgrim's path they followed BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Rabelais Anatole France, 1929 Publisher and Bookseller, 1870 Vols for 1871 76 1913 14 include an extra number The Christmas bookseller separately paged and not included in the consecutive numbering of the regular series Three Treatises Timothy J. Wengert, Erik H. Herrmann, James M. Estes, Paul W. Robinson, 2023-03-28 Martin Luther posted his Ninety five Theses on the church door at Wittenberg in 1517 In the three years after he clarified and defended his position in numerous writings Chief among these are the three treatises written in 1520 In the writings Luther framed his ideas in terms that are comprehensible to clergy and people from all backgrounds The Church in the Shadow of the Mosque Sidney H. Griffith, 2012-01-09 Amid so much twenty first century talk of a Christian Muslim divide and the attendant controversy in some Western countries over policies toward minority Muslim communities a historical fact has gone unnoticed for more than four hundred years beginning in the mid seventh century some 50 percent of the world's Christians lived and worshipped under Muslim rule Just who were the Christians in the Arabic speaking milieu of Mohammed and the Qur'an The Church in the Shadow of the Mosque is the first book length discussion in English of the cultural and intellectual life of such Christians indigenous to the Islamic world Sidney Griffith offers an engaging overview of their initial reactions to the religious challenges they faced the development of a new mode of presenting Christian doctrine as liturgical texts in their own languages gave way to Arabic the Christian role in the philosophical life of early Baghdad and the maturing of distinctive Oriental Christian denominations in this context

Offering a fuller understanding of the rise of Islam in its early years from the perspective of contemporary non Muslims this book reminds us that there is much to learn from the works of people who seriously engaged Muslims in their own world so long ago Some images inside the book are unavailable due to digital copyright restrictions

The Life of Lazaros of Mt. Galesion Gregory (the Cellarer.),2000 The vita of Lazaros here translated into English for the first time was written shortly after his death by a disciple Gregory the Cellarer The vita makes it clear that Lazaros s reputation was questioned during his lifetime and reveals the existence of a sometimes startling hostility toward him on the part of local church officials neighboring monasteries and even his own monks It is a refreshing piece of hagiography that provides a fascinating and unusual glimpse into the dynamics of the making or breaking of a holy man s reputation

Levant, Cradle of Abrahamic Religions Catalin-Stefan Popa,2023-04 The volume is the result of a Lecture Series on The Levant Cradle of Abrahamic Religions which engaged scholars on topics related to the cultural and religious diversity of the historical Levant Like a jigsaw the studies contained within showcase interlock fragments of the historical encounters between faiths religions and societies in a rich Levantine and Oriental space in an attempt to render them more accessible to readers today by focusing both on broader religious phenomena as well as on the practical liturgical and social interaction between traditions and mentalities features representative of both faith and society at large

The Lovelorn Ghost and the Magical Monk Justin Thomas McDaniel,2013-12-01 Focusing on representations of a famous ghost and monk from the late eighteenth century to today Justin Thomas McDaniel builds a case for interpreting modern Thai Buddhist practice through the movements of these transformative figures He follows embodiments of the ghost and monk in a variety of genres and media including biography drama ritual art liturgy film television and the Internet Sourcing nuns monks laypeople and royalty McDaniel shows how relations with these figures have been instrumental in crafting histories and modernities particularly local conceptions of being Buddhist and the formation and transmission of such identities across different venues and technologies

Introducing Religion Robert S. Ellwood,Patrick Horn,2024-08-22 Introducing Religion examines the different ways of looking at religion in the twenty first century Providing a broad overview to the discipline of religious studies this new edition continues to introduce students to engaging and contemporary topics such as sociology of religion psychology of religion history of religion religion and art religious ethics popular religion religion and violence Thoroughly updated throughout this sixth edition includes new coverage of current debates and hot topics in the field such as concerns about essentialism in religion the importance of categorization and the role of psychology in religious experience

This textbook is fundamental reading for students approaching this subject area for the first time The Different Paths of Buddhism Carl Olson, 2005-01-06 For centuries Buddhist teachers and laypeople have used stories symbols cultural metaphors and anecdotes to teach and express their religious views In this introductory textbook Carl Olson draws on these narrative traditions to detail the development of Buddhism from the life of the historical Buddha to the present By organizing the text according to the structure of Buddhist thought and teaching Olson avoids imposing a Western perspective that traditional texts commonly bring to the subject The book offers a comprehensive introduction to the main branches of the Buddhist tradition in both the Mahayana and Theravada schools including the Madhyamika school the Yogacara school Pure Land devotionalism Tibetan Tantric Buddhism Zen Buddhism and village folk Buddhist traditions Chapters explore the life and teachings of the Buddha in historical context the early development and institutionalization of Buddhism its geographic spread across Asia and eventually to the United States philosophy and ethics the relationship between monks and laity political and ethical implications the role of women in the Buddhist tradition and contemporary reinterpretations of Buddhism Drawn from decades of classroom experience this creative and ambitious text combines expert scholarship and engaging stories that offer a much needed perspective to the existing literature on the topic Critical Monks Thomas Wallnig, 2019-01-07 Benedictine scholars around 1700 most prominently proponents of historical criticism have long been regarded as the spearhead of ecclesiastical learning on the brink of Enlightenment first in France then in Germany and other parts of Europe Based on unpublished sources this book is the first to contextualize this narrative in its highly complex pre modern setting and thus at some distance from modernist ascriptions ex posteriori Challenged by Protestant and Catholic anti monasticism Benedictine scholars strove to maintain control of their intellectual tradition They failed thoroughly however in the Holy Roman Empire their success depended on an anti Roman and nationalized reading of their research For them becoming part of an Enlightenment narrative meant becoming part of a cultural project of Germany
