involved in the Englishmen's plot. They each are very much in the other's way especially when their mutual attraction threatens to make Thomas suspicious of the men he has come to see. As one after the other they appear to fall into disgrace he comes to believe there can be only one person who could be pulling the strings making the puppets dance to her tune Marguerite. But why? Follow along as Marguerite's well laid plans unfold as Donovan can only try to earn her trust becoming more concerned for her safety with every passing day.

The Illusions of Love is a romance yes. But it is also a character study of a family that has somehow lost its way. It's a coming of age story introducing Sarah Jane Trowbridge a young woman whose romantic dreams clash with reality when her grandmother buys her a husband who clearly doesn't want her. It's the story of the moral dilemma of her new husband Dante Muir who struggles to reconcile what he's always believed of himself with the cold blooded bastard who agrees to marry in order to save the family estate. Mostly this is Sarah Jane's story her journey from timid dreamer to a woman in her own right and what she learns along the way. Or to hear Sarah Jane tell it. Some people might be born to climb mountains lead armies or change the world. But most people could only do the best they could under the circumstances living their lives as honestly as possible hoping to make those they loved comfortable helping those less fortunate and trying not to hurt anyone else along the way.

The Legacy of the Rose Kasey Michaels, With The Legacy of the Rose

Kasey Michaels has crafted a dark and dangerous world within the Regency fraught with insanity and perverse desires. You must read this novel. It's heady and gutsy and altogether wonderful. Catherine Coulter. When Lucien Tremaine rides off to war it's with the promise he'll return to the life he leaves behind to his loving parents to his beloved fiancée. It is that promise that dream of reunion which brings him back to Tremaine Court only to be plunged into a living nightmare. Wounded sick and disillusioned he flees his family home with only one thought clear in his mind. Revenge. That single thought and one image that of the infuriating grey-eyed woman who has witnessed his disgrace seen him vulnerable at the very nadir of his existence. Kate Harvey has lived her own nightmare and can see her own heartbreak and shame reflected in the eyes of Lucien Tremaine But that doesn't mean she'll grant his demand to leave him alone not when danger threatens at Tremaine Court Can she goad him into returning and are her motives purely concern for those who live there or is her heart telling her something her mind refuses to accept
