De Renne William Harris Bragg, 1999 Much of what is known today of Georgia history was preserved through the diligent efforts of a single family From Wormsloe their ancestral plantation near Savannah the De Rennets built an extraordinary collection of books and manuscripts on the history of the state and the Confederacy much of which is now housed at the University of Georgia and the Museum of the Confederacy This book focuses on their efforts in the years 1827 through 1970 conveying the passion and purpose with which they pursued their avocation William Harris Bragg has mined a vast array of archival sources to present this engaging narrative of the De Renne family He tells how wealthy bibliophile and philanthropist G W J De Renne and his wife Mary set the precedent for the family s accumulation of historic material how their son established the Wymberley Jones De Renne Georgia Library that bears his name and how his children in turn expanded upon that tradition The De Rennes also printed limited editions of primary historical materials beginning with the series known as the Wormsloe Quartos Bragg s account of three generations of the De Renne family vividly records their achievements as it reconstructs their life at Wormsloe and follows them in their travels around the world It provides glimpses into the dynamics and behavior of one of Georgia s oldest and most prominent families and the evolution of the southern aristocracy The book draws on newly available material to expand significantly on Ellis Merton Coulter s 1955 work Wormsloe and provides the most complete account to date of the De Rennes Beyond the story of the De Renne family Bragg also reveals much about the history of collecting and of the antiquarian book trade as well as of the evolution of Georgia historical documentation Appendix material includes genealogical tables and lists of collections and publications making De Renne Three Generations of a Georgia Family an invaluable source for all scholars and aficionados of southern history

The National Trust Guide to Savannah Roulhac Toledano, 1997-04-03 The definitive guide to the architectural treasures of one of North America s urban masterpieces Savannah s twenty two squares are its treasures the other main attraction its architectural gems The sheer number of distinguished buildings is astonishing for a city of Savannah s size John Berendt from the Foreword The National Trust Guide to Savannah takes you on an illustrated walking tour through the breathtakingly gorgeous squares and neighborhoods of one of North America s most beautiful cities Pausing along the way to linger over this or that point of architectural interest Roulhac Toledano pieces together the history of the city from when it was little more than a plan on founder James Edward Oglethorpe's drawing board through the groundbreaking preservation work of the 1950s. With the help of more than 200 historic and contemporary photographs, Toledo provides vivid impressions of the city and takes you to the outlying areas of the Sea Islands and salt marshes, the plantations of Chatham County and nearby river villages. For those planning a visit, The National Trust Guide to Savannah supplies an extensive guide to Savannah's museums, lodgings, restaurants, bookstores, antique shops, and other points of interest. Story of Love (The Bradens #9)

Love in Bloom Contemporary Romance Melissa Foster, 2017-03-07 Story of Love A Braden Novella The Leaper Michael Barrett, 2016-10-13 For three years the author fished commercially for the mighty Atlantic salmon out of a remote fishing station on the west coast of Scotland working in what would turn out to be a declining inshore fishery. This book is in part a poem to Salmo salar, the fabulous leaper of the title, and is also an account of everyday life in this remote and beautiful part of the British Isles. Killer whales, basking sharks, and a hundred other creatures swim into view in this fascinating narrative, not least of which are the hilarious local Highland characters. It needed recording and has been done with great charm. Love, Lies, and Consequences Blake Karrington, Genesis Woods, 2022-03-31 Savannah Zaher has always prided herself in making the right decisions for her life from the time she packed up her things to attend college and law school in California to coming back home ten years later, grown, focused, and with a career she's always dreamed of. Only her best friend Reign knows the real reason behind her moving across the country all those years ago: trying to distance herself from a man. Lyfe Simmons is on top of the world. He has an empire that has been growing bigger every day, a group of friends who would die for each other, and a wife who is down for whatever. What could he possibly be missing? He has basically anything he could ever want right at his fingertips, but he doesn't have the one thing he wants most: the woman he fell in love with and hasn't stopped loving since he first laid eyes on her. With so many obstacles and bitter people in the way, can love really conquer all? Or will the consequences of loving a man who belongs to someone else cost Savannah everything she's worked so hard for?

Love through Time Barbara Woster, 2018-02-22 Tyeshia is being haunted by a 200-year-old ghost. Savannah is the one who opened the door to that mischievous specter, and now she must find a way to close it before she loses her dearest friend forever. But can she do what needs to be done when she's being haunted by a ghost of her own? Captain James Carlin Colin Carlin, 2022-04-13 A biography of the British American who captained a blockade runner for the Confederacy during the Civil War. Captain James Carlin is a biography of a shadowy nineteenth-century British Confederate. James Carlin, 1833-1921, who was among the most successful captains running the US Navy's blockade of Southern ports during the Civil War. Written by his descendent, Colin Carlin, Captain James Carlin ventures behind the scenes of this perilous trade that transported vital supplies to the Confederate forces. An Englishman trained in the British merchant marine, Carlin was recruited into the US Coastal and Geodetic Survey Department in 1856, spending four years charting the US Atlantic seaboard. Married and settled in Charleston, South Carolina, he resigned from the survey in 1860 to resume his maritime career His blockade running started with early runs into Charleston under sail These came to a lively conclusion under gunfire off the Stono River mouth More blockade running followed until his capture on the SS Memphis Documents in London reveal the politics of securing Carlin s release from Fort Lafayette On his return to Charleston General P G T Beauregard gave him command of the spar torpedo launch Torch for an attack on the USS New Ironsides After more successful trips though the blockade he was appointed superintending captain of the South Carolina Importing and Exporting Company and moved to Scotland to commission six new steam runners After the war Carlin returned to the southern states to secure his assets before embarking on a gun running expedition to the northern coast of Cuba for the Cuban Liberation Junta fighting to free the island from Spanish control and plantation slavery In researching his forebear the author gathered a wealth of private and public records from England Scotland Ireland Greenland the Bahamas and the United States The use of fresh sources from British Foreign Office and US Prize Court documents and surviving business papers make this volume distinctive A groundbreaking work that lifts the veil off the all important ship captains who supplied the Confederacy with the necessary supplies to sustain its fight for independence The author does a superb job in relating the story of his relative James Carlin a key member of the cadre of captains who sustained the Confederacy by running supplies through the northern blockade on specialized vessels A sweeping story from England to Charleston Florida and Cuba This book is a must for anyone interested in Southern Confederate maritime history Stephen R Wise author of Lifeline of the Confederacy Blockade Running during the Civil War Master-missionaries Alexander Hay Japp,1880 History of Southwest Virginia, 1746-1786, Washington County, 1777-1870 Lewis Preston Summers,1903 History of Andrew and De Kalb Counties, Missouri ,1888
