Old Texts Through New Eyes Dallas R. Burdette, 2009-03 Christians frequently slaughter freedom of conscience with fanatical dogmatism It is not uncommon for various fellowships of God's people to lay an embargo on freedom in favor of their own exclusive doctrine or understanding of the Scriptures One objective of this book is to set Christians free from sectarianism The views set forth in this book are not bound by party ties It is my desire that these writings will assist Christians in their desire to escape the prevailing forms of radicalism manifested by so many sincere and devout believers In my fifty eight years of preaching and teaching I have witnessed that men and women for the most part are afraid of freedom This volume examines the philosophy of what we teach is true and what others teach is false Among some bodies of believers freedom of investigation is rigidly shackled The chapters in this book seek to defuse the attitude that the one who refuses to comply with the status quo is no longer a brother in Christ The diversity of the chapters in this book refutes the prevailing opinions of many Christians my opinion is the only sound one flawless and incontestable Dallas Burdette has been a serious student teacher and preacher of the Bible for fifty eight years supporting himself for many years as an agent for AFLAC He has written numerous articles for religious journals as well as many essays and sermons which are available on his website He has developed a keen interest in promoting unity among God's people through a more accurate reading of the Word He has degrees from Amridge University formerly Southern Christian University where he also was Director of Extended Learning for five years He holds the Doctor of Ministry degree 1999 from Erskine Theological Seminary All the Parables of Jesus David M. Brown,2012-07 Like yeast parables are explosive stories of Jesus that invade our lives and transform us into citizens of the kingdom of God But they are also cryptic and that s where this book is useful More than an explanation or interpretation of each parable this definitive work is primarily an exercise in hermeneutics In it readers are taken through a process of discovering which sayings of Jesus are parables problematic questions related to counting and categorizing them and Jesus rationale for speaking in parables The work then analyzes four distinct ways that parables are structured and three levels at which they do their work in us The final chapter presents parable related hermeneutical guidelines and the book ends with seven extensive Appendices and two Indexes It is a must read for every biblical scholar It's a Good Day for Grace BJ Funk,2020-03-06 It s a Good Day for Grace brings grace into everyday life into those places where life hurts wounds and challenges As the unconditional love and favor of God Grace comes into our hurts and wounds and brings peace calmness and encouragement Grace is love and is available for you no matter what you are facing None of us deserve what grace does for us but all of us benefit from love that is so kind and loving so nonjudgmental and so accepting Grace fills our lives today with new hope and with the promise of more grace tomorrow Who Are You to Judge? Erwin W. Lutzer,2015-12-15 This book is a treasure of biblical wisdom Dr R C Sproul founder Ligonier Ministries Can I judge without being judgmental We live in a world that tolerates everything but judgment What we don t realize is that right judgment is the key to right living Who Are You To Judge is Lutzer s word to a culture that hates being told how to live and to a church called to purity After explaining the difference between judging and being judgmental Lutzer guides Christians in discerning various critical issues including miracles matters of doctrine and godly engagement with entertainment and culture With a passion for biblical truth and intolerance for lies Lutzer is compelling and gut honest Who Are You to Judge calls us to not only embrace the truth but also to live according to it speaking the truth in love to a world so desperately in need of both Who Are You To Judge? Erwin W. Lutzer,2008-09-01 A church that has made its peace with the world can no longer affect it As 21st century Christians we have settled down to a complacent form of faith that demands very little of us and thus makes very little impact on the world When secular values infiltrate the church we accept them without a twinge of conscience and congratulate ourselves on our tolerance We believe that we no longer have the right to challenge secular trends and decisions in or out of the church Erwin Lutzer looks at today s world and confronts us with our responsibility as believers in the church of Jesus Christ to again be a force for what is right not easy
