Selected Poems Of Kenneth Rexroth:

Selected Poems Kenneth Rexroth, 2014-06-10 The late Kenneth Rexroth 1905-1982 is surely one of the most readable of this century's great American poets. He is also one of the most sophisticated. Like William Carlos Williams, he honed his writing to a controlled and direct language. His intellectual complexity matches Wallace Stevens, his polymath erudition Ezra Pound. He is first among our nature poets. His love poems and erotic lyrics are unsurpassed. Rexroth's Selected Poems brings together in a single volume a representative sampling of sixty years' work. Here are substantial passages from his longer poems: The Homestead Called Damascus (1920-1925, begun while the poet was in his teens), a Prolegomenon to a Theodicy (1925-1927, the philosophical masterpiece), The Phoenix and the Tortoise (1940-1944), and The Dragon and the Unicorn (1944-1950), and the meditative The Heart's Garden, The Garden's Heart (1967). The shorter poems were originally gathered in In What Hour (1940), The Art of Wordly Wisdom (1949), The Signature of All Things (1950), In Defense of the Earth (1956), Natural Numbers (1964), New Poems (1974), and The Morning Star (1979).

Collected Longer Poems Kenneth Rexroth, 2013-05-15 This is a companion volume to the Collected Shorter Poems of Kenneth Rexroth, which was published in 1967. This is a companion volume to the Collected Shorter Poems of Kenneth Rexroth, which was published in 1967. All of the long poems written over the past forty years are included: The Homestead Called Damascus (1920-25), A Prolegomenon to a Theodicy (1925-27), The Phoenix and the Tortoise (1940-44), The Dragon and the Unicorn (1944-50), and The Heart's Garden, The Garden's Heart (1967-68). As we read the long poems together and in sequence, we can see that Rexroth is a philosophical poet of consequence who offers us a comprehensive system of values based on the realization of the ethical mysticism of universal responsibility. He is concerned above all with process, the movement from the Dual to the Other. I have tried, Rexroth writes, to embody in verse the belief that the only valid conservation of value lies in the assumption of unlimited liability, the supernatural identification of the self with the tragic unity of creative process. I hope I have made it clear that the self does not do this by an act of will, by sheer assertion. He who would save his life must lose it.

Selected Poems. With an Introduction by Kenneth Rexroth David Herbert Lawrence, Kenneth Rexroth, 1947

The Collected Shorter Poems Kenneth Rexroth, 1967 This volume brings together all of Kenneth Rexroth's shorter poems from 1920 to the present, including a group of new poems written since the publication of Natural Numbers, drawn from seven earlier books. Among the American poets of the generation that came to prominence in the Forties, Kenneth Rexroth has been notable both for the independence of his personal voice and for his accessibility to the tradition of international avant-garde literature. He began writing and publishing in magazines at fifteen. His earliest work was personal and concrete, much like that of the Imagists. In his twenties, he wrote in the disassociative style sometimes called literary cubism, developed by Mallarmé, Apollinaire, and Reverdy. This was not free association, but the conscious disassociation and recombination of the elements of the poem to achieve the highest possible level of significance With his later books Rexroth moved back to a direct and classically simple form of personal statement In this period he wrote the great nature poems the love poems and the contemplative lyrics that have established his reputation as one of the most important American poets     Selected Poems Kenneth Rexroth,1968     Selected Poems Pierre Reverdy,1969     The Collected Longer Poems of Kenneth Rexroth Kenneth Rexroth,1968     The Collected Shorter Poems of Kenneth Rexroth Kenneth Rexroth,1966     Collected Shorter Poems Kenneth Rexroth,2013-05-10 This volume brings together all of Kenneth Rexroth's shorter poems from 1920 to the present including a group of new poems written since the publication of Natural Numbers drawn from seven earlier books This volume brings together all of Kenneth Rexroth's shorter poems from 1920 to the present including a group of new poems written since the publication of Natural Numbers drawn from seven earlier books Among the American poets of the generation that came to prominence in the Forties Kenneth Rexroth has been notable both for the independence of his personal voice and for his accessibility to the tradition of international avant garde literature He began writing and publishing in magazines at fifteen His earliest work was personal and concrete much like that of the Imagists In his twenties he wrote in the disassociative style sometimes called literary cubism developed by Mallarmé Apollinaire and Reverdy This was not free association but the conscious disassociation and recombination of the elements of the poem to achieve the highest possible level of significance With his later books Rexroth moved back to a direct and classically simple form of personal statement In this period he wrote the great nature poems the love poems and the contemplative lyrics that have established his reputation as one of the most important American poets
