Reddel, 1990     Soviet Military Policy: Since World War II William T. Lee, 1986     Soviet Military Doctrine Harriet Fast Scott, William F. Scott, 2019-06-21

The purpose of this book is to document from basic Soviet sources the development of Soviet military doctrine and its impact upon the Soviet Armed Forces Soviet military doctrine is defined as the military policy of the Communist Party In one way or another this policy affects the lives of all of us as a possible threat to free institutions and political processes as well as to our economic life and well being Generally we approach Soviet military policy in terms of military balances and weapons comparisons in the number of men under arms the speed of aircraft of the Soviet bloc versus that of NATO aircraft the number of ballistic missiles and their throw weights Studying such balances is of critical importance in defining to some degree existing forces But it is only through a deep and thorough study of the military policy of the Communist Party which translates directly into military doctrine that we can obtain the background that might aid in negotiating with the Soviets on arms control matters or in making decisions that will enable those nations outside of the Soviet bloc to deter future Kremlin military moves     Air University Review, 1986     A Bibliography of Military Geography Eugene J. Palka, 1988

This four volume document is designed to enhance scholarly research in the area of military geography and to serve as a reference tool It is anticipated that this will meet the research needs of professors and students of military science geography and history along with members of the Armed Forces government officials and planners This bibliography is organized following the accepted scheme for military geography utilizing three main categories systematic topical and regional Volume I is a complete alphabetized list Volume II is organized systematically Volume III is organized topically and Volume IV collects regional sources     Soviet Ballistic Missile Defense and the Western Alliance David Scott Yost, 1988

Yost suggests that the challenges for Western policy posed by Soviet ballistic missile defense BMD programs stem partly from Soviet military programs Soviet arms control policies and Soviet public diplomacy campaigns and partly from the West's own intra alliance disagreements and lack of consensus about Western security requirements     Selected Readings in American Military History Infantry School (U.S.), 1953     The Missing Link Richard E. Bissell, Curt Walter Gasteyer, 1990

The Missing Link brings together the views on the defense of the continent of the five principal neutral nations in Europe Switzerland Sweden Finland Yugoslavia and Austria and examines the evolution and current status of the
