A Preface to Oscar Wilde Anne Varty, 2014-07-15 A Preface to Oscar Wilde provides a detailed study of the cultural personal and political influences that shaped Wilde's writing. The study concentrates primarily on his fiction, critical dialogues and plays that were published between 1890 and 1895 and detailed accounts of Wilde's lesser known works such as his poetry, journalism and letters are also presented. The first section places his work in a variety of cultural contexts. Wilde's family life and his Irish inheritance are examined, the impact of his sexuality on his writing and reputation is considered and a description is provided of how Wilde became a legendary figure in the arts. Major innovations and successes such as The Picture of Dorian Gray, Salome and The Importance of Being Earnest are related to avant garde movements of their day such as aestheticism, decadence and symbolism. Reference sections provide supporting material such as a Wilde chronology, a glossary of terms and a bibliography for further study. Anne Varty sets out in this study to bring to life the work of Wilde and to make his writing accessible to readers who are unfamiliar with his achievements. In so doing she confronts the ethical drive of his work and demonstrates the coherent evolution of his work from the aestheticism of the early poetry through the sophisticated handling of theatre to the dark self-scrutiny of autobiography. The comprehensive and accessible approach makes this a useful reference work to all who are studying Oscar Wilde both at A Level and undergraduate level. The content will also appeal to the general reader who is seeking to gain a greater understanding and appreciation of Wilde's work.

Congreve's poems. Preface to Dryden. The Tatler William Congreve, 1923 The English Illustrated Magazine, 1904

Beyond English Bhavya Tiwari, 2021-11-04 Honorable Mention Harry Levin Prize 2022 American Comparative Literature Association. Beyond English World Literature and India radically alters the debates on world literature that hinge on the model of circulation and global capital by deeply engaging with the idea of the world and world making in South Asia. Tiwari argues that Indic words for world (vishva, jagat, sansar) offer a nuanced understanding of world literature that is antithetical to a commodified and standardized monolingual globe. She develops a comparative study of the concept of world literature (vishva sahitya) in Rabindranath Tagore's works, the desire for a new world in the lyrics of the Hindi shadowism (chhayavaad) poets and world making in Thakazhi Sivasankara Pillai's Chemmeen (1956) and Arundhati Roy's The God of Small Things (1997). By emphasizing the centrality of literature (sahitya) through a close reading of texts, Tiwari orients world literature toward comparative literature and comparative literature toward a worldliness that is receptive to the poetics of a world in its original language and in translation.

Poetry, Publishing, and Visual Culture from Late Modernism to the Twenty-first Century Natalie Pollard, 2020 Exploring works by Djuna Barnes, David Jones, F. T. Prince, Denise Riley, Paul Muldoon and Ted Hughes, this volume traces the relationship between twentieth century poetry and art to question the role of art in society.
