Selected Poems Languagegames On The Periphery And Other Writings:

A History of Twentieth-Century British Women's Poetry Jane Dowson, Alice Entwistle, 2005-05-19 Publisher Description Lyric Pedagogy and Marxist-Feminism Samuel Solomon, 2019-02-07 What is the political potential of poetry in the contemporary era Exploring an often overlooked history of Marxist Feminist poetics in post war Britain including such poets as Denise Riley Veronica Forrest Thomson Wendy Mulford and Nat Raha this book confronts this central question to debates about the value of humanities education today Lyric Pedagogy and Marxist Feminism demonstrates how ideas of social reproduction have been central both to the forms of post 1945 British poetry and the educational institutions where poetry is overwhelmingly encountered and produced Combining new archival research with close readings of key poets of the period the book charts the interrelated crises both of poetry itself and literary education more widely Paradoxically the very marginalisation of poetry in contemporary culture serves to offer the form new opportunities as an agent of social transformation Selected Poems Veronica Forrest-Thomson, 1999 City Visions Jenny Bavidge, Robert Bond, 2021-03-04 City Visions The Work of Iain Sinclair collects fourteen pathbreaking essays treating the panoramic oeuvre of novelist poet filmmaker and essayist Iain Sinclair This book aims to reflect and develop the current strong interest in the work of Sinclair who is widely recognized as one of the most significant figures in contemporary British literature and culture The essays herein cover the key genres and periods of Sinclair's output discussing his poetry prose and filmmaking and are developed from the proceedings of the first academic conference on Sinclair which was held at the University of Greenwich in 2004 Following the introductory chapter which includes a brief survey of Sinclair's career up until now the collection is arranged thematically in four sections The first part Contexts features essays which comment on the critical categorization and definition of Sinclair's work The second part Culture and Critique includes essays which explore the political import and contexts of Sinclair's oeuvre The articles in the third part Connections look at the links between Sinclair and other writers addressing the often noted intertextuality of his writing and the final section Spaces contains three considerations of Sinclair's treatment of London's urban spaces This collection provides access to the latest research by the leading scholars working in this area and will be a key point of reference for anyone interested in Sinclair's production To some the field of London writing may increasingly look like an indifferent over populated wasteland Iain Sinclair however remains pre eminent by virtue not only of the amplitude of his knowledge of the city but of the intensity and complexity of his thought about it He is the redemptive memorialist of a host of disregarded London cultures that lie quite beyond the reach of contemporary pieties In that respect he is less our Blake as he sometimes seems to believe than our Pepys or our Defoe At the same time he is an audacious experimenter with prose forms in the modernist tradition from Joyce to Burroughs and beyond Like the Sinclair phenomenon itself this valuable collection of essays is multifaceted illuminating its subject from a variety of different angles whilst very well aware that it is part of a work in progress It offers important testimony to the scope and power of a writer
