Vickery, 2006-05-01 Lamentation of death is the traditional elegiac focus but in the twentieth century the elegy has become characterized as well by the mourning of other kinds of loss those personal familial romantic cultural and philosophical privations and dispossessions that have so greatly shaped the modern sensibility According to John B Vickery a profound

elegiac temper is itself the major trait of twentieth century culture registered in attitudes ranging from regret sorrow confusion anger anxiety doubt and alienation to outright despair He transforms our understanding of the elegy and its relation to modernism in The Modern Elegiac Temper Vickery offers in depth readings of a broad sampling of British and American poems written from World War I to the present He considers works of overlooked poets such as Vernon Watkins George Barker and Edith Sitwell while also attending to canonical writers such as T S Eliot Ezra Pound W H Auden and Wallace Stevens Taking a text oriented rather than author or theory oriented approach he discusses in turn the personal love cultural and philosophical elegy and shows how war the Great Depression the Holocaust and other major historical events influenced poets elegiac expressions By suggesting ways in which the individual centered concerns of the traditional elegy metamorphose under the depersonalizing lens of high modernism Vickery reveals the modern elegy to be a finely calibrated instrument for reading and expressing absorbing and reflecting the modern temperament

Dylan Thomas is the one of the most well known poets of the twentieth century much of his poetry is considered obscure and difficult and readers and critics tend to concentrate on those poems that can be most easily understood Not since the early sixties has there been an attempt to explicate the full corpus of Dylan Thomas s Collected Poems In Where Have the Old Words Got Me Ralph Maud tackles Thomas s entire work giving special attention to more difficult and obscure poems He makes valuable use of Thomas s letters as edited by Paul Ferris in his authoritative Collected Letters volume bringing the whole man and his work into view     Obsessive Images Joseph Warren Beach,1960 Obsessive Images was first published in 1960 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions As Mark Schorer comments this is the last unfinished work of a distinguished well loved critic poet and professor After the death of Joseph Warren Beach his colleague and friend William Van O Connor professor of English at the University of Minnesota prepared the unfinished manuscript of this work for publication and wrote the foreword The work is primarily a study of certain words phrases and images that turn up with unusual frequency in modern American poetry especially that of the decades of the 1930 s and 1940 s and which are used in unusual senses to carry special symbolisms or to imply peculiar philosophical attitudes Since the study is concerned with such recurring images and themes many poets of distinction in whose work they are not to be found are left out but Professor Beach also discusses the significance of the absence of these poets Students and critics will gain insight through this work into the characteristic attitudes of a generation of poets The book is moreover a delight to read reflecting as it does Mr Beach s own love for the study of poetry As Professor O Connor points out the tone is much more personal than that of Mr Beach s other books
