Nadezhda Krupskaya and the New View of Radical Society in Russia M. A. Iasilli, 2024-06-25 The Russian Revolution is typically studied from a perspective of power and authority The shadow of Communism tends to portray the revolutionary character of 1917 as an ominous path toward totalitarianism While the revolutionary story has been overshadowed by the authoritarianism of Stalinist regimes the Revolution has much more complex underpinnings that tie back to the nineteenth century Russian populist movement and the women who were drawn into it Nadezhda Krupskaya and the New View of Radical Society in Russia reexamines the fundamental ideas and moments that led to the revolution and its eventual bureaucratization from the perspective of Nadezhda Krupskaya Vladimir Lenin's wife Her involvement provides a new perspective in how we should consider the role of culture as opposed to ideology particularly the subordination of Communism as well as the women in Soviet politics M A Iasilli provides a nuanced view of the Russian Revolution that demonstrates a Bolshevik legacy and connection with their populist ancestors the Narodniks and argues that the revolution wasn't merely Marxist fanaticism but something much deeper and emotional

The

Communism of Love Richard Gilman-Opalsky, 2020-12-01 Exploring the meanings and powers of love from ancient Greece to the present day Richard Gilman Opalsky argues that what is called love by the best thinkers who have approached the subject is in fact the beating heart of communism understood as a way of living not as a form of government Along the way he reveals with clarity that the capitalist way of assigning value to things is incapable of appreciating what humans value most Capitalism cannot value the experiences and relationships that make our lives worth living and can only destroy love by turning it into a commodity The Communism of Love follows the struggles of love in different contexts of race class gender and sexuality and shows how the aspiration for love is as close as we may get to a universal communist aspiration Textual Liberation (Routledge Revivals) Helena Forsas-Scott, 2014-11-13 Feminist writing has emerged in recent years as a major influence of twentieth century European literature Textual Liberation first published in 1991 provides a timely and wide ranging survey of twentieth century feminist writing in Europe presenting texts from a number of countries and highlighting some of the transnational parallels and contrasts The contributors emphasize the wider contexts political social economic in which the texts were produced They cover feminist literature in Britain Scandinavia Germany Eastern Europe Russia France Spain Italy and Turkey and consider a range of genres including the novel poetry drama essays and journalism Each chapter contains an extensive bibliography with special emphasis on material available in English A stimulating introduction to the development of European feminist writing Textual Liberation will be an invaluable resource for students of women s literature women s studies and feminism The SAGE Handbook of Marxism Beverley Skeggs, Sara R. Farris, Alberto Toscano, Svenja Bromberg, 2021-11-17 The past decade has witnessed a resurgence of interest in Marxism both within and without the academy Marxian frameworks concepts and categories continue to be narratively relevant to the features and events of contemporary capitalism Most crucially an attention to shifting cultural conditions has lead contemporary researchers to re confront some classical and essential Marxist concepts as well as elaborating new critical frameworks for the analysis of capitalism today The SAGE Handbook of Marxism showcases this cutting edge of today s Marxism It advances the debate with essays that rigorously map and renew the concepts that have provided the groundwork and main currents for Marxist theory and showcases interventions that set the agenda for Marxist research in the 21st century A rigorous and challenging collection of scholarship this book contains a stunning range of contributions from contemporary academics writers and theorists from around the world and across disciplines invaluable to scholars and graduate students alike Part 1 Reworking the critique of political economy Part 2 Forms of domination subjects of struggle Part 3 Political perspectives Part 4 Philosophical dimensions Part 5 Land and existence Part 6 Domains Part 7 Inquiries and debates
