Selected Writings of Guillaume Apollinaire Guillaume Apollinaire, 1971 A bilingual illustrated edition of The Selected Writings of Apollinaire the only representative collection in English translation with a comprehensive critical Introduction by the translator Roger Shattuck Selected Writings Guillaume Apollinaire, 1971 Selected Writings of Apollinaire. Rev. Ed. Tr. Roger Shattuck Guillaume Apollinaire, 1971 Selected Writings of Guillaume Apollinaire, 2013-10 This is a new release of the original 1948 edition Selected Writings of Guillaume Apollinaire. Translated, With a Critical Introd., by Roger Shattuck Guillaume Apollinaire, 1971 Selected Writings Guillaume Apollinaire, 1950 Selected Writings Guillaume Apollinaire, 1950 Selected Writings of Guillaume Apollinaire. Translated, with a Critical Introduction, by Roger Shattuck. [With Plates, Including a Portrait.] Fr. & Eng Guillaume Apollinaire, Roger SHATTUCK, 1950 The Visible Word Johanna Drucker, 1994 Drucker skillfully traces the development of this critical position suggesting a methodology closer to the actual practices of the early avant garde artists based on a rereading of their critical and theoretical writings After reviewing theories of signification the production of meaning and materiality she analyzes the work of four poets active in the typographic experimentation of the 1910s and 1920s Ilia Zdanevich Filippo Marinetti Guillaume Apollinaire and Tristan Tzara Drucker explores the context for experimental typography in terms of printing handwriting and other practices concerned with the visual representation of language Her book concludes with a brief look at the ways in which experimental techniques of the early avant garde were transformed in both literary work and in applications to commercial design throughout the 1920s and early 1930s Selected Writings Guillaume Apollinaire, 1950 Reading Apollinaire's Alcools Willard Bohn, 2016-10-27 Reviewing the previous scholarship for seventeen of the most important poems in Alcools this book provides a detailed analysis of each work and includes a state of the art survey of current Apollinaire criticism Besides acquainting readers with the existing scholarship the book considers all the interpretations that have been proposed and indicates profitable directions to pursue Each poem is subjected to a rigorous line by line analysis that engages in a succession of dialogues with previous critics The studies themselves are arranged in roughly chronological order beginning with the Rh nanes in 1901 1902 and concluding with Zone in 1912 Although each chapter is basically conceived as an independent unit readers are able to follow the evolution of Apollinaire's aesthetics from his first mature creations through his subsequent experiments with fantastic hermetic visionary and cubist poetry At the same time they witness Apollinaire's personal evolution from his infatuation with Annie Playden through a period of deep depression his love affair with Marie Laurencin and the aftermath of that relationship Music, Language and Identity in Greece Polina Tambakaki, Panos Vlagopoulos, Katerina Levidou, Roderick Beaton, 2019-09-23 The national element in music has been the subject of important studies yet the scholarly framework has remained restricted almost exclusively to the field of music studies This volume brings together experts from different fields musicology literary theory and modern Greek studies who investigate the links that connect music language and national identity focusing on the Greek paradigm Through the study of the Greek case the book paves the way for innovative interdisciplinary approaches to the formation of the national in different cultures shedding new light on ideologies and mechanisms of cultural policies

Bohemian Paris Jerrold Seigel, 1999-09-30 Exotic and yet familiar rife with passion immorality hunger and freedom Bohemia was an object of both worry and fascination to workaday Parisians in the nineteenth century No mere revolt against middle class society the Bohemia Seigel discovers was richer and more complex the stage on which modern bourgeois acted out the conflicts of their social identities testing the liberation promised by post revolutionary society against the barriers set up to contain it Turning life into art Bohemia became a space where many innovative and original figures some famous some obscure found a home

The Screen in Surrealist Art and Thought Haim Finkelstein, 2017-07-05 An interrogation of the notion of space in Surrealist theory and philosophy this study analyzes the manifestations of space in the paintings and writings done in the framework of the Surrealist Movement Haim Finkelstein introduces the screen as an important spatial paradigm that clarifies and extends the understanding of Surrealism as it unfolds in the 1920s exploring the screen and layered depth as fundamental structuring principles associated with the representation of the mental space and of the internal processes that eventually came to be linked with the Surrealist concept of psychic automatism Extending the discussion of the concepts at stake for Surrealist visual art into the context of film literature and criticism this study sheds new light on the way film thinking permeates Surrealist thought and aesthetics In early chapters Finkelstein looks at the concept of the screen as emblematic of a strand of spatial apprehension that informs the work of young writers in the 1920s such as Robert Desnos and Louis Aragon He goes on to explore the way the spatial character of the serial films of Louis Feuillade intimated to the Surrealists a related mode of vision associated with perception of the mystery and the Marvelous lurking behind the surfaces of quotidian reality The dialectics informing Surrealist thought with regard to the surfaces of the real with walls doors and windows as controlling images are shown to be at the basis of Andr   Breton's notion of the picture as a window Contrary to the traditional sense of this metaphor Breton's window is informed by the screen paradigm with its surface serving as a locus of a dialectics of transparency and opacity permeability and reflectivity The main aesthetic and conceptual issues that come up in the consideration of Breton's window metaphor lay the groundwork for an analysis of the work of Giorgio de Chirico Ren   Magritte Max Ernst Andr   Breton and Joan Mir   he concluding chapter consi

Cinema by Other Means Pavle Levi, 2012-05-31 This title recounts the history of para cinema the long tradition within the avant garde of adapting the tools technologies and techniques of conventional film making Levi's study considers works by filmmakers artists and theorists from France Italy the Soviet Union Germany Hungary and Yugoslavia

The French Genealogy of the Beat Generation V  ronique Lane, 2017-10-19 The Francophilia of the Beat circle in the New York of the mid 1940s is well known as is the importance of the Beat Hotel in the Paris of the late 1950s and early 1960s but how exactly did French literature and culture participate in the emergence of the Beat Generation French modernism did much more than inspire its first major writers it materially shaped their works as this comparative study reveals through close textual analysis of William Burroughs Allen Ginsberg and Jack Kerouac s appropriations of French literature and culture Sometimes acknowledged sometimes not their appropriations take multiple forms ranging from allusions invocations and citations to adaptations and translations and they involve a vast array of works including the poetic realist films of Carné and Cocteau the existentialist philosophy of Sartre and the poems and novels of Baudelaire Rimbaud Proust Gide Apollinaire St John Perse Artaud Celine Genet and Michaux While clarifying the extent of Burroughs Ginsberg and Kerouac s engagements with French literature and culture in depth analysis of their textual appropriations emphasises differences in their views of literature philosophy and politics which help us understand the early Beat circle was divided from the start The book s close readings also transform our perception of Burroughs cut up practice Kerouac s spontaneous prose and Ginsberg s poetics of open secrecy

Translation and Multimodality Monica Boria, Ángeles Carreres, María Noriega-Sánchez, Marcus Tomalin, 2019-10-17 Translation and Multimodality Beyond Words is one of the first books to explore how translation needs to be redefined and reconfigured in contexts where multiple modes of communication such as writing images gesture and music occur simultaneously Bringing together world leading experts in translation theory and multimodality each chapter explores important interconnections among these related yet distinct disciplines As communication becomes ever more multimodal the need to consider translation in multimodal contexts is increasingly vital The various forms of meaning making that have become prominent in the twenty first century are already destabilising certain time honoured translation theoretic paradigms causing old definitions and assumptions to appear inadequate This ground breaking volume explores these important issues in relation to multimodal translation with examples from literature dance music TV film and the visual arts Encouraging a greater convergence between these two significant disciplines this text is essential for advanced students and researchers in Translation Studies Linguistics and Communication Studies The Dark Room and Other Poems Enrique Lihn, 1978

Modern Scottish Gaelic Poems, 1977 Although the number of Gaelic speakers has declined during the twentieth century the last forty years have seen an astonishing flowering of Scottish Gaelic poetry much of it in the modern idiom This bilingual anthology provides a selection of the best work of poets who have contributed most to that revival Sorley Maclean George Campbell Hay Derick Thomson Iain Crichton Smith and Donald MacAulay The Vertical Imagination and the Crisis of Transatlantic Modernism Paul Haacke, 2021-03-11 From the invention of skyscrapers and airplanes to the development of the nuclear bomb ideas about the modern increasingly revolved around vertiginous images of elevation and decline and new technologies of mobility and terror from above In The Vertical Imagination and the Crisis of Transatlantic Modernism Paul Haacke examines this turn by focusing on discourses of aspiration catastrophe and power in major works of European and American literature as well as film architecture and intellectual and cultural history This wide ranging and pointed study begins with canonical fiction by Franz Kafka Virginia Woolf James Joyce and John Dos Passos as well as poetry by Guillaume Apollinaire Hart Crane and Aim C saire before moving to critical reflections on the rise of New York City by architects and writers from Le Corbusier to Simone de Beauvoir the films of Alfred Hitchcock and theories of cinematic space and time and postwar novels by Kurt Vonnegut Thomas Pynchon and Leslie Marmon Silko among many other examples In tracing the rise and fall of modernist discourse over the course of the long twentieth century this book shows how visions of vertical ascension turned from established ideas about nature the body and religion to growing anxieties about aesthetic distinction technological advancement and American capitalism and empire It argues that spectacles of height and flight became symbols and icons of ambition as well as direct indexes of power and thus that the vertical transformation of modernity was both material and imagined taking place at the same time through the rapidly expanding built environment and shifting ideological constructions of high and low
