Selection Of Latin Inscriptions:

A Selection of Latin Inscriptions R. H. Barrow, 1968 A Selection of Latin Inscriptions R. H. Barrow (Reginald Haynes.), 1934 A Selection of Latin Inscriptions Reginald Haynes Barrow, 1934 Musa Lapidaria Edward Courtney, 1995 A Selection of Latin Inscriptions, by R. H. Barrow Reginald Haynes Barrow, Latin Inscriptions in the Kelsey Museum Steven Tuck, 2010-03-23 The Latin inscriptions in the Kelsey Museum are among the best primary sources we have for documenting the lives of the lower classes in the Roman world They provide unique evidence of the details of Roman daily life including beliefs occupations families and attitudes toward death The 400 entries in this volume include all of the Latin inscriptions on stone or metal in the Kelsey Museum of Archaeology at the University of Michigan they represent the largest and arguably the most important collection of Latin inscriptions in the Western Hemisphere The collection is notable not just for its size but for the fact that almost all the inscriptions were acquired by purchase for their scholarly and educational value to the members of the university community Because of this the collection is also an important testimony to a seminal phase in the development of the study of Classics at the University of Michigan For the first time ever this project makes the Latin inscriptions of the Kelsey available in one volume and has provided an opportunity to reexamine some texts that have not been edited in over a century The commentaries for this edition have benefited from a wealth of recent scholarship resulting in some amended readings and reidentification of texts Steven L Tuck is Assistant Professor of Classics at Miami University of Ohio The Kelsey Museum Studies series edited by University of Michigan professors Elaine Gazda Margaret Cool Root and John Pedley is designed to publish unusual material in the Museum s collections together with reports of current and past archaeological expeditions sponsored by the University of Michigan The Cambridge Manual of Latin Epigraphy Alison E. Cooley, 2012-09-13 This book advances our understanding of the place of Latin inscriptions in the Roman world It enables readers especially those new to the subject to appreciate both the potential and the limitations of inscriptions as historical source material by considering the diversity of epigraphic culture in the Roman world and how it has been transmitted to the twenty first century The first chapter offers an epigraphic sample drawn from the Bay of Naples illustrating the dynamic epigraphic culture of that region The second explores in detail the nature of epigraphic culture in the Roman world probing the limitations of traditional ways of dividing up inscriptions into different categories and offering examples of how epigraphic culture developed in different geographical social and religious contexts It examines the life cycle of inscriptions how they were produced viewed reused and destroyed Finally the third provides guidance on deciphering inscriptions face to face and handling specialist epigraphic publications Illustrated Introduction to Latin Epigraphy Arthur E.
