Romain, 2010-04-22 What do we mean by the terms God Self and Ego The answer depends on one's view of human nature and its relationship to the divine Using the philosophy and theology of St Thomas Aquinas to qualify his terms author Philip St Romain describes different possible relationships between God Self and Ego and the disciplines to support these

Struggling with God Simon D Podmore, 2013-10-31 Invoking the biblical motif of Jacob's struggle with the Face of God Genesis 32 Simon D Podmore undertakes a constructive theological account of spiritual trial tentatio known in German mystical and Lutheran tradition as Anfechtung in relation to enduring questions of the otherness and hiddenness of God and the self the problem of suffering and evil the freedom of Spirit and the anxious relationship between temptation and ordeal fear and desire This book traces a genealogy of spiritual trial from medieval German mystical theology through Lutheran and Pietistic thought Tauler Luther Arndt Boehme and reconstructs Kierkegaard's innovative yet under examined recovery of the category Anfægtelse a Danish cognate for Anfechtung within the modern context of the spiritless decline of Christendom Developing the relationship between struggle Anfechtung and release Gelassenheit Podmore proposes a Kierkegaardian theology of spiritual trial which elaborates the kenosis of the self before God in terms of Spirit's restless longing to rest transparently in God Offering an original rehabilitation of the temptation of spiritual trial this book strives for a renewed theological hermeneutic which speaks to the enduring human struggle to realise the unchanging love of God in the face of spiritual darkness How Odd of God William H. Willimon, 2015-10-09 Election is a strange word when used in theology It brings to mind old debates about what God might or might not have done before the foundation of the world But viewed apart from that historical baggage the word election is about a central gospel idea that in Jesus not only does God choose to be God for us but chooses us to be for God The calling of the disciples in the gospels is a story of election of how God chooses to transform the world by choosing us to be messengers and agents of that transformation So it is says William Willimon that election becomes not just the content of our preaching but the means as well God chooses preachers How unlikely how odd is it that God should entrust the proclamation of the gospel to well us This unpredictable electing God reaches out to save the world and then leaves it in the hands of preachers to get the word out Through us through our stammering tongues and faltering hearts the preached word becomes the Word of God If you wonder why you drag yourself into the pulpit every Sunday if you worry that your sermons aren't reaching past the front pew then read this book and be encouraged God chooses God chooses preachers God chooses you Clones of God Michael Inuit, 2017-01-22 Reader you may wonder Is this a science fiction story with human clones Or is this a spiritual novel related to God It is both Two ETs come to Earth for a vacation They analyze and they worry about what is happening on our planet They don't understand why the elite control the lives of people They don't comprehend why ordinary Humans so feebly react to that But the beginning of the 21st century was a time of Great Awakening The pivotal moment was the subtle split of Earth's magnetic field It allowed the creation of two densities two worlds Follow the thrilling events that lead to that moment Read the story of people who softly act and change their worldview Read about Humans as spiritual beings in a material world Those two ETs teach them to have a dialogue with the Divine Self Within They help Humans to be aware like themselves of being clones of God Then they can be empowered and change the world for good With those two ETs and enlightened Humans embark on this odyssey God Planted the Tree Vera Conyers,2010-11-22 God and Human Dignity R. Kendall Soulen,Linda Woodhead,2006-07-12 The concept of human dignity has been stripped from its traditional context in Christian thought becoming a moral trump frayed by heavy use but a compelling alternate vision has not yet emerged God and Human Dignity offers a fresh restatement of the nature and scope of human dignity in Christian perspective Theologians ethicists and biblical scholars from around the world here examine the dimensions of human worth in the light of sacred Scripture doctrine and ecclesial practice In contrast to modernity's often monochromatic accounts of human dignity in terms of freedom or rationality these essays argue that human dignity in Christian perspective is a many splendored thing reflecting humanity's participation in the divine drama of creation redemption and new creation Representing disciplines across the academic spectrum the essays in God and Human Dignity offer systematic and scriptural perspectives on human dignity that connect to a host of pressing contemporary issues Contributors C Clifton Black Russell Botman Don Browning J Kameron Carter Elaine Graham Robert W Jensen James L Mays M Douglas Meeks Esther Menn Peter Ochs John Polkinghorne Hans Reinders Gerhard Sauter Christoph Schwobel R Kendall Soulen Fraser Watts Michael Welker and Linda Woodhead D Feasting on the Word David Lyon Bartlett,Barbara Brown Taylor,2010-01-01 With the twelve volume series Feasting on the Word Westminster John Knox Press offers one of the most extensive and well respected resources for preaching on the market today When complete the twelve volumes will cover all of the Sundays in the three year lectionary cycle along with moveable occasions The page layout is truly unique For each lectionary text preachers will find brief essays one each on the exegetical theological pastoral and homiletical challenges of the text Each volume will also contain an index of biblical passages so that nonlectionary preachers may make use of its contents The printed volumes for Ordinary Time include the complementary stream during Year A the complementary stream during the first half of Year B the semicontinuous stream during the second half of Year B and the semicontinuous stream during Year C Beginning with the season after Pentecost in Year C the alternate lections for Ordinary Time not in the print volumes will be available online at feastingontheword.net Being and Becoming Franklyn Sills,2008-09-23 Being and Becoming is a wide ranging analysis of the nature of being and selfhood The book presents an original integrated paradigm with the aim of creating a comprehensive overview of the human condition and finding ways to alleviate suffering In essence the book explores the question What does it mean to be Being and Becoming begins with fresh interpretations of the work of Martin Heidegger and Buddhist Taoist and Christian writings as they relate to this question Most of Being and Becoming however is about the nature of self and selfhood as a process of I am this my becoming rather than my being Author Franklyn Sills interweaves concepts from object relations theories psychodynamics pre and perinatal psychology and Buddhist self psychology along with his own rich experience as a Buddhist monk somatic therapist and psychotherapist into his inquiry The works of Fairbairn and Winnicott are discussed in depth as are Winnicott and Stern s insights into the nature of the early holding environment the infant mother relational field and early perceptual dynamics A thoughtful guide for psychologists therapists counselors and other health professionals the book is also ideal for Buddhists and anyone looking for alternative therapy models Philosophy of Contemporary Spirituality Vladimir Živković, Why do atheism science and philosophy have no answers to the question of the Self Why do religion and modern spirituality fall into more and more delusions Gain knowledge about yourself and life through this book Participate in philosophical debates through knowledge and experience and overcome the ignorance of the world Easy to understand philosophy of spirituality on the palm of your hand *Life Letters Lectures and Addresses of Fredk. Hadewijch and Her Sisters John Giles Milhaven,1993-08-24 Hadewijch a thirteenth century woman describes her relationship with God as a mutual loving in which God and she affect each other personally and profoundly This book presents in detail the account by Hadewijch of this supreme and most satisfying experience Presented here are phenomenologically specific traits of the bodily knowing that Hadewijch and other women of her time and place prized in their devotion to Christ and his saints The opposition to the traditional Western ideal and norm is evident In prizing embodied mutuality Hadewijch has learned from Bernard of Clairvaux but sees much more Conversations with Barth on Preaching Bishop William H. Willimon,2010-09-01 One of today s greatest preacher theologians engages one of the twentieth century s greatest teacher theologians on the meaning of preaching Readers of William H Willimon s many books have long found there the influence of Karl Barth probably the most significant theologian of the twentieth century In this new book Willimon explores that relationship explicitly by engaging Barth s work on the pitfalls and problems glories and grandeur of preaching the Word of God The Swiss theologian says the author expressed one of the highest theologies of preaching of any of the great theologians of the church Yet too much of Barth s understanding of preaching lies buried in the Church Dogmatics and other sometimes obscure sources Willimon brings this material to light introducing the reader to Barth s thought not just on the meaning but the practice of preaching as well Sounding Solitude Sr. Mary Paul Cutri, OCD,2010 Solitude is not foreign to anyone It is a universal reality that permeates all our experiences But why write a book about it One answer God God is the One we seek in solitude Solitude which is a listening to God a being with God an attentiveness to God's word and wisdom and a being in love with God is worth the journey into it. Persons who enter into solitude and taste its fruits will no longer see as they saw before. Solitude offers another way of seeing. When we are open to discover and to receive the mystery of solitude purifies the sight, the seeing, the beholding of each person. When solitude brings us to God, God brings us into new vision. This book is directed to all who seek God and who long to see God and to know God's ways more truly. This book is for those who are so eager to be transformed in Christ that they are willing to wade into the waters of solitude. This book invites you to an exploration that begins with the desire to pray, to pray because the hunger for God pursues you to pray because you believe the value of prayer. Solitude is a milieu of prayer; it beckons us to seek God. Prayer will lead you into the solitude God wants for you. Prayer opens the door to a solitude which will open you to God. Once you read this book, solitude will not be a solitude of emptiness; love will be near. The Mind of Wisdom Rev. Delos O. Soehren, 2021-08-30. Want to find wisdom and understanding? In The Mind of Wisdom you can find many answers to a multitude of questions which have been asked. Answers that may have been hidden from ordinary life; answers that may be the guidance for which you have been searching many days. The War of the Mind: Understanding Inflation and Alienation David Sinclair, 2021-07-27. Christians say that Jesus Christ had two natures, divine and human. What would that be like? According to Carl Jung, we are all Jesus Christ. Our human part is our ego, the center of our consciousness, while our divine part is our Self, the unconscious center of our entire psyche. With Jesus Christ, both natures, divine and human, were conscious in one person. According to Jung, the problem for humans is that our divine nature is unconscious and our conscious human nature is for the most part completely unable to communicate with our inner God. If it could, we would all be Jesus. Instead, the human mind is at war with itself. The part that is truly connected to reality is our unconscious Self, the God inside us. The part that is prone to making up reality, the part that lives in a fantasy world of its own devising, is our conscious human part. For Jung, the ego consciousness has to undergo a process called individuation to make proper contact with the Self, the divine unconscious, and thus reach the answer to life, the universe, and everything. Dreams are where our inner God attempts to speak to us, but people are hopeless at interpreting their dreams. The more successful you become at individuation, the better sense you can make of your all-important dreams. If the conscious ego and unconscious Self have a poor relationship, disaster usually follows. Two of the biggest dangers are inflation and alienation. These are currently happening on an epidemic scale and infecting the whole world with madness. The Mind War can end only if the two natures of Jesus, human and God, can at last learn to be on the same page and understand each other's role. Come inside and find out what has to be done. Tillich Donald W.
