Selling The Lite Of Heaven:

Selling the Lite of Heaven Suzanne Strempek Shea,2010-05-11 Advertising to sell her engagement ring after being left at the altar by a man who decided to enter the clergy instead a young woman meets Randy a recently engaged prospective buyer who keeps coming back to see her Hoopi Shoopi Donna Suzanne Strempek Shea,2010-06-15 Growing up in a small New England town 14 year old Donna Milewski had all she needed a grandmother Babci whose fragrant cooking filled their home her mother Helen who lovingly stitched outfits and Adam the most wonderful father a daughter could imagine who dreamed she could one day lead an all girl polka band Then came Betty a tiny and adorable five year old sent from Poland by Adam s destitute brother Bringing with her only a rubber doll s leg and her old world charm Betty became the little sister Donna never had and a threat to her father s love During a long and painful rift a dance of betrayal and hurt Donna must look to her beloved polka music for the key to healing Lily of the Valley Suzanne Strempek Shea,2010-05-11 Lily Wilk always knew she was destined to be an artist ever since she pulled a drawing kit from a grab bag on her tenth birthday Now Lily s work is always in demand around her small Massachusetts town where she makes her living painting fire hydrants lettering diplomas and applying Gulls and Buoys to restaurant bathroom doors But when supermarket heiress Mary Ziemba commissions her to paint a family portrait Lily senses her lifelong dream of creating a memorable masterpiece is finally within her grasp What she discovers however is that dreams often take their own unexpected twists and with each small and gentle brush stroke she applies to Mary Ziemba s painting Lily learns more than she ever imagined about the meaning of friendship family and love With a gift for creating fiction that is rich with an unusual sweetness USA Today and filled with wry humor bestselling author Suzanne Strempek Shea delivers a poignant and unforgettable work of art in Lily of the Valley

Making It in America Elliott Robert Barkan,2001-05-01 This collection of over 400 biographies of eminent ethnic Americans celebrates a wide array of inspiring individuals and their contributions to U S history The stories of these 400 eminent ethnic Americans are a testimony to the enduring power of the American dream These men and women from 90 different ethnic groups certainly faced unequal access to opportunities Yet they all became renowned artists writers political and religious leaders scientists and athletes Kahlil Gibran Daniel Inouye Zbigniew Brzezinski Thurgood Marshall Madeleine Albright and many others are living proof that the land of opportunity sometimes lives up to its name Alongside these success stories as historian Elliot R Barkan notes in his introduction to this volume there have been many failures and many immigrants who did not stay in the United States Nevertheless the stories of these trailblazers visionaries and champions portray the breadth of possibilities from organizing a nascent community to winning the Nobel prize They also provide irrefutable evidence that no single generation and no single cultural heritage can claim credit for what America is Shelf Life Suzanne Strempek Shea,2004 While recovering from radiation therapy author Suzanne Shea volunteered to help in a local bookstore as a way of getting back into the world Her work was interrupted by an author tour that took her to other great bookstores Descriptions of these and others book filled rooms are scattered through this account of reading Writing the Polish American Woman in Postwar Ethnic Fiction Grażyna J. Kozaczka, 2019-02-26 Though often unnoticed by scholars of literature and history Polish American women have for decades been fighting back against the patriarchy they encountered in America and the patriarchy that followed them from Poland Through close readings of several Polish American and Polish Canadian novels and short stories published over the last seven decades Writing the Polish American Woman in Postwar Ethnic Fiction traces the evolution of this struggle and women's efforts to construct gendered and classed ethnicity Focusing predominantly on work by North American born and immigrant authors that represents the Polish American Catholic tradition Grażyna J. Kozaczka puts texts in conversation with other American ethnic literatures She positions ethnic gender construction and performance at an intersection of social class race and sex She explores the marginalization of ethnic female characters in terms of migration studies theories of whiteness and the history of feminist discourse Writing the Polish American Woman in Postwar Ethnic Fiction tells the complex story of how Polish American women writers have shown a strong awareness of their oppression and sought empowerment through resistive and transgressive behaviors Around Again Suzanne Strempek Shea, 2010-06-15 When Robyn Panek is summoned by her ailing uncle Pal to operate his pony ring for one final season on his Massachusetts farm her years away from the vacation spot of her youth seem an unbridgeable gap But she is pulled by forces stronger than memory to piece together the events of that last childhood summer when a dark mystery swirled about her friend Lucy Dragon They called her crazy and Robyn must at last uncover the truth about Lucy's sudden disappearance and make peace with her own first love Frankie Now the future of Pal's six ponies who circle the ring five times for a dollar a ride is as uncertain as Robyn's own as she confronts the past she ran from so long ago Living in Translation, 2021-11-01 Living in Translation Polish Writers in America discusses the interaction of Polish and American culture the transfer of the Central European experience abroad and the acculturation of major representatives of Polish literature to the United States Contributions written by American specialists in Polish Studies tell the story of contemporary Polish expatriates who recently lived or are currently living in the U.S. These authors include directors screen writers Roman Polanski and Agnieszka Holland the Nobel Prize laureate poet Czesław Miłosz theatre critic Jan Kott prose writer Jerzy Kosinski essayist Eva Hoffman and poet translator Stanisław Barańczak Living in Translation presents these and other writers in terms of the duality of their profiles resulting from their engagement in two different cultures It documents problems encountered by those who became expatriates in response to a totalitarian system they had left behind And it revises and updates the image of the Polish exile authors refocusing it along the lines of culture transfer border straddling and benefits resulting from a transcultural existence Forkroads, 1996 Something of My Very Own to Say Thomas S. Gladsky, Rita Holmes Gladsky, 1997 This collection of essays and representative selections of literature seeks to enlarge the history of American women's literature Polish and American scholars reflect upon questions of gender and ethnicity that have framed the experiences of all women but particularly those of Polish descent The original texts accompanying each essay fiction memoirs poems and essays represent many aspects of the women s identities secular and spiritual Jewish and gentile immigrant and native 19th century and contemporary Viewed from literary historical political artistic social and gender perspectives the writings of Polish American women offer a record of cultural sensitivities of those cut off from their homeland and twice removed from the American mainstream

The Polish American Encyclopedia James S. Pula, 2010-12-22 At least nine million Americans trace their roots to Poland and Polish Americans have contributed greatly to American history and society During the largest period of immigration to the United States between 1870 and 1920 more Poles came to the United States than any other national group except Italians Additional large scale Polish migration occurred in the wake of World War II and during the period of Solidarity s rise to prominence This encyclopedia features three types of entries thematic essays topical entries and biographical profiles The essays synthesize existing work to provide interpretations of and insight into important aspects of the Polish American experience The topical entries discuss in detail specific places events or organizations such as the Polish National Alliance Polish American Saturday Schools and the Latimer Massacre among others The biographical entries identify Polish Americans who have made significant contributions at the regional or national level either to the history and culture of the United States or to the development of American Polonia
