Sensory and Consumer Research in Food Product Design and Development Howard R. Moskowitz, Jacqueline H. Beckley, Anna V. A. Resurreccion, 2012-01-24 During the past thirty years companies have recognized the consumer as the key driver for business and product success This recognition has in turn generated its own drivers sensory analysis and marketing research leading first to a culture promoting the expert and then evolving into the systematic acquisition of consumer relevant information to build businesses Sensory and Consumer Research in Food Product Design and Development is the first book to present from the business viewpoint the critical issues faced by business leaders from both the research development and business development perspective This popular volume now in an updated and expanded second edition presents a unique perspective afforded by the author team of Moskowitz Beckley and Resurreccion three leading practitioners in the field who each possess both academic and business acumen Newcomers to the field will be introduced to systematic experimentation at the very early stages to newly emerging methods for data acquisition knowledge development and to points of view employed by successful food and beverage companies The advanced reader will find new ideas backed up by illustrative case histories to provide another perspective on commonly encountered problems and their practical solutions This book is aimed at professionals in all sectors of the food and beverage industry Sensory and Consumer Research in Food Product Design and Development is especially important for those business and research professionals involved in the early stages of product development where business opportunity is often the greatest The Marketing Era Kalman Applbaum, 2004-06-01 Marketing has situated itself as an indispensable tool in today's business world an unavoidable step in the process from production to consumption This book is the first of its kind to map out the organizing principles and cultural logic of marketing and trace the profession's ascent to global domination Applbaum argues that marketing can be seen as a particular set of cultural practices that surfaced in reaction to the affluence of Western society and not the answer to the call of inherent human needs and wants In order to understand globalization transnational corporations and the spread of consumer culture one must understand the logic of marketing The Rise of Eurocentrism Vassilis

Lambropoulos, 2019-10-08 In the controversy over political correctness the canon and the curriculum the role of Western tradition in a post modern world is often debated To clarify what is at stake Vassilis Lambropoulos traces the ideology of European culture from the Reformation focusing on a key element of Western tradition the act of interpretation as a distinct practice of understanding and a civil right Championed by Protestants insisting on independent interpretation of scripture this ideal of autonomy ushered in the era of modernity with its essentialist philosophy of universal man and his aesthetic understanding of the world After explaining the dominance of European culture through the combined archetypes of Hebraism reason and morality and Hellenism spirit and art Lambropoulos shows how the rule of autonomy has been transformed into the aesthetic disinterested contemplation of things in themselves Arguing that it is time to restore the socio political dimension to the movement of autonomy he proposes that a genealogy of the Hebraic Hellenic archetypes can help us evaluate more recent models like the Afrocentric one and redefine the controversy surrounding education Eurocentrism and cultural politics Essentials of Health Care Marketing Eric N.
