Shakuntala Recognized ,2000-11-06 Shakuntala Recognized is a translation of the Sanskrit play Abhijyanashakuntalam by the great poet and playwright Kalidasa As a poet of mellifluous charm and as a master of Simile he indulged in Sringara Rasa Eros the sensuous aspects of human condition This play is perhaps his most powerful expression of that sensuality Extolled by Goethe and German Romanticists and others the play uniquely weaves a magical fabric of life with the threads of human frailties and tragedies The plot for this play is based on a tale in the Indian epic Mahaabhaarata The tale depicts how India came to be called Bharatavarsha or Bharat a name that is still official in the Indian languages Great Sanskrit Plays, in New English Transcreations P. Lal,1964 The wonderful world of classical Indian drama has been obscured for most readers by the stilted style of the existing 19th century translations Here an Indian Sanskrit scholar P Lal who is also a fine poet in his own right has produced new versions in modern idiom which brings across the full richness and vitality of the originals And these transcreations are so presented that they will play on our stage today The volume contains Shakuntala by Kalidasa The Toy Cart by King Shudraka The Signet Ring of Rakshasa by Vishakadatta The Dream of Vasavadatta by Bhasa The Later Story of Rama by Bhavabhuti and Ratnavali by Harsha On Hinduism Wendy Doniger,2014-02-03 In this magisterial volume of essays Wendy Doniger enhances our understanding of the ancient and complex religion to which she has devoted herself for half a century This series of interconnected essays and lectures surveys the most critically important and hotly contested issues in Hinduism over 3 500 years from the ancient time of the Vedas to the present day The essays contemplate the nature of Hinduism Hindu concepts of divinity attitudes concerning gender control and desire the question of reality and illusion and the impermanent and the eternal in the two great Sanskrit epics the Ramayana and the Mahabharata Among the questions Doniger considers are Are Hindus monotheists or polytheists How can atheists be Hindu and how can unrepentant Hindu sinners find salvation Why have Hindus devoted so much attention to the psychology of addiction What does the significance of dogs and cows tell us about Hinduism How have Hindu concepts of death rebirth and karma changed over the course of history How and why does a pluralistic faith remarkable for its intellectual tolerance foster religious intolerance Doniger concludes with four concise autobiographical essays in which she reflects on her lifetime of scholarship Hindu criticism of her work and the influence of Hinduism on her own philosophy of life On Hinduism is the culmination of over forty years of scholarship from a renowned expert on one of the world s great faiths The World Encyclopedia of Contemporary Theatre Don Rubin,2001 This new in paperback edition of World Encyclopedia of Contemporary Theatre covers the Americas from Canada to Argentina including the United States Volume 5 covers Asia Pacific Entries are preceded by specialist introductions on Theatre in Post Colonial Latin America Theatres of North America Puppet Theatre Theatre for Young Audiences Music Theatre and Dance Theatre The essays follow the series format allowing for cross referring across subjects both within the volume and between volumes Each country entry is written by specialists

Walker, 2012-03-12 In this book Steven F Walker considers the midlife transition from a Jungian and Eriksonian perspective by providing vivid and powerful literary and cinematic examples that illustrate the psychological theories in a clear and entertaining way For C G Jung midlife is a time for personal transformation when the values of youth are replaced by a different set of values and when the need to succeed in the world gives place to the desire to participate more in the culture of one's age and to further its development in all kinds of different ways Erik Erikson saw generativity an expanded concern for others beyond one's immediate circle of family and friends as the hallmark of this stage of life Both psychologists saw it as a time for growth and renewal Literary texts such as Virginia Woolf's Mrs Dalloway Shakespeare's Antony and Cleopatra or Sophocles Oedipus the King and films such as Fellini's 8 1/2 and Campion's The Piano have the capacity to represent sometimes more vividly and with greater dramatic concentration than actual life histories or case studies the archetypal nature of the drama and in depth transformation associated with the midlife transition Midlife Transformation in Literature and Film focuses on the specific male and female archetypal paradigms and presents them within the general context of midlife transformation For men the theme of death of the young hero presides over the crisis and the transformative ordeal whereas for women the theme of tragic abandonment acts as the prelude to further growth and independence This book is essential reading for anyone studying Jung Erikson or the midlife transition It will interest those who have already been through a midlife transition those who are in the midst of one as well as those who are yet to experience this challenging period      Love's Rite R. Indian even if you have not read them they shape your behavior These stories permeate the air of Bharat Whether we believe in them or not they determine our value system All our festivals ceremonies and the way we celebrate them are narrated to us in these Puranic stories There are thousands of stories and even for a brilliant mind it is impossible to remember all of them Collectively as a society we remember these stories but as individuals we struggle to know all The purpose of these stories was to unite society The stories that unite people depend on the society The type of stories that will unite people depends on the political system ethnic diversity in society available resources wealth distribution among citizens geographical features such as deserts snowy mountains overflowing riverbanks plateaus with good agriculture and water or areas surrounded by dense forests with unknown diseases etc After twelve hundred years of barbaric invasions and colonization when Bharat became free on 15th August 1947 and chose to be a democratic nation with immense diversity the question arises how do we unite the society Stories revolving around military heroes or successful business ventures are one way to connect with people and unite society However these individual stories do not provide us with the broader narrative of a civilizational nation We cannot unite Bharat in the same way as the USA Greece Iran Saudi Arabia or China Bharat is a civilizational nation and on top of that we have vast diversity population and poverty Engaging 1.4 billion people of a democratic nation who speak over 400 languages and embrace dozens of religious and ethnic diversities in nation building is an immense challenge That's why despite one's education experience or intelligence without divine blessings whether you are a nation or an individual both will suffer Bharat has a long tradition of writing and narrating Puranic stories and in a democratic system we need to harness this art to unite society However this time the stories should steer clear of concepts like heaven and hell They should also avoid focusing on the gods and goddesses of the sky Citizens should not prioritize an afterlife but instead strive for a meaningful peaceful existence on the land we call Rashtra or nation Namo Purana is a grand narrative of Bharat Glory struggle and progress from Vedic times to 2023 are compressed within this book It encapsulates everything essential about Bharat its Vedic time peaks struggle rise and resurgence This is not a book focused on any specific topic like spirituality history geography or economy Instead it is a Purana that delves into every aspect of Maa Bharati's life Readers will encounter a wide range of topics in this work including spirituality dharma religion history geography trade and business economy culture politics geopolitics war and conflicts agriculture literature biographies Bhakti Yoga Jnyana Yoga Karma Yoga sociology colonization patriotism nationalism constitution law and order and the dos and don'ts of good governance Each is discussed briefly to inspire the citizens of Bharat to understand their motherland its struggles and challenges One should neither look up to any other nation with awe nor look down on any other nation All nations on the planet are equal and their residents are our family members residing in different houses Therefore it's important to respect and care for all while ensuring that our Rashtra our home is safe and peaceful for ourselves and future generations
